CHAPTER 2

FINANCIAL STABILITY

Part 1

Powers and functions of Reserve Bank

35

Responsibility for financial stability

11. (1) The Reserve Bank is responsible—

- (a) for protecting and enhancing financial stability; and
- (b) if a systemic event has occurred or is imminent, for restoring or maintaining financial stability.
- (2) When fulfilling its responsibility in terms of subsection (1), the Reserve Bank-
 - (a) must act within a policy framework agreed between the Minister and the Governor;
 - (b) may utilise any power vested in it as the Republic's central bank or conferred on it in terms of this Act or any other legislation; and45

(c) must have regard to, amongst other matters, the roles and functions of other organs of state exercising powers that affect aspects of the economy.

Monitoring of risks by Reserve Bank

12. The Reserve Bank must—

(a) monitor and keep under review—

- (i) the strengths and weaknesses of the financial system; and
 (ii) any risks to financial stability, and the nature and extent of those risks, including risks that systemic events will occur and any other risks contemplated in matters raised by members of the Financial Stability Oversight Committee or reported to the Reserve Bank by a financial 10 sector regulator;
- (b) take steps to mitigate risks to financial stability, including advising the financial sector regulators, and any other organ of state, of the steps to take to mitigate those risks; and
- (c) regularly assess the observance of principles in the Republic developed by 15 international standard setting bodies for market infrastructures, and report its findings to the financial sector regulators and the Minister, having regard to the circumstances and the context within the Republic.

Financial stability review

13. (1) The Reserve Bank must, at least every six months, make an assessment of the 20 stability of the financial system, herein referred to as the "financial stability review".

(2) A financial stability review must set out—

- (a) the Reserve Bank's assessment of financial stability in the period under review;
- (b) its identification and assessment of the risks to financial stability in at least the 25 next 12 months;
- (c) an overview of steps taken by it and the financial sector regulators to identify and manage risks, weaknesses or disruptions in the financial system during the period under review and that are envisaged to be taken during at least the next 12 months; and
- (d) an overview of recommendations made by it and the Financial Stability Oversight Committee during the period under review and progress made in implementing those recommendations.

(3) Information which, if published may materially increase the possibility of a systemic event, only needs to be published in a financial stability review after the risk of 35 a systemic event subsides, or has been addressed.

- (4) The Reserve Bank must-
 - (a) submit a copy of each review to the Minister and the Financial Stability Oversight Committee for information and comment, and allow the Minister or the Financial Stability Oversight Committee at least two weeks to make 40 comments, should they wish to do so;
 - (b) publish the review, after having taken into account any comments that may have been received in terms of paragraph (a); and
 - (c) table a copy of the review in Parliament.

45

50

30

Managing systemic events and risks in relation to systemic events

Determination of systemic events

(2) The Governor may, before making a determination in terms of subsection (1), consult the Financial Stability Oversight Committee.

(3) A determination in terms of subsection (1) may be made whether or not the event or circumstance, or combination of events or circumstances, has already occurred or arisen.

(4) The Governor may, after having consulted the Minister, determine that a specified systemic event has occurred or is imminent.

(5) The Governor—

- (a) must notify the Minister of a determination made in terms of subsection (1) or (4); 10
- (b) must keep the determination under review;
- (c) may, at any time, after having consulted the Minister, amend or revoke a determination in writing; and
- (d) must notify the Minister of any amendment or revocation of a determination made in terms of subsection (1) or (4).15

(6) The Reserve Bank must notify the financial sector regulators of a determination in terms of this section, and of an amendment or revocation of such a determination.

(7) The Reserve Bank must, in respect of a determination made in terms of subsection(1) or (4), and any amendment or revocation of such a determination—

- (a) table the determination, or the amendment or revocation of the determination, 20 in Parliament; and
- (b) publish the determination, or the amendment or revocation of the determination, on the Reserve Bank's website.

Functions of Reserve Bank in relation to systemic events

15. (1) The Reserve Bank must take all reasonable steps—

- (a) to prevent systemic events from occurring; and
- (b) if a systemic event has occurred or is imminent, to -
 - (i) mitigate without delay the adverse effects of the event on financial stability; and
 - (ii) manage the systemic event and its effects.

(2) When acting in terms of subsection (1), the Reserve Bank must have regard to the need to -

- (a) minimise adverse effects on financial stability and economic activity;
- (b) protect, as appropriate, financial customers; and
- (c) contain the cost to the Republic of the systemic event and the steps taken. 35

Information to Minister

16. (1) If the Governor has in terms of section 14(4) determined that a systemic event has occurred or is imminent, the Governor must ensure that the Minister is kept informed of the event and of any steps being taken or proposed to manage the event and the effects of the event.

(2) The Reserve Bank may not, except with the Minister's approval, take a step in terms of section 15 that will or is likely to—

- (a) bind the National Revenue Fund to any expenditure;
- (b) have a material impact on the cost of borrowing for the National Revenue Fund; or
- (c) create a future financial commitment or a contingent liability for the National Revenue Fund.

Responsibilities of financial sector regulators

17. If the Governor has in terms of section 14(4) determined that a systemic event has occurred or is imminent, each financial sector regulator must—

45

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

15

56

- (a) provide the Reserve Bank with any information in the possession of the financial sector regulator, which may be relevant for the Bank to manage the systemic event or the effects of the systemic event; and
- (b) consult the Reserve Bank before exercising any of their powers in a way that may compromise steps taken or proposed in terms of section 15 to manage the 5 systemic event or the effects of the systemic event.

Directives to financial sector regulators

18. (1) The Governor may direct a financial sector regulator, in writing, to provide the Reserve Bank with information specified in the directive that the Reserve Bank or the Governor needs for exercising their powers in terms of section 14 or 15, that is in the 10 possession of the financial sector regulator or obtainable by it.

(2) (a) If the Governor has in terms of section 14(4) determined that a systemic event has occurred or is imminent, the Governor may, in writing, direct a financial sector regulator to assist the Reserve Bank in complying with section 15 by acting in accordance with the directive when exercising its powers.

- (b) A directive in terms of paragraph (a) may include directions aimed at -
- (i) supporting the restructuring, resolution or winding-up of any financial institution;
- (ii) preventing or reducing the spread of risk, weakness or disruption through the financial system; or

(iii) increasing the resilience of financial institutions to risk, weakness or disruption.

(3) The Prudential Authority, Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the Financial Intelligence Centre must comply with a directive issued to it in terms of subsection (1) or (2).

(4) The National Credit Regulator must comply with a directive issued to it in terms 25 of subsection (1) or (2), provided that the Minister has consulted the Minister responsible for consumer credit matters on the directive.

Exercise of powers by other organs of state

19. (1) If the Governor has in terms of section 14(4) determined that a systemic event has occurred or is imminent, an organ of state exercising powers in respect of a part of the financial system may not, without the approval of the Minister, acting in consultation with the Cabinet member responsible for that organ of state, exercise its powers in a way that is inconsistent with a decision or steps taken by the Governor or the Reserve Bank in terms of this Part, in order to manage that systemic event or the effects of that systemic event. 35

(2) Any unresolved issues between the Minister and that Cabinet member must be referred to Cabinet.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to the financial sector regulators.

Part 3

Financial Stability Oversight Committee

40

Establishment of Financial Stability Oversight Committee

20. (1) A committee called the Financial Stability Oversight Committee is hereby established.

(2) The primary objectives of the Financial Stability Oversight Committee are to-

- (a) support the Reserve Bank when the Reserve Bank performs its functions in 45 relation to financial stability; and
- (b) facilitate co-operation and collaboration between, and co-ordination of action among, the financial sector regulators and the Reserve Bank in respect of matters relating to financial stability.

- (b) to make recommendations to the Governor on the designation of systemically important financial institutions;
- (c) to advise the Minister and the Reserve Bank on—
 - (i) steps to be taken to promote, protect or maintain, or to manage or prevent 10 risks to, financial stability; and
 - (ii) matters relating to crisis management and prevention;
- (d) to make recommendations to other organs of state regarding steps that are appropriate for them to take to assist in promoting, protecting or maintaining, 15 or managing or preventing risks to financial stability; and
- (e) any other function conferred on it in terms of applicable legislation.

Membership

22. (1) The Financial Stability Oversight Committee consists of the following members:

- (b) the Deputy Governor responsible for financial stability matters;
- (c) the Chief Executive Officer;
- (d) the Commissioner;
- (e) the Chief Executive Officer of the National Credit Regulator;
- (f) the Director-General;
- (g) the Director of the Financial Intelligence Centre; and
- (h) a maximum of three additional persons appointed by the Governor.

(2) A member of the Financial Stability Oversight Committee referred to in terms of subsection (1)(h) holds office for the period, and on the terms, determined by the Governor.

Administrative support by Reserve Bank

23. (1) The Reserve Bank must provide administrative support, and other resources, including financial resources, for the effective functioning of the Financial Stability Oversight Committee.

(2) The Reserve Bank must ensure that minutes of each meeting of the Financial 35 Stability Oversight Committee are kept in a manner determined by the Governor.

Meetings and procedure

24. (1) The Financial Stability Oversight Committee must meet at least every six months.

(2) The Governor-

- (a) may convene a meeting of the Financial Stability Oversight Committee at any time: and
- (b) must convene a meeting if requested to do so by the Chief Executive Officer, the Commissioner or the Chief Executive Officer of the National Credit Regulator.

(3) (a) The Governor chairs a meeting of the Financial Stability Oversight Committee at which the Governor is present.

(b) If the Governor is not present at a meeting, the Deputy Governor responsible for financial stability matters chairs the meeting.

(4) (a) A member of the Financial Stability Oversight Committee who is unable to 50 attend a meeting may, after notice to the other members and with the concurrence of the person who will chair the meeting, nominate an alternate to attend that meeting in the member's absence.

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

(b) An alternate referred to in paragraph (a) has, for that meeting, the same rights as the member of the Financial Stability Oversight Committee.

(5) The Financial Stability Oversight Committee may determine its procedures, including quorum requirements.

(6) The person chairing a meeting may invite any person, including a representative 5 of an organ of state or a financial institution, to attend the meeting.

(7) The Financial Stability Oversight Committee may establish separate working groups or subcommittees.

(8) In the event of an equality of votes on a matter that may be voted upon by the Financial Stability Oversight Committee, the person chairing a meeting has a casting 10 vote in addition to a deliberative vote.

Part 4

Financial Sector Contingency Forum

Financial Sector Contingency Forum

25. (1) The Governor must establish a forum called the Financial Sector Contingency 15 Forum.

(2) The primary objective of the Financial Sector Contingency Forum is to assist the Financial Stability Oversight Committee with—

- (a) the identification of potential risks that systemic events will occur; and
- (b) the co-ordination of appropriate plans, mechanisms and structures to mitigate 20 those risks.

(3) The Financial Sector Contingency Forum is composed of at least eight members, including -

- (a) a Deputy Governor designated by the Governor, which Deputy Governor is the Chairperson; 25
- (b) representatives of each of the financial sector regulators;
- (c) representatives of other organs of state, as the Chairperson may determine; and
- (d) representatives of financial sector industry bodies and any other relevant person, as the Chairperson may determine.

30

(4) The Financial Sector Contingency Forum must meet at least every six months.(5) The Financial Sector Contingency Forum must be convened and must function in accordance with procedures determined by the Governor.

(6) The Reserve Bank must provide administrative support, and other resources, including financial resources, for the effective functioning of the Financial Sector 35 Contingency Forum.

Part 5

Roles of financial sector regulators and other organs of state in maintaining financial stability

Co-operation among Reserve Bank and financial sector regulators in relation to 40 financial stability

26. (1) The financial sector regulators must—

- (a) co-operate and collaborate with the Reserve Bank, and with each other, to maintain, protect and enhance financial stability;
- (b) provide such assistance and information to the Reserve Bank and the 45 Financial Stability Oversight Committee to maintain or restore financial stability as the Reserve Bank or the Financial Stability Oversight Committee may reasonably request;
- (c) promptly report to the Reserve Bank any matter of which the financial sector regulator becomes aware that poses or may pose a risk to financial stability; 50 and
- (d) gather information from, or about, financial institutions that concerns financial stability.

(2) The Reserve Bank must, when exercising its powers in terms of this Chapter, take into account—

- (a) any views expressed and any information reported by the financial sector regulators; and
- (b) any recommendations of the Financial Stability Oversight Committee.

Memoranda of understanding relating to financial stability

27. (1) The financial sector regulators and the Reserve Bank must, not later than six months after this Chapter takes effect, enter into one or more memoranda of understanding with respect to how they will co-operate and collaborate with, and provide assistance to, each other and otherwise perform their roles and comply with 10 their duties relating to financial stability.

(2) The financial sector regulators and the Reserve Bank must review and update the memoranda of understanding as appropriate, but at least once every three years.

(3) A copy of a memorandum of understanding must, without delay after being entered into or updated, be provided to the Minister and the Cabinet member responsible 15 for consumer credit matters.

(4) The validity of any action taken by a financial sector regulator in terms of a financial sector law, the National Credit Act or the Financial Intelligence Centre Act is not affected by a failure to comply with this section or a memorandum of understanding contemplated in this section. 20

Roles of other organs of state in relation to financial stability

28. An organ of state, other than a financial sector regulator, must-

- (a) in performing its functions, have regard to the implications of its activities on financial stability; and
- (b) provide such assistance and information to the Reserve Bank and the 25 Financial Stability Oversight Committee so as to maintain and restore financial stability as the Bank or the Committee may reasonably request.

Part 6

Systemically important financial institutions

Designation of systemically important financial institutions

55

29. (1) (a) The Governor may, by written notice to a financial institution, designate the institution as a systemically important financial institution.

(b) The power of the Governor in terms of paragraph (a) may not be delegated.

(2) Before designating a financial institution in terms of subsection (1) as a systemically important financial institution, the Governor must— 35

- (a) give the Financial Stability Oversight Committee notice of the proposed designation and a statement of the reasons why the designation is proposed, and invite the Committee to provide advice on the proposal within a specified reasonable period; and
- (b) if, after considering the Committee's advice, the Governor proposes to 40 designate the financial institution in terms of subsection (1), invite the financial institution to make submissions on the matter, and give it a reasonable period to do so.

(3) In deciding whether to designate a financial institution in terms of subsection (1), the Governor must take into account at least the following: 45

- (a) The size of the financial institution;
- (b) the complexity of the financial institution and its business affairs;
- (c) the interconnectedness of the institution with other financial institutions within or outside the Republic;
- (d) whether there are readily available substitutes for the financial products and 50 financial services that the financial institution provides or, in the case of a market infrastructure, the market infrastructure;
- (e) recommendations of the Financial Stability Oversight Committee;
- (f) submissions made by or for the institution; and
- (g) any other matters that may be prescribed by Regulation.

(4) (a) If the Governor has determined in terms of section 14(4) that a systemic event has occurred or is imminent, the Governor may designate a financial institution as a systemically important financial institution without complying, or complying fully, with subsection (2) or (3).

(b) If the Governor acts in terms of paragraph (a) and designates a financial institution 5 without complying, or complying fully, with subsection (2) or (3), the financial institution may make submissions on the designation to the Governor within 30 days after being notified of the designation.

(c) The Governor must consider any submissions in terms of paragraph (b) and, by notice to the financial institution, either confirm or revoke the designation.

(5) The designation of a financial institution as a systemically important financial institution does not imply, or entitle the financial institution to, a guarantee or any form of credit or other support from any organ of state.

(6) The Governor may, in writing, revoke a designation made in terms of this section.

(7) A designation, and the revocation of a designation, in terms of this section must be 15 published.

Prudential standards and regulator's directives in respect of systemically important financial institutions

30. (1) To mitigate the risks that systemic events may occur, the Reserve Bank may, after consulting the Prudential Authority, direct the Prudential Authority to impose, 20 either through prudential standards or regulator's directives, requirements applicable to one or more specific systemically important financial institutions or to such institutions generally in relation to any of the following matters:

- (a) Solvency measures and capital requirements, which may include requirements in relation to counter-cyclical capital buffers;
- (b) leverage ratios;
- (c) liquidity;
- (d) organisational structures;
- (e) risk management arrangements, including guarantee arrangements;
- (f) sectoral and geographical exposures;
- (g) required statistical returns;
- (h) recovery and resolution planning; and
- (i) any other matter in respect of which a prudential standard or regulator's directive may be made that is prescribed by Regulations made for this section on the recommendation of the Governor.

(2) The Prudential Authority may make prudential standards or issue regulator's directives as contemplated in subsection (1).

(3) The Prudential Authority must notify the Reserve Bank and the Financial Stability Oversight Committee of any steps taken to enforce a prudential standard made or a regulator's directive issued in terms of subsection (2), and the effect of those steps.

Winding-up and similar steps in respect of systemically important financial institutions

31. (1) None of the following steps may be taken in relation to a systemically important financial institution or a systemically important financial institution within a financial conglomerate without the concurrence of the Reserve Bank:

- (a) Suspending, varying, amending or cancelling a licence issued to that financial institution;
- (b) adopting a special resolution to wind up the financial institution voluntarily;
- (c) applying to a court for an order that the financial institution be wound up;
- (d) appointing an administrator, trustee or curator for the financial institution; 50
- (e) placing the financial institution under business rescue or adopting a business rescue plan for the financial institution;

- (f) entering into an agreement for amalgamation or merger of the financial institution with a company; and
- (g) entering into a compromise arrangement with creditors of the financial institution.

(2) A step referred to in subsection (1) that is taken without the Reserve Bank's 5 concurrence is void.

CHAPTER 3

PRUDENTIAL AUTHORITY

Part 1

Establishment, objective and functions

Establishment

32. (1) An authority called the Prudential Authority is hereby established.

(2) The Prudential Authority is a juristic person operating within the administration of the Reserve Bank.

(3) The Prudential Authority is not a public entity in terms of the Public Finance 15 Management Act.

Objective

33. The objective of the Prudential Authority is to—

- (a) promote and enhance the safety and soundness of financial institutions that provide financial products and securities services;
- (b) promote and enhance the safety and soundness of market infrastructures;
- (c) protect financial customers against the risk that those financial institutions may fail to meet their obligations; and
- (d) assist in maintaining financial stability.

Functions

34. (1) In order to achieve its objective, the Prudential Authority must—

- (a) regulate and supervise, in accordance with the financial sector laws—
 (i) financial institutions that provide financial products or securities services; and
 - (ii) market infrastructures;

40

- (b) co-operate with and assist the Reserve Bank, the Financial Stability Oversight Committee, the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, the National Credit Regulator and the Financial Intelligence Centre, as required in terms of this Act;
- (c) co-operate with the Council for Medical Schemes in the handling of matters of 35 mutual interest;
- (d) support sustainable competition in the provision of financial products and financial services, including through co-operating and collaborating with the Competition Commission;
- (e) support financial inclusion;
- (f) regularly review the perimeter and scope of financial sector regulation, and take steps to mitigate risks identified to the achievement of its objective or the effective performance of its functions; and
- (g) conduct and publish research relevant to its objective.

(2) The Prudential Authority must also perform any other function conferred on it in 45 terms of any other provision of this Act or other legislation.

(3) The Prudential Authority may do anything else reasonably necessary to achieve its objective, including -

- (a) co-operating with its counterparts in other jurisdictions; and
- (b) participating in relevant international regulatory, supervisory, financial 50 stability and standard setting bodies.

(4) When performing its functions, the Prudential Authority must—

- (a) take into account the need for a primarily pre-emptive, outcomes focused and risk-based approach, and prioritise the use of its resources in accordance with the significance of risks to the achievement of its objective; and
- (b) to the extent practicable, have regard to international regulatory and 5 supervisory standards set by bodies referred to in subsection (3)(b), and circumstances in the Republic.

(5) The Prudential Authority must perform its functions without fear, favour or prejudice.

Part 2 10

Governance

Overall governance objective

35. The Prudential Authority must manage its affairs in an efficient and effective way, and establish and implement appropriate and effective governance systems and processes, having regard to, among other things, internationally accepted standards and 15 practices in these matters.

Appointment of Chief Executive Officer

36. (1) The Governor must, with the concurrence of the Minister, appoint a Deputy Governor who has appropriate expertise in the financial sector, other than the Deputy Governor responsible for financial stability, as the Chief Executive Officer of the 20 Prudential Authority.

(2) When appointing a Deputy Governor as the Chief Executive Officer, that Deputy Governor and the Governor must agree, in writing, on-

- (a) the performance measures that will be used to assess the Deputy Governor's performance as the Chief Executive Officer; and 25
- (b) the level of performance to be achieved against those performance measures. (3) A person may not be appointed or hold office as the Chief Executive Officer if the person-
 - (a) is a disqualified person; or
 - (b) is not ordinarily resident in the Republic.

Role of Chief Executive Officer

37. (1) The Chief Executive Officer—

- (a) is responsible for the day-to-day management and administration of the Prudential Authority; and
- (b) subject to section 42(b), must perform the functions of the Prudential 35 Authority, including exercising the powers and carrying out the duties associated with those functions.

(2) When acting in terms of subsection (1), the Chief Executive Officer must implement the policies and strategies adopted by the Prudential Committee.

Term of office of Chief Executive Officer

38. (1) A person appointed as the Chief Executive Officer—

- (a) holds office for a term no longer than five years, as the Governor may determine:
- (b) is, at the expiry of that term, eligible for re-appointment for one further term; and
- (c) must vacate office before the expiry of a term of office if that person-
 - (i) resigns as Chief Executive Officer, by giving at least three months written notice to the Governor, or a shorter period that the Governor may accept;

70

(ii) ceases to hold office as Deputy Governor; or

(iii) is removed from office as Chief Executive Officer.

(2) The Governor must, at least three months before the end of the Chief Executive Officer's first term of office, inform the Chief Executive Officer whether the Governor proposes to re-appoint the person as Chief Executive Officer.

Removal of Chief Executive Officer

39. (1) The Governor must, subject to due process, remove the Chief Executive Officer from office if the Chief Executive Officer becomes a disqualified person.

(2) The Governor may, with the concurrence of the Minister, remove the Chief Executive Officer from office if an independent inquiry, established by the Governor 10 with the concurrence of the Minister, has found that the Chief Executive Officer—

- (a) is unable to perform the duties of office for health or other reasons;
- (b) has failed in a material way to achieve the level of performance against the performance measures agreed to in terms of section 36(2);
- (c) has failed in a material way to discharge any of the responsibilities of office, 15 including any responsibilities entrusted in terms of legislation; or
- (d) has acted in a way that is inconsistent with continuing to hold the office.

(3) If an independent inquiry has been established in terms of subsection (2), the Governor may suspend the Chief Executive Officer from office pending a decision on the removal of the Chief Executive Officer. 20

(4) Without limiting subsection (2)(c), the Chief Executive Officer must be taken to have failed in a material way to discharge the responsibilities of office if he or she is absent from two consecutive meetings of the Prudential Committee without the leave of the Prudential Committee.

(5) If the Chief Executive Officer is removed from office in terms of subsection (2), 25 the Minister must, within 30 days, submit the report and findings of the independent inquiry to the National Assembly.

Acting Chief Executive Officer

40. The Governor may appoint a senior staff member of the Prudential Authority or a Deputy Governor to act as Chief Executive Officer when the Chief Executive Officer is 30 absent from office, suspended or is otherwise unable to perform the functions of office.

Establishment of Prudential Committee

41. (1) A committee called the Prudential Committee is hereby established for the Prudential Authority.

(2) The Prudential Committee consists of the Governor, the Chief Executive Officer 35 and the other Deputy Governors.

Role of Prudential Committee

42. The Prudential Committee must-

- (a) generally oversee the management and administration of the Prudential Authority to ensure that it is efficient and effective; and
 - 40
- (b) act for the Prudential Authority in the following matters:
 - (i) Authorising the Chief Executive Officer to sign, on behalf of the Prudential Authority, a section 27 or section 77 memorandum of understanding and any amendment to such a memorandum;
 - (ii) delegating powers of the Prudential Authority to the Financial Sector 45 Conduct Authority in terms of a section 77 memorandum of understanding;
 - (iii) adopting the regulatory strategy of the Prudential Authority, and any amendment to the strategy;
 - (iv) adopting the administrative action procedures of the Prudential Author- 50 ity, and any amendment to those procedures;

72

- (v) appointing members of subcommittees of the Prudential Authority required or permitted by a law, and giving directions regarding the conduct of the work of any subcommittee;
- (vi) making prudential standards, joint standards and other regulatory instruments in terms of financial sector laws;
- (vii) making determinations of fees in terms of financial sector laws; and
- (viii) any other matter assigned in terms of a financial sector law to the Prudential Committee.

Meetings of Prudential Committee

43. (1) (a) The Prudential Committee must meet as often as necessary for the 10 performance of its functions.

(b) An audio or audio-visual conference among a majority of the members of the Prudential Committee, which enables each participating member to hear and be heard by each of the other participating members, must be regarded as a meeting of the Prudential Committee, and each participating member must be regarded as being present at such a 15 meeting.

(2) Meetings of the Prudential Committee are held at times and, except where subsection (1)(b) applies, at places determined by the Governor.

(3) A quorum for a meeting of the Prudential Committee is a majority of its members.

(4) (a) The Governor chairs meetings of the Prudential Committee at which the 20 Governor is present.

(b) If the Governor is not present at a meeting, a Deputy Governor other than the Chief Executive Officer, who is nominated by the Governor, or selected in accordance with a procedure determined by the Governor, chairs the meeting.

(5) The Governor or the Deputy Governor chairing a meeting of the Prudential 25 Committee may invite or allow any other person, including a representative of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority or the National Credit Regulator, to attend a meeting of the Prudential Committee, but a person who is invited has no right to vote at the meeting.

(6) The members may regulate proceedings at Prudential Committee meetings as they 30 consider appropriate.

(7) The Chief Executive Officer must ensure that minutes of each meeting of the Prudential Committee are kept in a manner determined by the Chief Executive Officer.

Decisions of Prudential Committee

44. (1) (a) A proposal before a meeting of the Prudential Committee becomes a 35 decision of the committee if a majority of the members present, or regarded as being present, and voting on the proposal, vote for the proposal.

(b) In the event of an equality of votes on a proposal, the person chairing the meeting has a casting vote in addition to a deliberative vote.

(2) The Prudential Committee may, in accordance with procedures determined by it, 40 make a decision on a proposal outside a meeting of the Prudential Committee.

- (3) A decision of the Prudential Committee is not invalid merely because
 - (a) there was a vacancy in the office of a member when the decision was taken; or
 - (b) a person who was not a member participated in the decision, as long as such person did not vote.

Governance and other subcommittees

45. (1) The Prudential Committee must establish-

- (a) a subcommittee to review, monitor and advise the Prudential Committee on the risks faced by the Prudential Authority and plans for managing those risks; and
- (b) a subcommittee to advise the Prudential Committee on measures that must be taken to ensure that the Prudential Authority complies with its obligations in relation to auditing and financial management.

(2) The Prudential Committee may establish one or more other subcommittees for the Prudential Authority, with functions that the Prudential Committee may determine.

(3) (a) The Prudential Committee determines the membership of a subcommittee established in terms of this section.

(b) The majority of the members of a subcommittee established in terms of subsection 5 (1) may not be staff members of the Prudential Authority or the Reserve Bank.

(c) A subcommittee established in terms of subsection (2) may include persons who are neither members of the Prudential Committee nor staff members of the Prudential Authority.

(d) A disqualified person may not be a member of a subcommittee established in 10 terms of this section.

(4) The Prudential Committee may, instead of establishing a subcommittee referred to in subsection (1), assign the subcommittee's function to a committee of the Reserve Bank performing a similar function.

(5) A member of a subcommittee established in terms of this section, including a 15 member who is not in the service of an organ of state, holds office for the period, and on the terms and conditions, and terms regarding remuneration, as determined by the Prudential Committee.

(6) A subcommittee established in terms of subsection (1) must be chaired by a person who is not the Governor, a Deputy Governor, the Chief Executive Officer or a staff 20 member of the Prudential Authority.

(7) A subcommittee established in terms of this section determines its procedures subject to any directions by the Prudential Committee.

(8) The Chief Executive Officer must ensure that minutes of each meeting of each subcommittee established in terms of this section are kept in a manner determined by the 25 Prudential Committee.

Duties of members of Prudential Committee and members of subcommittees

46. (1) A member of the Prudential Committee or of a subcommittee established in terms of section 45(1) must—

- (a) act honestly in all matters relating to the Prudential Authority; and
- (b) perform the functions of office as a member—
 - (i) in good faith;
 - (ii) for a proper purpose; and
 - (iii) with the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable person in the member's position would exercise.

(2) A person who is or has been a member of the Prudential Committee or of a subcommittee established in terms of section 45(1) may not use that position or any information obtained as such a member to—

- (a) improperly benefit himself or herself or another person;
- (b) impede the Prudential Authority's ability to perform its functions; or
- (c) cause improper detriment to another person.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "benefit" and "detriment" are not limited to financial benefit or detriment.

Regulatory strategy

47. (1) The Prudential Committee must, within six months after the date on which this 45 Chapter takes effect, adopt a regulatory strategy for the Prudential Authority to give general guidance to the Prudential Authority in the achievement of its objective and the performance of its regulatory and supervisory functions.

(2) A regulatory strategy must-

- (a) state
 - (i) the regulatory and supervisory priorities for the Prudential Authority for the next three years; and
 - (ii) the intended key outcomes of the strategy;
- (b) set guiding principles for the Prudential Authority on-
 - (i) how it should perform its regulatory and supervisory functions;

- 30
- 35

- (ii) the matters to which it should have regard in performing those functions;
- (iii) its approach to administrative actions; and
- (iv) how it should give effect to the requirements applicable to it with respect to-
 - (aa) transparency;
 - (bb) openness to consultation; and
 - (cc) accountability; and
- (c) be aimed at giving effect to section 34(4).

(3) The Prudential Committee must review the regulatory strategy at least annually, and may amend it at any time. 10

(4) (a) Before the Prudential Committee adopts a regulatory strategy or an amendment to a regulatory strategy, it must—

- (i) provide a copy of the draft of the strategy or amendment to the Minister, the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the National Credit Regulator; and
- (ii) invite comments from the Minister, the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and 15 the National Credit Regulator, on the draft, to be made within a period specified by the Prudential Committee.

(b) The period referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) must be at least one month.

(5) In deciding whether to adopt a regulatory strategy or an amendment of a regulatory strategy, the Prudential Authority must have regard to all comments made on 20 the draft.

(6) The Prudential Committee must seek to minimise, to the extent that is practicable and appropriate, inconsistencies between the Prudential Authority's regulatory strategy and the Financial Sector Conduct Authority's regulatory strategy.

(7) The Chief Executive Officer must—

- (a) provide a copy of the Prudential Authority's regulatory strategy, and each amendment, as adopted, to the Minister, the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the National Credit Regulator; and
- (b) publish the regulatory strategy and each amendment.

Delegations

48. (1) The Prudential Committee may, in writing-

- (a) delegate any power or duty referred to in section 42(b)(viii) to the Chief Executive Officer or another staff member of the Prudential Authority; and
- (b) at any time, amend a delegation made in terms of paragraph (a).

(2) The Chief Executive Officer may, in writing—

- (a) delegate to a staff member of the Prudential Authority or an official or staff member of the Reserve Bank any power or duty assigned or delegated to the Chief Executive Officer in terms of a financial sector law, except the power to delegate contained in this subsection;
- (b) delegate to an administrative action committee the power to impose 40 administrative penalties that are specified in the delegation, if the Prudential Authority establishes an administrative action committee; and
- (c) at any time amend a delegation made in terms of paragraph (a) or (b).

(3) A delegation in terms of subsection (1)(a) or (2)(a) may be to a specific person or to a person holding a specific position. 45

(4) Any power or duty of the Prudential Authority may be delegated to the Financial Sector Conduct Authority by a section 77 memorandum of understanding in accordance with a framework and system of delegation developed by the financial sector regulators to ensure that any delegation does not constrain the Prudential Authority or the Financial Sector Conduct Authority from achieving their respective objectives as set out in 50 sections 33 and 57.

(5) A delegation in terms of this section—

(a) is subject to the limitations and conditions specified in the delegation;

15

- (b) does not divest the Prudential Authority, the Prudential Committee or the Chief Executive Officer of responsibility in respect of the delegated power or duty; and
- (c) may be revoked at any time, but a revocation does not affect any rights or liabilities accrued because of the acts of the delegate.

(6) Anything done by a delegate in accordance with a delegation in terms of this section must be regarded as having been done by the Prudential Authority.

(7) This section does not affect a power under a specific financial sector law to delegate a power of the Prudential Authority.

Disclosure of interests

49. (1) A member of the Prudential Committee or of a subcommittee established in terms of section 45(1) must disclose, at a meeting of the Prudential Committee or subcommittee, as the case may be, or in writing to each of the other members of that committee or subcommittee, any interest in any matter that is being or may be considered by the relevant committee that—

- (a) the member has; or
- (b) a person who is a related party to the member has.

(2) A disclosure referred to in subsection (1) must be given as soon as practicable after the member becomes aware of the interest.

(3) (a) A member who has, or who has a related party who has, an interest that is 20 required to be disclosed in terms of subsection (1), may not participate in the consideration of, or decision on, a matter to which the interest relates unless—

- (i) the member has disclosed the interest as required by subsection (1); and
- (ii) the other members of the Prudential Committee or subcommittee have decided that the interest does not affect the proper execution of that member's functions 25 in relation to the matter.

(b) Any consideration of, or decision on, a matter which does not comply with paragraph (a) is void and must be reconsidered or decided without the member present.

(4) (a) Each member of the Prudential Authority's staff and each person to whom a power or function of the Prudential Authority has been delegated must make timely, 30 proper and adequate disclosure of their interests, including the interests of a related party, that could reasonably be seen as interests that may affect the proper execution of their functions of office or the delegated power.

(b) The Chief Executive Officer must ensure that paragraph (a) is complied with.

(5) For the purposes of this section, it does not matter—

45

- (a) whether an interest is direct, indirect, pecuniary or non-pecuniary; or
- (b) when the interest was acquired.

(6) For the purposes of this section, a person does not have to disclose –

(a) the fact that person, or a person who is a related party to that person, is—
(i) an official or employee of the Reserve Bank; or

(ii) a financial customer of a financial institution; or

(b) an interest that is not material.

(7) A failure by a person to disclose a material interest in accordance with this section and any guidelines that may be prescribed by the Minister in terms of section 288(3) constitutes—

- (a) a breach of the duties in section 46 or 52, whichever section is applicable to the person; and
- (b) an offence in terms of section 265.

(8) When a person has failed to disclose a material interest in terms of this section, the Prudential Committee must publish a notice on the Prudential Authority's website that 50 a failure to disclose a material interest occurred, which notice must include the details of the failure.

(9) The Chief Executive Officer must maintain a register of all disclosures made in terms of this section and of all decisions made in terms of this section.

Part 3

Staff, resources and financial management

Staff and resources

50. (1) The Prudential Authority must determine the personnel, accommodation, facilities, use of assets, resources and other services that it requires to function 5 effectively.

(2) The Prudential Authority may—

- (a) enter into secondment arrangements in respect of persons;
- (b) engage persons on contract otherwise than as employees;
- (c) enter into contracts;
- (d) acquire or dispose of property;
- (e) insure itself against any loss, damage, risk or liability that it may suffer or incur; and
- (f) do anything else necessary for the performance of its functions.

(3) The Prudential Authority may not enter into a secondment arrangement in respect 15 of a person, or engage persons on contract, unless the person and the Prudential Authority have agreed in writing on—

- (a) the performance measures that will be used to assess that person's performance; and
- (b) the level of performance that must be achieved against those measures. 20

Resources provided by Reserve Bank

51. (1) The Reserve Bank must provide the Prudential Authority with the personnel, accommodation, facilities, use of assets, resources and other services determined in accordance with section 50(1) and as agreed to by the Reserve Bank.

(2) The Reserve Bank must second the personnel that it provides in terms of 25 subsection (1) to the Prudential Authority.

Duties of staff members

52. (1) A person who is or has been a staff member of the Prudential Authority may not use that position or any information obtained as a staff member to—

(a) improperly benefit himself or herself or another person;

35

(b) impede the Prudential Authority's ability to perform its functions; or

(c) cause improper detriment to another person.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "benefit" and "detriment" are not limited to financial benefit or detriment.

Financial management duties of Chief Executive Officer

53. The Chief Executive Officer must–

- (a) recommend to the Prudential Committee fees for prudential supervision by, and other services provided by, the Prudential Authority in terms of this Act and other financial sector laws, and levies in terms of levies legislation;
- (b) exercise the utmost care to protect the assets and records of the Prudential 40 Authority;
- (c) act with fidelity, honesty, integrity and in the best interests of the Authority in managing the financial affairs of the Prudential Authority;
- (d) on request, disclose to the Minister or the Governor all material facts relating to the affairs of the Prudential Authority, including those reasonably 45 discoverable, that in any way may influence decisions or actions of the Minister or the Governor;
- (e) seek, within the Chief Executive Officer's sphere of influence, to prevent any prejudice to the financial interests of the Republic;

40

82

- ensure that the Prudential Authority has and maintains—
- (i) effective, efficient and transparent systems of financial and risk management;
- (ii) an effective, efficient and transparent system of internal audit; and
- (iii) a procurement and provisioning system that is fair, equitable, transpar- 5 ent, competitive and cost-effective;
- (g) take appropriate and cost-effective steps to—
 - (i) collect revenue due to the Prudential Authority;
 - (ii) prevent losses resulting from criminal conduct and expenditure that is not in accordance with the Prudential Authority's operational policies; 10 and
 - (iii) manage available working capital efficiently and economically;
- (h) manage and safeguard the assets of the Authority, and manage the revenue, expenditure and liabilities of the Authority;
- (i) establish systems and processes to ensure that effective and appropriate 15 disciplinary steps are taken against any staff member of the Authority who—
 - (i) contravenes a law relevant to the performance of the Authority's functions; or
 - (ii) engages in conduct that undermines the financial management and internal control systems of the Authority; and
- (j) generally ensure that the Authority complies with its legal obligations.

Information by Chief Executive Officer

54. (1) The Chief Executive Officer must provide the Prudential Committee and the National Treasury with the information, returns, documents, explanations and motivations that may be prescribed by Regulation for this section or that the Prudential 25 Committee or the National Treasury may request.

(2) Subsection (1) does not require or permit the provision of information about persons identifiable from the information.

Annual reports and financial accounts

55. (1) The Chief Executive Officer must-

- (a) ensure that full and proper records of the financial affairs of the Prudential Authority are kept and maintained;
- (b) prepare financial accounts for the Prudential Authority for each financial year which will form part of the annual report of the Reserve Bank; and
- (c) submit to the Minister, within five months after the end of each financial year, 35 for tabling in the National Assembly an annual report on the activities of the Prudential Authority during that financial year, including particulars of any matters that may be prescribed by Regulation for this section.

(2) The financial accounts of the Prudential Authority referred to in subsection (1)(b)—

- (a) must be disclosed in the annual report of the Reserve Bank in a manner that reflects the direct costs that accrue to the Prudential Authority; and
- (b) may be disclosed in the form of an annexure to the annual report of the Reserve Bank.

CHAPTER 4

FINANCIAL SECTOR CONDUCT AUTHORITY

Part 1

Establishment, objective and functions

15

25

30

40

56. (1) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority is hereby established, as a juristic person.

(2) The Authority is a national public entity for the purposes of the Public Finance Management Act, and despite section 49(2) of the Public Finance Management Act, the Commissioner is the accounting authority of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority for 10 the purposes of that Act.

Objective

57. The objective of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority is to-

- (a) enhance and support the efficiency and integrity of financial markets; and
- (b) protect financial customers by-
 - (i) promoting fair treatment of financial customers by financial institutions; and
 - (ii) providing financial customers and potential financial customers with financial education programs, and otherwise promoting financial literacy and the ability of financial customers and potential financial customers to 20 make sound financial decisions; and
- (c) assist in maintaining financial stability.

Functions

58. (1) In order to achieve its objective, the Financial Sector Conduct Authority must—

- (a) regulate and supervise, in accordance with the financial sector laws, the conduct of financial institutions;
- (b) co-operate with, and assist, the Reserve Bank, the Financial Stability Oversight Committee, the Prudential Authority, the National Credit Regulator, and the Financial Intelligence Centre, as required in terms of this Act;
- (c) co-operate with the Council for Medical Schemes in the handling of matters of mutual interest;
- (d) promote, to the extent consistent with achieving the objective of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, sustainable competition in the provision of financial products and financial services, including through co-operating and 35 collaborating with the Competition Commission;
- (e) promote financial inclusion;
- (f) regularly review the perimeter and scope of financial sector regulation, and take steps to mitigate risks identified to the achievement of its objective or the effective performance of its functions;
- (g) administer the collection of levies and the distribution of amounts received in respect of levies;
- (h) conduct and publish research relevant to its objective;
- (i) monitor the extent to which the financial system is delivering fair outcomes for financial customers, with a focus on the fairness and appropriateness of 45 financial products and financial services and the extent to which they meet the needs and reasonable expectations of financial customers; and
- (j) formulate and implement strategies and programs for financial education for the general public.

(2) In relation to a financial institution that is a credit provider regulated in terms of 50 the National Credit Act, the Financial Sector Conduct Authority may, in addition to regulating and supervising the financial institution in respect of the financial services that the financial institution provides, and notwithstanding section 2(1)(g), regulate and supervise the financial institution's conduct in relation to the provision of credit under a credit agreement only in respect of those matters referred to in section 108.

(3) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority must also perform any other function conferred on it in terms of any other provision of this Act or other legislation.

(4) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority may do anything else reasonably necessary to achieve its objective, including—

- (a) co-operating with its counterparts in other jurisdictions; and
- (b) participating in relevant international regulatory, supervisory, financial stability and standard setting bodies. 10

(5) When performing its functions, the Financial Sector Conduct Authority must—

- (a) take into account the National Credit Act and regulatory requirements for financial institutions that are authorised and regulated under that Act;
- (b) take into account the need for a primarily pre-emptive, outcomes focused and risk-based approach, and prioritise the use of its resources in accordance with 15 the significance of risks to the achievement of its objective; and
- (c) to the extent practicable, have regard to international regulatory and supervisory standards set by bodies referred to in subsection (4)(b), and circumstances prevalent in the Republic.

(6) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority must perform its functions without fear, 20 favour or prejudice.

Part 2

Governance

Overall governance objective

59. The Financial Sector Conduct Authority must manage its affairs in an efficient and 25 effective way, and establish and implement appropriate and effective governance systems and processes, having regard, among other things, to internationally accepted standards in these matters.

Establishment and role of Executive Committee

60. (1) A committee called the Executive Committee is hereby established for the 30 Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(2) The Executive Committee consists of the Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioners.

(3) The Executive Committee must-

- (a) generally oversee the management and administration of the Financial Sector 35 Conduct Authority to ensure that it is efficient and effective; and
- (b) act for the Financial Sector Conduct Authority in the following matters:
 - (i) Authorising the Commissioner to sign, on behalf of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, a section 27 or section 77 memorandum of understanding and any amendments to such a memorandum;
 40
 - (ii) delegating powers of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority to the Prudential Authority in terms of a section 77 memorandum of understanding;
 - (iii) adopting the regulatory strategy of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, and any amendments to the strategy;
 - (iv) adopting the administrative action procedures of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, and any amendments to those procedures;
 - (v) appointing members of subcommittees of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority required or permitted by a law, and giving directions regarding the conduct of the work of any subcommittee;

88

- (vi) making conduct standards, joint standards and other regulatory instruments in terms of financial sector laws for which it is the responsible authority;
- (vii) granting, varying, suspending and revoking licences in terms of a financial sector law;
- (viii) making determinations of fees in terms of financial sector laws;
- (ix) any other matter assigned in terms of a financial sector law to the Executive Committee.

Commissioner and Deputy Commissioners

61. (1) The Minister must appoint a person who is fit and proper and has appropriate 10 expertise in the financial sector as the Commissioner of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(2) The Minister must appoint at least two, but no more than four, persons who have appropriate expertise in the financial sector as Deputy Commissioners.

(3) The Commissioner and Deputy Commissioners serve in a full-time executive 15 capacity.

(4) A process for the selection of persons for appointment as Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner must be prescribed by Regulation.

(5) (a) The Commissioner may designate a Deputy Commissioner to act as Commissioner when the Commissioner is absent from office. 20

(b) If the Commissioner is unable to designate an acting Commissioner in terms of paragraph (a), or if the office of Commissioner is vacant, the Minister may designate a Deputy Commissioner to act as Commissioner during the Commissioner's absence or pending the appointment of a Commissioner.

(6) A person may not be appointed or hold office as Commissioner or Deputy 25 Commissioner if the person—

- (a) is a disqualified person; or
- (b) is not ordinarily resident in the Republic.

(7) When appointing the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner, the Minister and the person appointed must agree, in writing, on— 30

- (a) the performance measures that must be used to assess the person's performance; and
- (b) the level of performance to be achieved against those performance measures.

Roles of Commissioner and Deputy Commissioners

62. (1) The Commissioner—

- (a) is responsible for the day-to-day management and administration of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority; and
- (b) subject to section 60(3)(b), must perform the functions of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, including exercising the powers and carrying out the duties associated with those functions.

(2) The roles of the Deputy Commissioners are determined by the Executive Committee.

(3) When acting in terms of subsection (1) or (2), the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner must implement the policies and strategies adopted by the Executive Committee.45

Terms of office

63. (1) A person appointed as Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner –

- (a) holds office for a term determined by the Minister, which term may not be longer than five years;
- (b) is, at the expiry of that term, eligible for re-appointment for one further term; 50 and
- (c) must vacate office before the expiry of a term of office if that person-
 - (i) resigns by giving at least three months written notice to the Minister, or a shorter period that the Minister may accept; or
 - (ii) is removed from office as Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner, as the 55 case may be.

35

90

(2) The Minister must, at least three months before the end of a person's first term of office as Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner, inform the person whether the Minister proposes to re-appoint that person as Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner, as the case may be.

Service conditions

64. (1) Subject to this Act, the Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioners hold office on the terms and conditions determined in writing by the Minister.

(2) The terms and conditions of office of the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner may not be reduced during that person's term of office.

Removal from office

65. (1) The Minister must, subject to due process, remove the Commissioner from office if the Commissioner becomes a disqualified person.

(2) The Commissioner must, subject to due process and with the concurrence of the Minister, remove a Deputy Commissioner from office if the Deputy Commissioner becomes a disqualified person.

(3) The Minister may remove the Commissioner from office if an independent inquiry established by the Minister has found that the Commissioner—

- (a) is unable to perform the duties of office for health or other reasons;
- (b) has failed in a material way to achieve the level of performance against the performance measures agreed to in terms of section 61(7); 20
- (c) has failed in a material way to discharge any of the responsibilities of office, including any responsibilities entrusted in terms of legislation; or
- (d) has acted in a way that is inconsistent with continuing to hold the office.

(4) If an independent inquiry has been established in terms of subsection (3), the Minister may suspend the Commissioner from office pending a decision on that person's 25 removal from office.

(5) The Commissioner may, with the concurrence of the Minister, remove a Deputy Commissioner from office if an independent inquiry established by the Commissioner, with the concurrence of the Minister, has found that the Deputy Commissioner—

- (a) is unable to perform the duties of office for health or other reasons;
- (b) has failed in a material way to achieve the level of performance against the performance measures agreed to in terms of section 61(7);
- (c) has failed in a material way to discharge any of the responsibilities of office, including any responsibilities entrusted in terms of legislation; or

(d) has acted in a way that is inconsistent with continuing to hold the office.(6) If an independent inquiry has been established in terms of subsection (5), the Commissioner may suspend the Deputy Commissioner from office pending a decision on that person's removal from office.

(7) Without limiting subsection (3)(c) or (5)(c), the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner, as the case may be, must be taken to have failed in a material way to 40 discharge the responsibilities of office if he or she is absent from two consecutive meetings of the Executive Committee without the leave of the Executive Committee.

(8) If the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner is removed from office in terms of this section, the Minister must, within 30 days, submit the report and findings of the independent inquiry to the National Assembly.

Meetings of Executive Committee

66. (1) (a) The Executive Committee must meet as often as necessary for the performance of its functions.

(b) An audio or audio-visual conference among a majority of the members of the Executive Committee, which enables each participating member to hear and be heard by 50 each of the other participating members, must be regarded as a meeting of the Executive Committee, and each participating member must be regarded as being present at such a meeting.

30

35

45

(2) Meetings of the Executive Committee must be held at times and, except where subsection (1)(b) applies, at places determined by the Commissioner.(3) A quorum for a meeting of the Executive Committee is a majority of its members.

(4) (a) The Commissioner chairs the meetings of the Executive Committee at which the Commissioner is present.

40

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

(b) If the Commissioner is not present at a meeting, a Deputy Commissioner nominated by the Commissioner or selected in accordance with a procedure determined by the Commissioner, chairs the meeting.

(5) The Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner chairing a meeting of the Executive Committee may invite or allow any other person, including a representative of the 10 Prudential Authority, the Reserve Bank, the Financial Intelligence Centre, the Council for Medical Schemes or the National Credit Regulator, to attend the meeting, but a person who is invited has no right to vote at the meeting.

(6) The members may regulate proceedings at Executive Committee meetings as they consider appropriate.

(7) The Commissioner must ensure that minutes of each meeting of the Executive Committee are kept in a manner determined by the Commissioner.

Decisions of Executive Committee

67. (1) (a) A proposal before a meeting of the Executive Committee becomes a decision of the Executive Committee if a majority of the members present, or regarded 20 as being present, and who may participate in the consideration of the proposal, vote for the proposal.

(b) In the event of an equality of votes on a proposal, the person chairing the meeting has a casting vote in addition to a deliberative vote.

(2) The Executive Committee may, in accordance with procedures determined by it, 25 make a decision on a proposal outside a meeting of the Executive Committee.

(3) A decision of the Executive Committee is not invalid merely because -

- (a) there was a vacancy in the office of a member when the decision was taken; or
- (b) a person who was not a member participated in the decision, as long as such person did not vote.30

Governance and other subcommittees

68. (1) The Director-General must establish—

- (a) a subcommittee to review, monitor and advise the Executive Committee on the remuneration policy of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority; and
- (b) a subcommittee to review, monitor and advise the Executive Committee on 35 the risks faced by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and plans for managing those risks.

(2) The Executive Committee may establish one or more other subcommittees for the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, with functions that the Executive Committee may determine.

(3) (a) The Director-General determines the membership of each subcommittee established in terms of subsection (1).

(b) The majority of the members of a subcommittee established in terms of subsection (1) may not be staff members of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(c) The Executive Committee determines the membership of each subcommittee 45 established in terms of subsection (2).

(d) A subcommittee established in terms of subsection (2) may include persons who are neither members of the Executive Committee nor staff members of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(e) A disqualified person may not be or remain a member of a subcommittee 50 established in terms of this section.

(4) A member of a subcommittee established in terms of this section, including a person who is not in the service of an organ of state, holds office for the period, and on the terms and conditions, including terms regarding remuneration, determined by the Director-General or the Executive Committee, as the case may be, who established the 55 subcommittee.

(5) A subcommittee established in terms of subsection (1) must be chaired by a person who is not the Commissioner, a Deputy Commissioner or a staff member of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(6) A subcommittee established in terms of this section determines its procedures, subject to any directions of the Director-General or the Executive Committee, as the 5 case may be, who established the subcommittee.

(7) The Commissioner must ensure that minutes of each meeting of each subcommittee established in terms of this section are kept in a manner determined by the Executive Committee.

Duties of Commissioner, Deputy Commissioners and other subcommittee mem- 10 bers

69. (1) The Commissioner, each Deputy Commissioner and each member of a subcommittee of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority established as contemplated in section 51(1)(a)(ii) of the Public Finance Management Act or of section 68 of this Act must—

- (a) act honestly in all matters relating to the Financial Sector Conduct Authority; and
- (b) perform the functions of office as a member-
 - (i) in good faith;
 - (ii) for a proper purpose; and
 - (iii) with the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable person in that person's position would exercise.

(2) A person who is or has been a person mentioned in subsection (1) must not use the position, or any information obtained because of the position, to—

- (a) improperly benefit himself or herself or another person;(b) impede the Financial Sector Conduct Authority's ability to perform its
- b) impede the Financial Sector Conduct Authority's ability to perform its functions; or
- (c) cause improper detriment to another person.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "benefit" and "detriment" are not limited to financial benefit or detriment.

Regulatory strategy

70. (1) The Executive Committee must, within six months after the date on which this Chapter takes effect, adopt a regulatory strategy for the Financial Sector Conduct Authority to give general guidance in the achievement of its objective and the performance of its regulatory and supervisory functions.

(2) A regulatory strategy must-

- (a) state
 - (i) the regulatory and supervisory priorities for the Financial Sector Conduct Authority for the next three years; and
 - (ii) the intended key outcomes of the strategy;
- (b) set guiding principles for the Financial Sector Conduct Authority on-
 - (i) how it should perform its regulatory and supervisory functions;
 - (ii) the matters which it should have regard to in performing those functions;
 - (iii) its approach to administrative actions; and
 - (iv) how it should give effect to the requirements applicable to it with respect 45 to -
 - (aa) transparency;
 - (bb) openness to consultation; and
 - (cc) accountability; and

(c) be aimed at giving effect to section 58.

50

(3) The Executive Committee must review its regulatory strategy at least annually, and may amend it at any time.

15

25

35

96

(4) (a) Before the Executive Committee adopts a regulatory strategy or an amendment to a regulatory strategy, it must—

- (i) provide a copy of the draft of the strategy or amendment to the Minister, the Prudential Authority and the National Credit Regulator; and
- (ii) invite comments from the Minister, the Prudential Authority and the National 5 Credit Regulator, on the draft, to be made within a period specified by the Executive Committee.
- (b) The period referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) must be at least one month.

(5) In deciding whether to adopt a regulatory strategy or an amendment of a regulatory strategy, the Executive Committee must have regard to all comments made 10 on the draft.

(6) If the Minister agrees, the Financial Sector Conduct Authority's adopted regulatory strategy may be incorporated into its corporate plan in terms of section 52(b) of the Public Finance Management Act.

(7) The Executive Committee must seek to minimise, to the extent that is practicable 15 and appropriate, inconsistencies between the Financial Sector Conduct Authority's regulatory strategy and the Prudential Authority's regulatory strategy.

(8) The Commissioner must-

- (a) provide a copy of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority's regulatory strategy, and each amendment, as adopted, to the Minister, the Prudential 20 Authority and the National Credit Regulator; and
- (b) publish the regulatory strategy and each amendment.

Delegations

71. (1) The Executive Committee may, in writing—

- (a) delegate any power or duty of, or delegated to, the Financial Sector Conduct 25 Authority in terms of a financial sector law to the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner, except—
 - (i) the power to delegate contained in this subsection; and
 - (ii) the powers referred to in section 60(3)(b)(i) to (viii);
- (b) delegate to an administrative action committee the power to impose 30 administrative penalties that are specified in the delegation, if the Financial Sector Conduct Authority establishes an administrative action committee; and
- (c) at any time, amend a delegation made in terms of paragraph (a) or (b).
- (2) The Commissioner may, in writing-
 - (a) delegate any power or duty assigned or delegated to the Commissioner in 35 terms of a financial sector law, except the power to delegate contained in this subsection, to—
 - (i) a Deputy Commissioner; or
 - (ii) a staff member of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority; and
 - (b) at any time, amend a delegation made in terms of paragraph (a).

(3) A Deputy Commissioner may, in writing-

(a) delegate any power or duty delegated to that Deputy Commissioner in terms of a financial sector law, except the power to delegate contained in this subsection, to a staff member of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority; and
(b) at any time, amend a delegation made in terms of paragraph (a).

(4) A delegation in terms of subsection (2)(a)(ii) or (3)(a) may be made to a specified person or to a person holding a specified position.

(5) Any power or duty of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority may be delegated to the Prudential Authority by a section 77 memorandum of understanding in accordance with a framework and system of delegation developed by the financial sector regulators 50 to ensure that any delegation does not constrain the Prudential Authority or the Financial Sector Conduct Authority from achieving their respective objectives as set out in sections 33 and 57.

(6) A delegation made in terms this section—

(a) is subject to the limitations and conditions specified in the delegation;

- (b) does not divest the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, the Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner concerned of responsibility in respect of the delegated power or duty; and
- (c) may be revoked in writing at any time, but a revocation does not affect any rights or liabilities accrued because of the acts of the delegate.

(7) Anything done by a delegate in terms of the delegation must be regarded as having been done by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(8) This section does not affect a power under a specific financial sector law to delegate a power of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

Disclosure of interests

72. (1) A member of the Executive Committee must disclose, at a meeting of the Executive Committee, or in writing to each of the other members, any interest in any matter that is being or is intended to be considered by him or her, whether or not at a meeting of the Executive Committee, being an interest that-

(a) the member has; or

(b) a person who is a related party to the member has.

(2) A disclosure in terms of subsection (1) must be given as soon as practicable after the member concerned becomes aware of the interest.

(3) (a) A member referred to in subsection (1) may not perform a function in relation to the matter concerned unless-

- (i) the member has disclosed the interest as required by subsection (1); and
- the other members of the Executive Committee have decided that the interest (ii) does not affect the proper execution of the member's functions in relation to the matter.

(b) Any consideration of, or decision on, a matter which does not comply with 25 paragraph (a) is void and must be reconsidered or decided without the member present.

(4) A member of a subcommittee of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority established as contemplated in section 51(1)(a)(ii) of the Public Finance Management Act or section 68(1) of this Act must disclose, at a meeting of the subcommittee, or in writing to each of the other members of that subcommittee, any interest in a matter that 30 is being or is intended to be considered by that subcommittee, being an interest that—

(a) the member has; or

(b) a person who is a related party to the person has.

(5) A disclosure in terms of subsection (4) must be given as soon as practicable after the member concerned becomes aware of the interest. 35

(6) A member referred to in subsection (4) may not participate in the consideration of or decision on that matter by the subcommittee unless-

(a) the member has disclosed the interest in accordance with subsection (4); and

(b) the other members of that subcommittee have decided that the interest does not affect the proper execution of the member's functions in relation to the 40 matter.

(7) (a) Each member of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority's staff and each other person to whom a power or function of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority has been delegated must make timely, proper and adequate disclosure of their interests, including the interests of a related party, that could reasonably be seen as interests that may affect 45 the proper execution of their functions of office or the delegated power.

(b) The Commissioner must ensure that paragraph (a) is complied with.

- (8) For the purposes of this section, it does not matter-
 - (a) whether an interest is direct, indirect, pecuniary or non-pecuniary; or
 - (b) when the interest was acquired.

(9) For the purposes of this section, a person does not have to disclose-

- (a) the fact that that person, or a person who is a related party to that person, is -
 - (i) an official or employee of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority; or (ii) a financial customer of a financial institution; or
- (b) an interest that is not material.

(10) The Commissioner must maintain a register of all disclosures made in terms of this section and of all decisions made in terms of this section.

Staff and resources

Staff and resources

73. (1) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority may, in accordance with applicable law-

- (a) for the work of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority—
 - (i) appoint persons as employees;
 - (ii) enter into secondment arrangements; or
 - (iii) engage persons on contract otherwise than as employees;
- (b) enter into contracts;
- (c) acquire and dispose of property;
- (d) insure itself against any loss, damage, risk or liability that it may suffer or incur; and
- (e) do anything else necessary for the performance of its functions.

(2) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority may not enter into a secondment 15 arrangement in respect of a person, or engage persons as employees or on contract, unless the person and the Authority have agreed in writing on—

- (a) the performance measures that must be used to assess that person's performance; and
- (b) the level of performance that must be achieved against those measures. 20

Duties of staff members

74. (1) A person who is or was a staff member of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority may not use that position or any information obtained as a staff member to—

- (a) improperly benefit himself or herself or another person;
- (b) impede the Financial Sector Conduct Authority's ability to perform its 25 functions; or
- (c) cause improper detriment to another person.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "benefit" and "detriment" are not limited to financial benefit or detriment.

Information by Commissioner

75. (1) The Commissioner must provide the Executive Committee and the National Treasury with the information, returns, documents, explanations and motivations that may be prescribed by Regulation for this section or that the Executive Committee or the National Treasury may request.

(2) Subsection (1) does not require or permit the provision of information about 35 persons identifiable from the information.

- (a) generally assist and support each other in pursuing their objectives in terms of financial sector laws, the National Credit Act and the Financial Intelligence Centre Act;
- (b) inform each other about, and share information about, matters of common interest;
- (c) strive to adopt consistent regulatory strategies, including addressing regulatory and supervisory challenges;
- (d) co-ordinate, to the extent appropriate, actions in terms of financial sector laws, the National Credit Act and the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, including in relation to—
 - (i) standards and other regulatory instruments, including similar instruments provided for in terms of the National Credit Act and the Financial Intelligence Centre Act;
 - (ii) licensing;
 - (iii) supervisory on-site inspections and investigations;
 - (iv) actions to enforce financial sector laws, the National Credit Act and the Financial Intelligence Centre Act;
 - (v) information sharing;
 - (vi) recovery and resolution; and
 - (vii) reporting by financial institutions, including statutory reporting and data 20 collection measures;
- (e) minimise the duplication of effort and expense, including by establishing and using, where appropriate, common or shared databases and other facilities;
- f) agree on attendance at relevant international forums; and
- (g) develop, to the extent that is appropriate, consistent policy positions, 25 including for the purpose of presentation and negotiation at relevant South African and international forums.

(2) The financial sector regulators and the Reserve Bank must, at least annually as part of their annual reports, or on request, report to the Minister, the Cabinet member responsible for administering the National Credit Act and the National Assembly on 30 measures taken to co-operate and collaborate with each other.

Memoranda of understanding

77. (1) The financial sector regulators and the Reserve Bank, must, as soon as practicable but not later than six months after the date on which this Chapter comes into effect, enter into one or more memoranda of understanding to give effect to their 35 obligations in terms of section 76.

(2) A delegation of a power or duty by a financial sector regulator to another financial sector regulator must be effected by a memorandum of understanding entered into in terms of this section.

(3) The validity of any action taken by a financial sector regulator, the Reserve Bank 40 or the Governor in terms of a financial sector law, the National Credit Act and the Financial Intelligence Centre Act is not affected by a failure to comply with this section or a memorandum of understanding in terms of this section.

(4) The financial sector regulators and the Reserve Bank must review the memoranda of understanding at least once every three years and amend them as appropriate.

(5) The financial sector regulators and the Reserve Bank must provide a copy of each memorandum of understanding entered into in terms of this section, and each amendment of such a memorandum of understanding, to the Minister and the Cabinet member responsible for administering the National Credit Act.

(6) The financial sector regulators and the Reserve Bank must each publish each 50 memorandum of understanding in terms of this section and each amendment thereof.

Other organs of state

78. (1) An organ of state that has a regulatory or supervisory function in relation to financial institutions must, to the extent practicable, consult the financial sector regulators and the Reserve Bank in relation to the performance of that function.

(2) A financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank may, in writing, request an organ of state referred to in subsection (1) to provide information about any action that the organ of state has taken or proposes to take in relation to a financial institution specified in the request.

(3) The organ of state must comply with a request in terms of subsection (2), but this 5 subsection does not require or permit an organ of state to do something that contravenes a law.

Part 2

Financial System Council of Regulators

Financial System Council of Regulators

79. (1) The Financial System Council of Regulators is hereby established.

(2) The objective of the Financial System Council of Regulators is to facilitate co-operation and collaboration, and, where appropriate, consistency of action, between the institutions represented on the Financial System Council of Regulators by providing a forum for senior representatives of those institutions to discuss, and inform themselves 15 about, matters of common interest.

(3) The Financial System Council of Regulators must be composed of the following members:

- (a) The Director-General;
- (b) the Director-General of the Department of Trade and Industry;
- (c) the Director-General of the Department of Health;

- (e) the Commissioner;
- (f) the Chief Executive Officer of the National Credit Regulator;
- (g) the Registrar of Medical Schemes;
- (h) the Director of the Financial Intelligence Centre;
- (i) the Commissioner of the National Consumer Commission;
- (j) the Commissioner of the Competition Commission;
- (k) the Deputy Governor responsible for financial stability matters; and
- (l) the head, however described, of any organ of state or other organisation that 30 the Minister may determine.

Meetings

80. (1) Meetings of the Financial System Council of Regulators must be held at least twice a year, or more frequently as determined by the Director-General.

(2) The Director-General, or an alternate nominated by the Director-General, chairs 35 the meetings of the Financial System Council of Regulators.

(3) The Director-General must convene a meeting at the request of a member of the Financial System Council of Regulators.

(4) A member of the Financial System Council of Regulators may, with the concurrence of the Director-General, nominate a senior official of the member's 40 institution to act as an alternate for the member.

(5) Meetings of the Financial System Council of Regulators must be conducted in accordance with procedures determined by it.

Working groups and subcommittees

81. (1) The Financial System Council of Regulators must establish working groups or 45 subcommittees in respect of the following matters:

- (a) Enforcement and financial crime;
- (b) financial stability and resolution;
- (c) policy and legislation;
- (d) standard-setting;
- (e) financial sector outcomes;

10

106

- (f) financial inclusion;
- (g) transformation of the financial sector; and
- (h) any other matter that the Director-General may determine after consulting the other members of the Financial System Council of Regulators.

(2) The Financial System Council of Regulators must determine the membership, 5 terms of reference and procedure of a working group or subcommittee.

Support for Financial System Council of Regulators

82. (1) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority must provide administrative support and other resources for the Financial System Council of Regulators and its working groups and subcommittees.

(2) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority must ensure that minutes of each meeting of the Financial System Council of Regulators, and of each meeting of a working group or subcommittee, are kept in a manner determined by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

10

Financial Sector Inter-Ministerial Council

Financial Sector Inter-Ministerial Council

83. (1) The Financial Sector Inter-Ministerial Council is hereby established.

(2) The objective of the Inter-Ministerial Council is to facilitate co-operation and collaboration between Cabinet members responsible for administering legislation 20 relevant to the regulation and supervision of the financial sector by providing a forum for discussion and consideration of matters of common interest.

(3) The members of the Inter-Ministerial Council are-

- (a) the Minister;
- (b) the Cabinet members responsible for consumer protection and consumer 25 credit matters;
- (c) the Cabinet member responsible for health; and
- (d) the Cabinet member responsible for economic development.

Meetings

84. (1) Meetings of the Inter-Ministerial Council take place at times and places 30 determined by the Minister.

(2) The Minister, or another Cabinet member nominated by the Minister, chairs the meetings of the Inter-Ministerial Council.

(3) The Minister must convene a meeting at the request of a member of the Inter-Ministerial Council. 35

(4) A member of the Inter-Ministerial Council may nominate a Deputy Minister to act as alternate for the member at a particular meeting of the Inter-Ministerial Council.

(5) The Minister may invite any Cabinet member who is not a member of the Inter-Ministerial Council to attend a meeting of the Inter-Ministerial Council.

(6) Meetings of the Inter-Ministerial Council are conducted in accordance with 40 procedures determined by it.

Protection for financial customers in terms of financial sector laws, National Credit Act and Consumer Protection Act

85. (1) The Cabinet members responsible for consumer protection and consumer credit matters may request the Inter-Ministerial Council to consider whether or not a 45 provision in a financial sector law, or in a proposed financial sector law, Regulation or regulatory instrument, provides or would provide for a standard of protection for financial customers that is equivalent to, or higher than, the protection provided for them in terms of the National Credit Act or the Consumer Protection Act.

(2) The Inter-Ministerial Council—

(a) must comply with the request; and

10

108

(b) may, if it considers that the provision does not provide for such a standard of protection for financial customers, make recommendations to amend the provision, or to take other lawful and appropriate action, to ensure that the protection is at least equivalent.

Independent evaluation of effectiveness of co-operation and collaboration

86. (1) (a) The Inter-Ministerial Council must, as soon as practicable following the expiration of the six month period described in section 77(1), commission an independent evaluation of the establishment of co-operative and collaborative mechanisms between the financial sector regulators, the Reserve Bank, the Financial Intelligence Centre, the Council for Medical Schemes and the Competition Commission.

(b) The Inter-Ministerial Council must, every two years after the initial independent evaluation referred to in paragraph (a), commission an independent evaluation of the effectiveness of co-operative and collaborative mechanisms between the financial sector regulators, the Reserve Bank, the Financial Intelligence Centre, the Council for Medical Schemes and the Competition Commission.

(2) An evaluation in terms of this section must at least contain an analysis and evaluation of the memoranda of understanding required in terms of section 77, the outcome of any and all consultations in terms of section 78, and compliance with those sections.

(3) The Inter-Ministerial Council may on its own initiative, or at the request of a 20 financial sector regulator, at any time commission an independent evaluation of the effectiveness of co-operation and collaboration between the financial sector regulators, the Reserve Bank, the Financial Intelligence Centre, the Council for Medical Schemes and the Competition Commission.

(4) When a financial sector regulator makes a request for an evaluation, the 25 Inter-Ministerial Council must consider the request and the concerns raised in the request regarding the effectiveness of co-operation and collaboration, and, if the Council rejects the request, provide the financial sector regulator that made the request with the reasons for rejecting the request.

(5) Any evaluation commissioned by the Inter-Ministerial Council in terms of this 30 section must be tabled in Parliament immediately following the Council's consideration of the evaluation, and must be accompanied by a report from the Council on the evaluation's contents.

CHAPTER 6

ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIONS

35

50

Part 1

Administrative action committees

Establishment and membership

87. (1) A financial sector regulator may establish an administrative action committee to consider and make recommendations to the financial sector regulator on matters that 40 are referred to it by that financial sector regulator.

(2) The members of an administrative action committee –

- (a) must include
 - (i) a retired judge; or
 - (ii) an advocate or attorney with at least 10 years relevant legal experience; 45 and
- (b) may include persons who are not members of the Prudential Committee or the Executive Committee or staff members of the financial sector regulator.

(3) A person referred to in subsection (2)(a) must be appointed as chairperson of an administrative action committee.

(4) A disqualified person may not be appointed to, or remain a member of, an administrative action committee.

110

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

Terms of membership

88. (1) A person appointed as a member of a financial sector regulator's administrative action committee who is not a member of the Prudential Committee, the Executive Committee or a staff member of a financial sector regulator holds office for a period not exceeding five years, and on the terms, including terms regarding remuneration, 5 determined by the financial sector regulator.

(2) A member of an administrative action committee whose term expires may be reappointed.

(3) The financial sector regulator that established an administrative action committee may, subject to due process, remove a member of the administrative action committee 10 from office if the member—

- (a) is unable to perform the functions of the office effectively;
- (b) has failed in a material way to discharge any of the responsibilities of the office; or
- (c) has acted in a way that is inconsistent with continuing to hold the office.

(4) Without limiting subsection (3)(b), a member must be taken to have failed in a material way to discharge the responsibilities of office if he or she is absent from two consecutive meetings of the administrative action committee without the leave of the administrative action committee.

Meetings

89. (1) A meeting of an administrative action committee –

- (a) is convened by the chairperson of the committee; and
- (b) is chaired by the chairperson or, in the chairperson's absence, by another member designated by the chairperson or the remaining members.

(2) An administrative action committee determines its procedures, subject to any 25 directions of the financial sector regulator that established the administrative action committee.

(3) The financial sector regulator must ensure that written minutes of each meeting of its administrative action committee are kept in a manner determined by the financial sector regulator. 30

Application of Part to Ombud Council

90. This Part applies, with the necessary changes required by the context, in relation to the Ombud Council.

Part 2

Administrative justice

Applicability of Promotion of Administrative Justice Act to administrative action by financial sector regulators

91. The Promotion of Administrative Justice Act applies to any administrative action taken by a financial sector regulator in terms of this Act or a specific financial sector law.

Procedures for specific administrative action in terms of Act

92. (1) A financial sector regulator may, by notice in the Register, determine procedures for administrative action to be taken by it in terms of a financial sector law, which procedures must—

(a) be aimed at promoting a fair and consistent approach to administrative action

- taken by the financial sector regulator in terms of the financial sector laws; and 45 (b) be consistent with—
 - (i) the principles of the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act; and (ii) any applicable requirements of a financial sector law.

(2) If it is reasonable and justifiable in the circumstances, procedures for administrative action may depart from specific requirements of the Promotion of 50 Administrative Justice Act, in accordance with sections 3(4), 4(4) and 5(4) of that Act.

112

10

25

30

45

(3) Different procedures may be determined for different types of administrative actions and different circumstances.

Processes for determining or amending administrative action procedures

93. (1) Before a financial sector regulator determines or amends an administrative action procedure in terms of section 92, the financial sector regulator must—

- (a) publish on its website
 - (i) a draft of the proposed procedure or amendment; and
 - (ii) a notice calling for written public comment within a period stated in the notice, which must be at least 30 days from the date of publication of the notice;
- (b) submit a draft of the proposed procedure or amendment to the Director-General and the other financial sector regulator; and
- (c) consider any comments received.

(2) If a financial sector regulator intends to make an administrative action procedure or amendment that is materially different in form from the draft procedure 15 or amendment that was previously published in terms of subsection (1), the regulator must, before making the procedure or amendment, repeat the process referred to in subsection (1).

Review of administrative action procedures

94. A financial sector regulator must review its administrative action procedures at 20 least once every three years.

Revocation of decisions

95. (1) A financial sector regulator may, by notice to a person in relation to whom the regulator made a decision in terms of a financial sector law (or, if more than one such person, all of them), revoke the decision if—

- (a) the decision was made as a result of fraud or illegality;
- (b) the information on which the decision was made was inaccurate or incomplete and the financial sector regulator would not have made the decision if it had had accurate and complete information; or
- (c) the decision is, for any reason, invalid.

(2) A revocation of a decision in terms of subsection (1) has effect from the date on which the revoked decision was made.

(3) A financial sector regulator may not take action in terms of subsection (1)—

- (a) if the action would adversely affect the existing or accrued rights of any person (except the person in relation to whom the regulator made the 35 decision); or
- (b) if—
 - (i) the financial sector regulator has been notified that an application to the Tribunal or a court in relation to the decision will be made; or
 - (ii) proceedings have commenced in the Tribunal or a court in relation to the 40 decision.

(4) Before a financial sector regulator takes action in terms of subsection (1), it must—

- (a) notify its intention to do so to the person in relation to whom the regulator made a decision; and
- (b) give the person a reasonable period, of at least 14 days, to make submissions to the regulator.

(5) In determining whether to take action in terms of subsection (1), the financial sector regulator must take into account all the submissions received during the period referred to in subsection (4)(b). 50

Interpretation

CHAPTER 7

REGULATORY INSTRUMENTS

Part 1

Regulatory instruments

Interpretation

97. In this Part, "maker", in relation to a regulatory instrument, means the person that proposes to make the regulatory instrument.

Process for making regulatory instruments

98. (1) A regulatory instrument must not be made unless the maker—

- (a) has published—
 - (i) a draft of the regulatory instrument;
 - (ii) a statement explaining the need for and the intended operation of the regulatory instrument;
 - (iii) a statement of the expected impact of the regulatory instrument; and
 - (iv) a notice inviting submissions in relation to the regulatory instrument and 15 stating where, how and by when submissions are to be made; and
- (b) has, once submissions referred to in paragraph (a)(iv) have been received and considered, submitted the regulatory instrument to Parliament in terms of section 103(1).

(2) The period allowed for making submissions referred to in subsection (1)(a)(iv) 20 must be at least six weeks.

(3) If the maker is a financial sector regulator, the maker must, when complying with subsection (1)(a), provide a copy of the documents referred to in that paragraph to—

- (a) the other financial sector regulator, the Reserve Bank, the National Credit Regulator, the Council for Medical Schemes and the Director-General; and 25
- (b) if the regulatory instrument would impose requirements on providers of securities services, the market infrastructure that has the function of licensing those providers in terms of a financial sector law.

(4) If the maker is the Ombud Council, the maker must, when complying with subsection (1)(a), provide a copy of the documents referred to in that subsection to the 30 financial sector regulators, the Council for Medical Schemes, the National Credit Regulator and the Director-General.

Substantially different regulatory instrument

99. If a maker of a regulatory instrument intends, whether or not as a result of a consultation process, to make a regulatory instrument in a materially different form from 35 the draft regulatory instrument published in terms of section 98, the maker must, before making the regulatory instrument, repeat the process referred to in section 98.

Urgent regulatory instruments

100. (1) If the maker of a regulatory instrument determines that compliance with section 98 or 99 is likely to lead to prejudice to financial customers or harm to the 40 financial system, or defeat the object of the proposed regulatory instrument, the maker must before making the instrument—

- (a) publish—
 - (i) a draft of the regulatory instrument and a statement explaining the need for and the intended operation of the regulatory instrument;
 - (ii) a notice inviting submissions in relation to the regulatory instrument and stating where, how and by when submissions are to be made; and
 - (iii) a statement of the reasons why the delay involved in complying with sections 98 and 99 is considered likely to lead to prejudice to financial

25

30

116 customers or harm to the financial system, or defeat the object of the proposed regulatory instrument; and

(b) submit the regulatory instrument to Parliament in terms of section 103(2).

(2) The period allowed for making submissions in terms of subsection (1)(a)(ii) must be at least seven days.

(3) A maker must, after making an instrument pursuant to subsection (1), as soon as possible, but not later than within 30 days of making the instrument—

- (a) submit to Parliament a report of the consultation process, which report must include a general account of the issues raised in the submissions and a response to the issues raised in the submissions.
- (b) if the maker is a financial sector regulator, provide a copy of the documents referred to in paragraph (a) to—
 - (i) the other financial sector regulator, the Reserve Bank, the National Credit Regulator, the Council for Medical Schemes and the Director-General; and
 - (ii) if the regulatory instrument would impose requirements on providers of securities services, the market infrastructure that has the function of licensing those providers in terms of a financial sector law.
- (c) if the maker is the Ombud Council, provide a copy of the documents referred to in that subsection to the financial sector regulators, the National Credit 20 Regulator and the Director-General.

Part does not limit other consultation

101. This Part does not prevent a maker of a regulatory instrument from engaging in consultations in addition to those required in terms of this Part.

Making, publication and commencement of regulatory instruments

102. (1) In deciding whether to make a regulatory instrument, the maker must take into account all submissions received by the expiry of the period referred to in section 98(2) or 100(2) and any deliberations of Parliament.

(2) A regulatory instrument must be published in the Register after it is made.

(3) A regulatory instrument comes into effect-

- (a) on the date the instrument is published in the Register; or
- (b) if the instrument provides that it comes into effect on a later date, on the later date.

Submission of regulatory instruments to Parliament

103. (1) Before making a regulatory instrument in terms of section 98 or 99, the maker 35 of the regulatory instrument must submit the regulatory instrument to Parliament, for a period of at least 30 days while Parliament is in session, together with—

(a) the documents mentioned in section 98(1)(a); and

(b) a report on the consultation process referred to in section 104.

(2) Before making a regulatory instrument in terms of section 100, the maker of the 40 regulatory instrument must submit to Parliament, whether in session or not, the documents mentioned in section 100(1)(a) for a period of at least seven days (which period may run concurrently with the seven days referred to in section 100(2)).

Reports on consultation processes

104. (1) With each regulatory instrument, the maker must publish a consultation 45 report.

(2) A consultation report must include—

- (a) a general account of the issues raised in the submissions made during the consultation; and
- (b) a response to the issues raised in the submissions.

118

(3) If the maker did not comply with section 98 or 99 for the reason stated in section 100, the consultation report must be published 30 days after the instrument was made and the report must include a statement of the reasons why the delay involved in complying, or complying fully, with sections 98 and 99 was considered likely to lead to prejudice to financial customers or harm to the financial system, or defeat the object of 5 the regulatory instrument.

Part 2

Standards

Prudential standards

105. (1) The Prudential Authority may make prudential standards for, or in respect 10 of-

- (a) financial institutions that provide financial products or securities services;
- (b) financial institutions that are market infrastructures; and
- (c) key persons of such financial institutions.

(2) A prudential standard must be aimed at one or more of the following:

- (a) Ensuring the safety and soundness of those financial institutions;
- (b) reducing the risk that those financial institutions and key persons engage in conduct that amounts to, or contributes to, financial crime; and
- (c)assisting in maintaining financial stability.

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), a prudential standard may be made on any of the 20 following matters:

- (a)Financial soundness requirements, including requirements in relation to capital adequacy, minimum liquidity and minimum asset quality;
- (b) matters on which a regulatory instrument may be made by the Prudential Authority in terms of a specific financial sector law; 25
- (c) matters that may in terms of any other provision of this Act be regulated by prudential standards, including matters as contemplated in section 30; and
- (d) any other matter that is appropriate and necessary for achieving any of the aims set out in subsection (2).

Conduct standards

106. (1) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority may make conduct standards for or in respect of -

- (a) financial institutions;
- (b) representatives of financial institutions;
- (c) key persons of financial institutions; and
- (d) contractors.

(2) A conduct standard must be aimed at one or more of the following:

- (a) Ensuring the efficiency and integrity of financial markets;
- (b) ensuring that financial institutions and representatives treat financial customers fairly;
- (c) ensuring that financial education programs, or other activities promoting financial literacy are appropriate;
- (d) reducing the risk that financial institutions, representatives, key persons and contractors engage in conduct that is or contributes to financial crime; and
- (e) assisting in maintaining financial stability.

(3) Without limiting subsections (1) and (2), a conduct standard may be made on any of the following matters:

- (a) Efficiency and integrity requirements for financial markets;
- (b) measures to combat abusive practices;

40

45

120

- (c) requirements for the fair treatment of financial customers, including in relation to -
 - (i) the design and suitability of financial products and financial services;
 - (ii) the promotion, marketing and distribution of, and advice in relation to, those products and services;
 - (iii) the resolution of complaints and disputes concerning those products and services, including redress;
 - (iv) the disclosure of information to financial customers; and
 - (v) principles, guiding processes and procedures for the refusal, withdrawal or closure of a financial product or a financial service by a financial 10 institution in respect of one or more financial customers, taking into consideration relevant international standards and practices, and subject to the requirements of any other financial sector law or the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, including-15
 - (aa) disclosures to be made to the financial customer; and
 - (bb) reporting of any refusal, withdrawal or closure to a financial sector regulator;
- (d)the design, suitability, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of financial education programs, or other initiatives promoting financial literacy;
- (e) matters on which a regulatory instrument may be made by the Financial 20 Sector Conduct Authority in terms of a specific financial sector law;
- matters that may in terms of any other provision of this Act be regulated by (f)conduct standards; and
- any other matter that is appropriate and necessary for achieving any of the (g)aims set out in subsection (2).

(4) A conduct standard may declare specific conduct in connection with a financial product or a financial service to be unfair business conduct if the conduct-

- (a) is or is likely to be materially inconsistent with the fair treatment of financial customers;
- (b) is deceiving, misleading or is likely to deceive or mislead financial customers; 30
- (c) is unfairly prejudicing or is likely to unfairly prejudice financial customers or a category of financial customers; or
- (d) impedes in any other way the achievement of any of the objectives of a financial sector law.

(5) (a) In relation to a credit provider regulated in terms of the National Credit Act, a 35 conduct standard may only be made in relation to a financial service provided in relation to a credit agreement and matters provided for in section 108.

(b) A conduct standard referred to in paragraph (a) may only be made after consultation with the National Credit Regulator.

Joint standards

107. The Prudential Authority and the Financial Sector Conduct Authority may make joint standards on any matter in respect of which either of them have the power to make a standard.

Additional matters for making standards

108. (1) To achieve the respective objectives of the financial sector regulators as set 45 out in sections 33 and 57, the standards referred to in sections 105, 106 or 107 may be made on any of the following additional matters:

- (a) Fit and proper person requirements, including in relation to—
 - (i) personal character qualities of honesty and integrity;
 - (ii) competence, including experience, qualifications and knowledge; and 50

- (iii) financial standing;
- (b) governance, including in relation to-
 - (i) the composition, membership and operation of governing bodies and of substructures of governing bodies; and
 - (ii) the roles and responsibilities of governing bodies and their substructures; 5
- (c) the appointment, duties, responsibilities, remuneration, reward, incentive schemes and, subject to applicable labour legislation, the suspension and dismissal of, members of governing bodies and of their substructures;
- (d) the appointment, duties, responsibilities, remuneration, reward, incentive schemes and, subject to applicable labour legislation, the suspension and 10 dismissal of, key persons;
- (e) the operation of, and operational requirements for, financial institutions;
- (f) financial management, including-
 - (i) accounting, actuarial and auditing requirements;
 - (ii) asset, debt, transaction, acquisition and disposal management; and
 - (iii) financial statements, updates on financial position, and public reporting and disclosures;
- (g) risk management and internal control requirements;
- (h) the control functions of financial institutions, including the outsourcing of control functions;
- (i) record-keeping and data management by financial institutions and representatives;
- (j) reporting by financial institutions and representatives to a financial sector regulator;
- (k) outsourcing by financial institutions;
- (l) insurance arrangements, including reinsurance, of financial institutions;
- (m) the amalgamation, merger, acquisition, disposal and dissolution of financial institutions;
- (n) recovery, resolution and business continuity of financial institutions;
- (o) requirements for identifying and managing conflicts of interest;
- (p) requirements for the safekeeping of assets, including requirements pertaining to the approval and supervision of nominees and custodians.

(2) A standard may-

- (a) provide for a financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank to make determinations, in accordance with procedures defined in a standard, for the 35 purposes of the standard; and
- (b) impose requirements for approval by a financial sector regulator in respect of specified matters.

(3) A standard made by a financial sector regulator may amend or revoke another standard made by the financial sector regulator.

Standards requiring concurrence of Reserve Bank

109. (1) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority may not make a standard that imposes requirements on providers of payment services without the concurrence of the Reserve Bank.

(2) A financial sector regulator may not make a standard aimed at assisting in 45 maintaining financial stability without the concurrence of the Reserve Bank.

General

110. (1) Different standards may be made for, or in respect of –

- (a) different categories of financial institutions, representatives, contractors or key persons; or 50
- (b) different circumstances.

(2) A standard may be made applicable to existing actions, activities, transactions, policies and appointments.

(3) A standard must be published on the maker's website.

CHAPTER 8

LICENSING

Part 1

Licensing requirements

Licence requirement in respect of providers of financial products and financial 5 services, and market infrastructures

111. (1) A person may not provide, as a business or part of a business, a financial product, financial service or market infrastructure except—

- (a) in accordance with a licence in terms of a specific financial sector law, the National Credit Act or the National Payment System Act; or10
- (b) if no specific financial sector law provides for such a licence, in accordance with a licence in terms of this Act.

(2) A person may not provide, as a business or part of a business, a financial product designated in terms of section 2, or a financial service designated in terms of section 3, except in accordance with a licence in terms of this Chapter.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) only apply to a contractor if a responsible authority specifically, in a standard, requires that contractor to be licensed.

(4) A person may not describe or hold itself out as being licensed in terms of a financial sector law, including being licensed to provide particular financial products, financial services or market infrastructure, unless that person is so licensed.

15

(5) A person may not permit another person to identify the first person as licensed in terms of a financial sector law, including licensed in terms of a financial sector law to provide particular financial products, financial services or market infrastructure, unless the first person is so licensed.

(6) For the purposes of subsections (4) and (5), a person whose licence has been 25 suspended or revoked is not licensed.

(7) Except to the extent expressly provided by this Act, this Act does not affect the provisions of the specific financial sector laws with respect to licensing in relation to financial products, financial services and market infrastructures.

Part 2

Licences required in terms of section 111(1)(b) or (2) or section 162

Interpretation

112. In this Part—

"application" means an application for a licence required in terms of section 111(1)(b) or (2) or section 162;

"licence" means a licence required in terms of section 111(1)(b) or (2) or section 162;

"licensee" means a person licensed in terms of section 111(1)(b) or (2) or section 162.

Power to grant licences

113. (1) The responsible authority may, on application, grant a licence.

(2) The application must—

- (a) be in writing and in a form approved or accepted by the responsible authority; and
- (b) include or be accompanied by the information and documents—
 - (i) required in the form; or
 - (ii) required by the responsible authority.

Request for further information or documents by responsible authority

114. (1) The responsible authority may, by notice in writing, require an applicant for a licence to—

- (a) give the responsible authority additional information or documents specified by the responsible authority; and
- (b) verify any information given by the applicant in connection with the application in a manner specified by the responsible authority.

(2) The responsible authority need not deal further with the application until the applicant has complied with the notice.

Relevant matters for application for licence

115. The matters to be taken into account in relation to an application for a licence include—

(a) the objective of the responsible authority as set out in section 33 or 57;

- (b) the financial and other resources of and available to the applicant;
- (c) fit and proper person requirements applicable to the applicant and to any key 15 person or significant owner of the applicant;
- (d) the governance and risk management arrangements of the applicant; and
- (e) whether the applicant made a statement that is false or misleading, including by omission, in or in relation to the application.

Determination of applications

116. (1) The responsible authority to which an application for a licence has been made must determine the application by—

(a) granting the application and issuing a licence to the applicant; or

(b) refusing the application and notifying the applicant accordingly.

(2) The responsible authority may not grant a licence to an applicant unless satisfied 25 that—

- (a) the applicant has or has available to it sufficient resources and capacity to ensure that it will comply with the requirements of financial sector laws in relation to the licence; and
- (b) issuing the licence to the applicant will not be contrary to the interests of 30 financial customers, the financial sector or the public interest.

(3) (a) The responsible authority must determine an application as contemplated in subsection (1) and notify the applicant within three months after the application is made.

(b) The responsible authority may, by notice to the applicant, extend the period of three months in paragraph (a) for one or more further periods, but the total period may 35 not be more than nine months.

(c) In working out when the period mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) expires, any period between the responsible authority giving the applicant a notice in terms of section 114 and the requirements in the notice being satisfied is not to be counted.

Reporting obligations of licensee

117. (1) A licensee must promptly report any of the following to the responsible authority that issued the licence:

(a) The fact that the licensee has contravened or is contravening, in a material way—

- (i) a financial sector law;
- (ii) a regulator's directive or a directive in terms of section 202;
- (iii) an enforceable undertaking;
- (iv) an order of a court made in terms of a financial sector law; or
- (v) a decision of the Tribunal;

128

(b) the fact that the licensee has become aware that information given in connection with the application for the licence was false or misleading.

(2) Subsection (1) also applies in relation to events and circumstances that occur while a licence is suspended.

(3) Information that is reported in terms of this section is not admissible in evidence 5 in any criminal proceedings, except in criminal proceedings for perjury.

Licences not transferable

118. A licence is not transferable from the licensee to another person.

Variation of licences

119. (1) The responsible authority that issued a licence may, by notice to the licensee, 10 vary the licence if to do so will assist in achieving the objective of the responsible authority as set out in section 33 or 57.

(2) A variation of a licence may include-

- (a) removing or varying a condition of the licence, or adding a condition; and
- (b) changing the categories of financial products, financial services or financial 15 customers to which the licence relates.

(3) A variation of a licence takes effect on a date of the notice in terms of subsection

(1) or, if a later date is specified in the notice, the later date.

Suspension of licences

120. (1) The responsible authority that issued a licence may, by notice to the licensee, 20 suspend the licence, for the period specified in the notice, if -

- (a) the licensee applies for suspension of the licence;
- (b) a condition of the licence has been contravened or not been complied with in a material way;
- (c) the licensee has contravened in a material way—
 - (i) a financial sector law;
 - (ii) a prudential standard, a conduct standard or a joint standard;
 - (iii) a regulator's directive or a directive in terms of section 202;
 - (iv) an enforceable undertaking;
 - (v) an order of a court made in terms of a financial sector law; or30(vi) a decision of the Tribunal;
- (d) the licensee has in a foreign country contravened in a material way a law of that country that corresponds to a financial sector law;
- (e) information provided in or in relation to an application in relation to the licence was false or misleading (including by omission) in a material way; 35
- (f) the suspension is necessary to prevent—
 - (i) a serious contravention of a financial sector law; or
 - (ii) financial customers of the licensee suffering material prejudice; or
- (g) fees in respect of the licence, a levy or an administrative penalty payable by the licensee, including any interest, are unpaid and have been unpaid for at 40 least 30 days.

(2) The responsible authority may refuse to suspend a licence in terms of subsection (1)(a) if the suspension—

- (a) would not be in the best interests of financial customers; or
- (b) would frustrate the objects of a financial sector law applicable to the licence. 45

(3) The responsible authority that suspended a licence may at any time revoke the suspension.

(4) The suspension of a licence takes effect on the date of the notice in terms of subsection (1) or, if a later date is specified in the notice, the later date.

(5) The suspension of a licence does not affect an obligation of the licensee that it has in terms of a financial sector law.

Revocation of licences

121. (1) The responsible authority that issued a licence may, by notice to the licensee, revoke the licence—

- (a) if the licensee applies for revocation of the licence;
- (b) on any of the bases on which it may suspend the licence, as set out in section 120(1)(b) to (g); or 10
- (c) if the licensee has ceased to conduct the licensed business.

(2) The responsible authority may refuse to revoke a licence in terms of subsection (1)(a) if the revocation—

(a) would not be in the best interests of financial customers; or

(b) would frustrate the objects of a financial sector law applicable to the licence. 15

(3) Revocation of a licence takes effect on the date of the notice in terms of subsection

(1) or, if a later date is specified in the notice, the later date.

Continuation of licensed activity despite suspension or revocation of licence

122. (1) The responsible authority that suspended or revoked a licence may, by notice to the licensee, on conditions specified in the licence, allow the licensee to carry out the 20 licensed activity to the extent, and for the period, specified in the notice to facilitate the orderly suspension or termination of the activity.

(2) Conditions in terms of subsection (1) must be aimed at—

- (a) ensuring that financial customers of the licensee are treated fairly; or
- (b) the orderly suspension or termination of the licensed activity.

30

35

40

50

(3) Carrying out the licensed activity in accordance with the requirements of a notice in terms of subsection (1) is not a contravention of section 111 or 162.

Procedure for varying, suspending and revoking licences

123. (1) (a) Before the responsible authority varies, suspends or revokes a licence, it must-

- (i) give the licensee notice of the proposed action and a statement of the reasons for it; and
- (ii) invite the licensee to make submissions on the matter, and give it a reasonable period to do so.
- (b) The period referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) must be at least one month.

(c) The responsible authority need not comply with paragraph (a) if the licensee has applied for the proposed action to be taken. (2) In deciding whether to vary, suspend or revoke a licence, the responsible authority must take into account all submissions made within the period specified in the notice in terms of subsection (1)(a)(ii).

(3) If the delay involved in complying, or complying fully, with subsection (1)(a) in respect of a proposed action is likely to prejudice financial customers, prejudicially affect financial stability or defeat the object of the action, the responsible authority may take the action without having complied, or complied fully, with that subsection.

(4) (a) If the responsible authority takes action without having complied, or complied 45 fully, with subsection (1)(a) for the reason set out in subsection (3), the responsible authority must give the licensee a written statement of the reasons why that subsection was not complied with.

(b) The licensee may make submissions to the responsible authority within one month after being provided with the statement.

(c) The responsible authority must consider the submissions, and notify the licensee, as soon as practicable, whether the responsible authority proposes to amend or revoke the variation, suspension or revocation.

Applications for licences

124. (1) The responsible authority may, in writing, determine procedures and 5 requirements for applications.

(2) Requirements determined in terms of subsection (1) may include requirements with respect to—

- (a) the institutional form of an applicant;
- (b) an applicant's business activities;
- (c) an applicant's financial capacity;
- (d) fit and proper person requirements; and
- (e) an applicant's operational, management, governance and risk management arrangements.

(3) An application to the responsible authority for the purposes of this Part must be 15 made in accordance with the relevant procedures in terms of subsection (1).

(4) The responsible authority must publish requirements determined in terms of subsection (1).

Part 3

Provisions relating to all licences under financial sector laws

Application

125. This Part applies in relation to licences in terms of all financial sector laws.

Concurrence of financial sector regulators on licensing matters

126. (1) The responsible authority may not take any of the actions specified in subsection (2) unless—

- (a) the other financial sector regulator has concurred; and
- (b) if the action relates to or affects a systemically important financial institution, the Reserve Bank has also concurred.

(2) The actions are—

- (a) issuing a licence;
- (b) varying, suspending or revoking a licence, however these are described in the relevant financial sector law; and
- (c) granting an exemption in terms of section 281.

Compulsory disclosure of licences

127. (1) A licensed financial institution must comply with the applicable requirements 35 of a prudential standard, a conduct standard and a joint standard in relation to the identification of relevant licences under financial sector laws in business documentation, including advertisements and other promotional material.

(2) A licensed financial institution must make its licence or a copy of its licence available at no cost to any person on request.

Publication

128. (1) Each licence must be published by the responsible authority that issues it. (2) Each variation, suspension and revocation of a licence must be published by the responsible authority that takes the action.

CHAPTER 9

INFORMATION GATHERING, SUPERVISORY ON-SITE INSPECTIONS AND INVESTIGATIONS

Part 1

Application and interpretation

Application and interpretation of Chapter

129. (1) This Chapter applies to information gathering, supervisory on-site inspections and investigations by the Prudential Authority or the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(2) The Council for Medical Schemes may exercise powers in terms of this Chapter 10 in respect of powers and functions set out in the Medical Schemes Act, and powers and functions granted to it in this Act.

(3) In relation to the exercise of the powers in terms of this Chapter by the Council for Medical Schemes in respect of a medical scheme, a reference in this Chapter to—

- (a) a financial sector regulator or the responsible authority must be read as 15 including a reference to the Council for Medical Schemes;
- (b) the head of a financial sector regulator must be read as including a reference to the Registrar of Medical Schemes appointed in terms of section 18 of the Medical Schemes Act;
- (c) a financial sector law must be read as including a reference to regulatory 20 instruments and to the Medical Schemes Act; and
- (d) a licensed financial institution must be read as including a reference to a medical scheme registered in terms of the Medical Schemes Act or an administrator of a medical scheme approved in terms of the Medical Schemes Act.

Legal professional privilege

130. (1) (a) A person does not have to answer a question asked, or comply with a requirement to produce a document or information, in terms of this Chapter to the extent that the person is entitled to claim legal professional privilege in relation to the answer, contents of the document or the information.

(b) If the person contemplated in paragraph (a) is a legal practitioner, the person is entitled or required to claim that privilege on behalf of a client of the person.

(2) Subsection (1) does not limit any right of a person.

Part 2

Information gathering

Information gathering

131. (1) (a) The responsible authority for a financial sector law may, by written notice to any person, request the person to provide specified information or a specified document in the possession of, or under the control of, the person that is relevant to assisting the responsible authority to perform its functions in terms of a financial sector 40 law.

(b) A supervised entity that has been given a notice in terms of paragraph (a) must comply with the requirements in the notice.

(2) (a) The responsible authority for a financial sector law may, by written notice to a supervised entity, require the supervised entity to provide specified information or a 45 specified document in the possession of, or under the control of, the entity that is relevant to the responsible authority's assessment of compliance by a supervised entity with, or risk of contraventions by a supervised entity of—

(i) a financial sector law;

10

30

35

40

45

(ii) a regulator's directive issued by the responsible authority; or

(iii) an enforceable undertaking accepted by the responsible authority.

(b) The responsible authority may require the information or document to be verified as specified in the notice, including by an auditor approved by the responsible authority. (c) A supervised entity that has been given a notice in terms of paragraph (a) or (b) must comply with the requirements in the notice.

(3) The responsible authority for a financial sector law may, for the purpose of gathering information relevant to its functions, engage in the activity commonly called "mystery shopping" in respect of financial products or financial services, and similar activities.

Part 3

Supervisory on-site inspections

Powers to conduct supervisory on-site inspections

132. (1) A financial sector regulator may conduct a supervisory on-site inspection at the business premises of a supervised entity with prior notification to the supervised 15 entity and, if the business premises of a supervised entity is a private residence, with the prior agreement of -

- (a) the person apparently in control of the business reasonably believed to be conducted at the private residence; and
- (b) the occupant of the private residence or the part of the private residence to be 20 inspected.

(2) The purpose for which a financial sector regulator may conduct a supervisory on-site inspection of a supervised entity is to—

- (a) check compliance by the entity with a financial sector law for which the financial sector regulator is the responsible authority, a regulator's directive 25 issued by the financial sector regulator or an enforceable undertaking accepted by the financial sector regulator;
- (b) determine the extent of the risk posed by the entity of contraventions of a financial sector law for which the financial sector regulator is the responsible authority; and
- (c) assist the financial sector regulator in supervising the relevant financial institution.

(3) (a) A financial sector regulator may determine the time and place of a supervisory on-site inspection, provided that the supervisory on-site inspection must be done at a reasonable time within ordinary business hours.

(b) A financial sector regulator must conduct a supervisory on-site inspection with strict regard to—

- (i) an affected person's right to-
 - (aa) dignity;
 - (bb) freedom and security;
 - (cc) privacy; and
 - (dd) other constitutional rights; and
- (ii) decency and good order as the circumstances require, in particular by—
 (aa) conducting the supervisory on-site inspection discreetly and with due decorum;
 - (bb) causing as little disturbance as possible; and
 - (cc) concluding the supervisory on-site inspection as soon as possible.

(4) (a) An official of a financial sector regulator, when conducting a supervisory on-site inspection, may do any of the following:

- (i) Request any person who has a specified business document that is relevant to the 50 inspection in his, her or its possession or under his, her or its control to produce that document and examine, make extracts from and copy any business document on the premises;
- (ii) question any person on the premises to find out information relevant to the inspection;
- (iii) give the supervised entity a written directive to produce to the financial sector regulator, at a time and place and in a manner specified in the directive, a specified business document that is relevant to the inspection and is in the possession or under the control of the supervised entity;

- (iv) when a business document is produced as required by a directive in terms of subparagraph (iii), examine, make extracts from and copy the document;
- (v) if, as a result of the inspection, the official or the financial sector regulator 5 suspects on reasonable grounds that a contravention of a financial sector law has occurred or is likely to occur—
 - (aa) give a written directive to the supervised entity or the person apparently in control of the premises to ensure that no person removes from the premises, or conceals, destroys or otherwise interferes with, any business document; 10 or
 - (bb) take possession of, and remove from the premises, a business document for the purpose of preventing another person from removing, concealing, destroying or otherwise interfering with the document.

(b) A directive in terms of paragraph (a)(iii) or (v)(aa) is effective if given to a person 15 apparently in control of the premises.

(c) The financial sector regulator must ensure that the person apparently in control of the premises is given a written receipt for the business documents taken as mentioned in paragraph (a)(v)(bb).

(d) The financial sector regulator must ensure that any business document removed as 20 contemplated in paragraph (a)(v)(bb) is returned to the supervised entity when retention of the business document is no longer necessary to achieve the object of a financial sector law.

(e) The supervised entity from whose premises a document was removed as contemplated in paragraph (a)(v)(bb), or its authorised representative, may, during 25 normal office hours and under the supervision of the financial sector regulator, examine, copy and make extracts from the document.

Interference with supervisory on-site inspections

133. A person may not intentionally or negligently interfere with or hinder the conduct of a supervisory on-site inspection. 30

Part 4

Investigations

Investigators

134. (1) A financial sector regulator may, in writing, appoint a person as an investigator and may appoint any person to assist the investigator in carrying out an 35 investigation.

(2) A person appointed as an investigator must -

- (a) not be a disqualified person;
- (b) not have any conflict of interest in respect of the subject matter of the investigation; and 40
- (c) have appropriate skills and expertise.

(3) The financial sector regulator must issue an investigator appointed in terms of subsection (1) with a certificate of appointment, which must be in the possession of the investigator when an investigator exercises any power or performs any duty in terms of this Act, and such investigator must produce the certificate of appointment at the request 45 of any person in respect of whom such power is being exercised.

Powers to conduct investigations

135. (1) A financial sector regulator may instruct an investigator appointed by it to conduct an investigation in terms of this Part in respect of any person, if the financial sector regulator—

(a) reasonably suspects that a person may have contravened, may be contravening or may be about to contravene, a financial sector law for which the financial sector regulator is the responsible authority; or

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

45

140

(b) reasonably believes that an investigation is necessary to achieve the objects referred to in section 251(3)(e) pursuant to a request by a designated authority in terms of a bilateral or multilateral agreement or memorandum of understanding contemplated in that section.

(2) The responsible authority may investigate any matter relating to an offence or 5 contravention referred to in sections 78, 80 and 81 of the Financial Markets Act, including insider trading in terms of the Insider Trading Act, 1998 (Act No. 135 of 1998), and the offences referred to in Chapter VIII of the Securities Services Act, 2004 (Act No. 36 of 2004), committed before the repeal of those Acts.

Powers of investigators to question and require production of documents or other 10 items

136. (1) (a) An investigator may, for the purposes of conducting an investigation, do any of the following:

- (i) By written notice, require any person who the investigator reasonably believes may be able to provide information relevant to the investigation to appear before 15 the investigator, at a time and place specified in the notice, to be questioned by an investigator;
- (ii) by written notice, require any person who the investigator reasonably believes may be able to produce a document or item relevant to the investigation, to-
 - (aa) produce the document or item to an investigator, at a time and place 20 specified in the notice; or
 - (bb) produce the document or item to an investigator, at a time and place specified in the notice, to be questioned by an investigator about the document or item;
- (iii) question a person who is complying with a notice in terms of subparagraph (i) or 25 (ii)(bb);
- (iv) require a person being questioned as mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii)(bb) to make an oath or affirmation, and administer such an oath or affirmation;
- (v) examine, copy or make extracts from any document or item produced to an investigator as required in terms of this paragraph;
- (vi) take possession of, and retain, any document or item produced to an investigator as required in terms of this paragraph; and
- (vii) give a directive to a person present while the investigator is exercising powers in terms of this section, to facilitate the exercise of such powers.

(b) An investigator who takes a document or item in terms of paragraph (a)(vi) must 35 give the person producing it a written receipt.

(c) Subject to paragraph (d), the investigator must ensure that a document or item taken in terms of paragraph (a)(vi) is returned to the person who produced it when—

(i) retention of the document or item is no longer necessary to achieve the object of the investigation; or 40

- (ii) all proceedings arising out of the investigation have been finally disposed of.
- (d) A document or item need not be returned to the person who produced it if -
- (i) the document or item has been handed over to a designated authority; or
- (ii) it is not in the best interest of the public or any member or members of the public for the document or item to be returned.

(e) A person otherwise entitled to possession of a document or item taken in terms of paragraph (a)(vi), or its authorised representative, may, during normal office hours and under the supervision of the financial sector regulator, examine, copy and make extracts from the document, or inspect the item.

(2) A person being questioned in terms of this section is entitled to have a legal 50 practitioner present at the questioning to assist the person.

Powers of investigators to enter and search premises

137. (1) An investigator may, for the purposes of conducting an investigation, do any of the following:

(a) Enter any premises –

- (i) with the prior consent of
 - (aa) in the case of a private residence, the person apparently in control of the business reasonably believed to be conducted at the private residence, and the occupant of the private residence or the part of the private residence to be entered; or
 - (bb) in the case of any other premises, the person apparently in control 10 of the premises, after informing that person that -

- (AA) granting consent will enable the investigator to enter the premises and for the investigator to subsequently search the premises as referred to in paragraph (b) or (c), and to do anything contemplated in subsection (6); and
- (BB) he or she is under no obligation to admit the investigator in the absence of a warrant; or
- (ii) without prior consent and without prior notice to any person—
 (aa) if the entry is authorised by a warrant; or
 - (bb) with the prior authority of the head of a financial sector regulator or a senior staff member of the financial sector regulator delegated to perform the function, if the head of a financial sector regulator or senior staff member on reasonable grounds believes that—
 - (AA) a warrant will be issued under section 138(1) if applied for; 25(BB) the delay in obtaining the warrant is likely to defeat the purpose for which entry of the premises is sought; and
 - (CC) it is necessary to enter the premises to conduct the investigation and search the premises as referred to in paragraph (b) or (c), and to do anything contemplated in 30 subsection (6);
- (b) if the investigation is one referred to in section 135(1)(a), search the premises for evidence of a contravention of a financial sector law; or
- (c) if the investigation is one referred to in section 135(1)(b), search the premises pursuant to the request, subject to section 251.

(2) The authority of an investigator in terms of subsection (1)(a) to enter a premises also provides authority for the investigator to subsequently search the premises as referred to in subsection (1)(b) or (c), and to do anything contemplated in subsection (6). (3) An investigator exercising powers in terms of this section must do so with strict regard to—

- (a) an affected person's right to-
 - (i) dignity;
 - (ii) freedom and security;
 - (iii) privacy; and
 - (iv) other constitutional rights; and
- (b) decency and good order as the circumstances require, in particular by—
 - (i) entering and searching only such areas or objects as are reasonably required for the purposes of the investigation;
 - (ii) conducting the search discreetly and with due decorum;
 - (iii) causing as little disturbance as possible; and
 - (iv) concluding the search as soon as possible.

(4) An entry or search of premises in terms of this Part must be done, at a reasonable time within ordinary business hours,—

- (a) unless the warrant authorising it expressly authorises entry at night; or
- (b) in the case of a search contemplated in subsection (1)(a)(ii)(bb), if the 55 investigator on reasonable grounds believes that the purpose for which the entry and search is sought, is likely to be defeated by a delay, as close to ordinary business hours as the circumstances reasonably permit.

(5) An investigator may be accompanied and assisted during the entry and search of any premises for an investigation by a police officer or a person appointed in terms of section 134.

(6) (a) While on the premises in terms of this section, an investigator, for the purpose of conducting the investigation, has the right of access to any part of the premises and 5 to any document or item on the premises, and may do any of the following:

- Open or cause to be opened any strongroom, safe, cabinet or other container in which the investigator reasonably suspects there is a document or item that may afford evidence of the contravention concerned or be relevant to the request;
- (ii) examine, make extracts from and copy any document on the premises;
- (iii) question any person on the premises to find out information relevant to the investigation;
- (iv) require a person on the premises to produce to the investigator any document or item that is relevant to the investigation and is in the possession or under the control of the person;
- (v) require a person on the premises to operate any computer or similar system on or available through the premises to—
 - (aa) search any information in or available through that system; and
 - (bb) produce a record of that information in any media that the investigator reasonably requires;
- (vi) if it is not practicable or appropriate to make a requirement in terms of subparagraph (v), operate any computer or similar system on or available through the premises for a purpose set out in that subparagraph; and
- (vii) take possession of, and take from the premises, a document or item that may afford evidence of the contravention concerned or be relevant to the request. 25
- (b) An investigator must give the person apparently in charge of the premises a written receipt for documents or items taken as mentioned in paragraph (a)(vii).

(c) Subject to paragraph (d), the investigator must ensure that any document or item taken by the investigator as mentioned in paragraph (a)(vii) is returned to the person when— 30

- (i) retention of the document or item is no longer necessary to achieve the object of the investigation; or
- (ii) all proceedings arising out the investigation have been finally disposed of.
- (d) A document or item need not be returned to the person who produced it if -
- (i) the document or item has been handed over to a designated authority; or
- (ii) it is not in the best interest of the public or any member or members of the public for the documents or items to be returned.

(e) A person from whose premises a document or item was taken as mentioned in paragraph (a)(vii), or its authorised representative, may, during normal office hours and under the supervision of the financial sector regulator, examine, copy and make extracts 40 from the document or item.

(7) An investigator, and any person assisting an investigator as mentioned in subsection (5), may use reasonable force to exercise any power in terms of this section.

Warrants

138. (1) (a) A judge or magistrate who has jurisdiction may issue a warrant for the 45 purposes of this Part on application by an investigator.

- (b) The judge or magistrate may issue a warrant in terms of this section—
- (i) on written application by the investigator setting out under oath or affirmation why it is necessary to enter and investigate the premises; and
- (ii) if it appears to the magistrate or judge from the information under oath or 50 affirmation that—
 - (aa) in the case of an investigation under section 135(1)(a), that—
 - (AA) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a contravention of a financial sector law has occurred, may be occurring or may be about to occur; 55

- (BB) entry and investigation of the premises are likely to yield information pertaining to the contravention; and
- (CC) entry and investigation of those premises is reasonably necessary for the purposes of the investigation;
- (bb) in the case of an investigation under section 135(1)(b), that there are 5 reasonable grounds to believe that the investigation is necessary to comply with a request referred to in that section.

(2) A warrant issued in terms of this section must be signed by the judge or magistrate issuing it.

(3) An investigator who enters premises under the authority of a warrant must—

- (a) if there is apparently no one in charge of the premises when the warrant is executed, fix a copy of the warrant on a prominent and accessible place on the premises; and
- (b) on reasonable demand by any person on the premises, produce the warrant or a copy of the warrant.

Interference with investigations

139. (1) A person may not intentionally or negligently interfere with or hinder the conduct of an investigation.

(2) Subject to section 140, a person who is given a notice or directive in terms of this Part must comply with the requirements in the notice or directive, as the case may be. 20

(3) Subject to section 140, a person who is asked a question in terms of this Part must answer the question fully and truthfully, to the best of the person's knowledge.

(4) A person may not, except with a lawful excuse, refuse or fail to comply with any reasonable request by an investigator in connection with the conduct of an investigation.

(5) A person may not give an investigator any information that is false or misleading, 25 including by omission, and is relevant to an investigation, if the person knew that the information was false or misleading, including by omission.

Part 5

Protections

Protections

140. (1) (a) A person who is questioned, or required to produce a document or information, during a supervisory on-site inspection contemplated in section 132, or by an investigator in terms of Part 4 of this Chapter, whether in response to a notice contemplated in section 136, or when an investigator is exercising the powers contemplated in section 137(6)(a)(iii) to (v), may object to answering the question or to 35 producing the document or the information on the grounds that the answer, the contents of the document or the information may tend to incriminate the person.

(b) On such an objection, the official of the financial sector regulator conducting the supervisory on-site inspection or the investigator may require the question to be answered or the document or information to be produced, in which case the person must 40 answer the question or produce the document.

(c) An incriminating answer given, and an incriminating document or information produced, as required in terms of paragraph (b), is not admissible in evidence against the person in any criminal proceedings, except in criminal proceedings for perjury or in which that person is tried for a contravention of section 273 based on the false or 45 misleading nature of the answer.

(2) An official of the financial sector regulator conducting a supervisory on-site inspection or an investigator must inform the person of the right to object in terms of this section at the commencement of the supervisory on-site inspection or the investigation.

CHAPTER 10

ENFORCEMENT

Part 1

Guidance notices and interpretation rulings

Guidance notices

141. (1) The responsible authority for a financial sector law may publish guidance notices on the application of the financial sector law.

(2) Guidance notices are for information, and are not binding.

Interpretation rulings

142. (1) The responsible authority for a financial sector law may publish a statement 10 (an "interpretation ruling") regarding the interpretation or application of a specified provision of that law, in circumstances specified in the statement.

(2) The purpose of an interpretation ruling is to promote clarity, consistency and certainty in the interpretation and application of financial sector laws.

(3) The responsible authority must interpret and apply the provision of the financial 15 sector law to which the interpretation ruling relates in accordance with the interpretation ruling.

(4) An interpretation ruling ceases to be effective if—

- (a) a provision of the financial sector law that was the subject of the interpretation ruling is repealed or amended in a manner that materially affects the 20 interpretation ruling, in which case the interpretation ruling will cease to be effective from the date that the repeal or amendment is effective; or
- (b) a court overturns or modifies an interpretation of the financial sector law on which the interpretation ruling is based, in which case the interpretation ruling will cease to be effective from the date of judgment unless
 - (i) the decision is under appeal;
 - (ii) the decision is fact-specific and the general interpretation upon which the interpretation ruling was based is unaffected; or
 - (iii) the reference to the interpretation upon which the interpretation ruling was based did not form a part of the reasoning on which the judgment of 30 the court was based.

(5) The responsible authority that issues an interpretation ruling may amend or revoke the interpretation ruling if it is necessary to do so because of a judicial decision or a change in the law.

(6) An interpretation ruling ceases to be effective upon the occurrence of any of the 35 circumstances described in subsection (4), whether or not the responsible authority publishes a notice of withdrawal or modification of the interpretation ruling.

(7) Before the responsible authority issues an interpretation ruling, it must publish-

- (a) a draft of the proposed interpretation ruling; and
- (b) a notice calling for written public comments within a period specified in the 40 notice, which period must be at least one month from the date of publication of the notice.

(8) The responsible authority is not obliged to comply with subsection (7) in relation to an amendment to, or a revocation of, an interpretation ruling.

(9) The responsible authority that issues an interpretation ruling must publish it. 45

Part 2

Directives by financial sector regulators

Directives by Prudential Authority

143. (1) The Prudential Authority may issue to either of the following persons:

- (a) A financial institution that provides a financial product or securities services, 5 or that is a market infrastructure; and
- (b) a key person of a financial institution, a written directive requiring the person to take action specified in the directive if-

- (i) the financial institution is conducting its business in an improper or financially unsound way and, as a result, there is a risk that the financial institution may not 10 be able to comply with its obligations; or
- (ii) the financial institution or key person of a financial institution-
 - (aa) has contravened or is likely to contravene a financial sector law for which the Prudential Authority is the responsible authority;
 - (bb) has not complied with an enforceable undertaking accepted by the 15 Prudential Authority;
 - (cc) is involved or is likely to be involved in financial crime; or
 - (dd) is causing or contributing to instability in the financial system, or is likely to do so.

(2) The Prudential Authority may issue to a holding company of a financial 20 conglomerate a written directive requiring the holding company to take action specified in the directive, if the holding company or another company in the financial conglomerate concerned—

- (a) is conducting its business in an improper or financially unsound way and, as a result, there is a risk that an eligible financial institution in the conglomerate 25 will not be able to comply with its obligations under a financial sector law or in relation to a financial product or financial service that it provides or offers to provide;
- (b) has not complied with an enforceable undertaking accepted by the Prudential Authority; 30
- (c) has contravened or is likely to contravene a financial sector law;
- (d) is involved or is likely to be involved in financial crime; or
- (e) is causing or contributing to instability in the financial system, or is likely to do so.

(3) A directive in terms of subsection (1) or (2) must be aimed at achieving the 35 objective of the Prudential Authority set out in section 33 and—

- (a) reducing any risks referred to in subsection (1)(b)(i) or (2)(a);
- (b) ensuring that the financial institution or the directed person complies with the enforceable undertaking that was accepted by the Prudential Authority;
- (c) stopping the financial institution or company from contravening applicable 40 financial sector laws, or reducing the risk of such contraventions;
- (d) stopping the financial institution or company from being involved in financial crime, and reducing the risk that it may be so involved;
- (e) reducing the risk that a systemic event may occur; or
- (f) remedying the effects of a contravention of a financial sector law or the 45 person's involvement in financial crime.

(4) The Prudential Authority may not issue a directive to a financial institution on the basis set out in subsection (1)(b)(ii)(dd) unless it has been directed in terms of section 18 to do so or with the concurrence of the Reserve Bank.

(5) Action that may be specified in a directive in terms of subsection (1) includes the 50 following:

(a) The financial institution ceasing offering or providing a specific financial product;

30

35

55

152

- (b) the financial institution modifying a specific financial product or the terms on which it is provided;
- (c) removing a person from a specified position or function in or in relation to the financial institution;
- (d) the financial institution not paying a dividend or a specified bonus or 5 performance payment;
- (e) the financial institution not entering into a specific transaction or undertaking a specific obligation, contingent or otherwise;
- (f) the financial institution remedying the effects of a contravention of a financial sector law.

(6) In addition to its powers to issue regulator's directives, if a person is engaging, or is proposing to engage, in conduct that contravenes a financial sector law for which the Prudential Authority is the responsible authority, the Prudential Authority may issue a written directive to the person requiring the person to cease engaging, or not to engage, in the conduct.

Directives by Financial Sector Conduct Authority

144. (1) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority may issue to a financial institution a written directive requiring the financial institution to take action specified in the directive if—

- (a) the financial institution is conducting its business in a way that poses a 20 material risk to the efficiency and integrity of financial markets;
- (b) the financial institution's treatment of its financial customers is such that the institution will not be able to comply with its obligations in relation to the fair treatment of financial customers;
- (c) the financial institution is providing financial education in a manner that is not 25 in accordance with relevant conduct standards;
- (d) the financial institution or a key person, representative or contractor of the financial institution—
 - (i) has contravened or is likely to contravene a financial sector law for which the Financial Sector Conduct Authority is the responsible authority;
 - (ii) has not complied with an enforceable undertaking accepted by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority;
 - (iii) is involved or is likely to be involved in financial crime; or
 - (iv) is causing or contributing to instability in the financial system, or is likely to do so.

(2) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority may issue to a key person, a representative or a contractor of a financial institution (in this section, a "directed person") a written directive requiring the directed person to take action specified in the directive if the financial institution or the directed person—

- (a) has contravened or is likely to contravene a financial sector law for which the 40 Financial Sector Conduct Authority is the responsible authority;
- (b) has not complied with an enforceable undertaking accepted by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority;
- (c) is involved or is likely to be involved in financial crime; or
- (d) is causing or contributing to instability in the financial system, or is likely to 45 do so.

(3) A directive in terms of subsection (1) or (2) must be aimed at achieving the objective of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority set out in section 57 and—

- (a) stopping the financial institution or the directed person from contravening applicable financial sector laws, or reducing the risk of such contraventions; 50
- (b) ensuring that the financial institution or the directed person complies with the enforceable undertaking that was accepted by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority;
- (c) stopping the financial institution or the directed person from being involved in financial crime, and reducing the risk that it may be so involved;

30

35

40

- (d) reducing the risk that a systemic event may occur; or
- (e) remedying the effects of a contravention of a financial sector law or the person's involvement in financial crime.

(4) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority may not issue a directive on the basis set out in subsection (1)(d)(iv) unless it has been directed in terms of section 18 to do so or 5 with the concurrence of the Reserve Bank.

(5) Action that may be specified in a directive in terms of subsection (1) includes the following:

- (a) The financial institution ceasing offering or providing a specific financial product or financial service;
- (b) the financial institution modifying a specific financial product or financial service or the terms on which it is provided;
- (c) removing a person from a specified position or function in or in relation to the financial institution;
- (d) the financial institution not paying a specified bonus or performance payment; 15 and
- (e) the financial institution remedying the effects of a contravention of a financial sector law.

(6) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority may not issue a directive in terms of subsection (5)(a) or (b) to a systemically important financial institution without the 20 concurrence of the Prudential Authority.

(7) Action that may be specified in a directive in terms of subsection (2) must be aimed at achieving the objective of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and ensuring that the key person, representative or contractor performs its function in compliance with the applicable financial sector laws.

(8) In addition to its powers to issue regulator's directives, if a person is engaging, or is proposing to engage, in conduct that contravenes a financial sector law for which the Financial Sector Conduct Authority is the responsible authority, the Financial Sector Conduct Authority may issue a written directive to the person requiring the person to cease engaging, or not to engage, in the conduct.

Removal of person from position

145. A financial sector regulator may not issue a directive in terms of this Part that requires the removal of a person from a specified position or function in or in relation to the financial institution unless the person—

- (a) has contravened a financial sector law;
- (b) has been involved in financial crime;
- (c) is responsible for, or in any way participated in, or failed to take steps open to him or her aimed at preventing—
 - (i) a contravention of a financial sector law by the financial institution; or
 - (ii) the financial institution being involved in financial crime; or
- (d) no longer complies with applicable fit and proper person requirements.

Consultation requirements

146. (1) Before issuing a regulator's directive in terms of this Part, the financial sector regulator must—

- (a) give the financial institution or person to whom it is proposed to issue the 45 directive a draft of the proposed directive and a statement of the reasons why it is proposed to issue it, including a statement of the relevant facts and circumstances; and
- (b) invite the financial institution or person to make submissions on the matter, and give it a specified period, which must be reasonable, to do so.

(2) If the directive requires removing a person from a specified position or function in or in relation to the financial institution, the financial sector regulator must also—

- (a) give the person a draft of the proposed directive and a statement of the reasons why it is proposed to issue it, including a statement of the relevant facts and circumstances; and
- (b) invite the person to make submissions on the matter within the period specified in terms of subsection (1)(b).

20

40

45

156

(3) In deciding whether to issue the directive, the financial sector regulator must take into account all submissions received by the end of the period referred to in subsection (1)(b) or (2)(b).

(4) If the delay involved in complying, or complying fully, with subsections (1) and
(2) in respect of a proposed directive is likely to lead to prejudice to financial customers, 5 prejudicially affect financial stability or defeat the object of the directive, the financial sector regulator may issue the directive without having complied, or complied fully, with those subsections.

(5) (a) If a financial sector regulator issues a directive without having complied, or complied fully, with subsections (1) and (2), the person to whom it was issued, and, 10 where subsection (2) applies, the person referred to in that subsection must be given a written statement of the reasons why those subsections were not complied with.

(b) A person to whom the statement was given may make submissions to the financial sector regulator within one month after being provided with the statement.

(c) The financial sector regulator must consider the submissions, and notify the 15 person, as soon as practicable, whether the financial sector regulator proposes to revoke the directive.

Period for compliance

147. A regulator's directive must specify a reasonable period for compliance, where applicable.

Revoking directives

148. A financial sector regulator may at any time revoke a regulator's directive it has issued by written notice to the person to whom it was issued.

Compliance with directives

149. (1) A financial institution, key person, representative or contractor to which a 25 regulator's directive in terms of this Part has been issued must comply with the directive.

(2) The High Court may, on application by a party to a contract with a financial institution, other than the financial institution, make an order relating to the effect of a directive in terms of this Part on the contract.

(3) (a) Without limiting what the order may do, the order may require the financial 30 institution to -

(i) perform its obligations under the contract; or

(ii) compensate the applicant, as specified in the order.

(b) An order in terms of paragraph (a) may not require a person to take action that would contravene the directive of a financial sector regulator. 35

Application and interpretation

150. This Part applies in addition to any power in a specific financial sector law that relates to the issuing of directives by a financial sector regulator.

Part 3

Enforceable undertakings

Enforceable undertakings

151. (1) A person may give a written undertaking to the responsible authority concerning that person's future conduct in relation to a matter regulated by a financial sector law, and that undertaking, upon its acceptance by the responsible authority, becomes enforceable by the responsible authority as contemplated in this Act.

(2) A written undertaking referred to in subsection (1) may include an undertaking to provide specified redress to financial customers.

(3) The person who gave an enforceable undertaking may, with the consent of the responsible authority, vary or withdraw the undertaking at any time, except if the undertaking is already a subject of enforcement.

(4) If a financial institution licensed under a specific financial sector law that gave an enforceable undertaking breaches a term of the undertaking, the responsible authority 5 may suspend or withdraw the licence.

(5) The responsible authority must publish each enforceable undertaking that it accepts, and each variation or withdrawal of an enforceable undertaking.

(6) If the Tribunal is satisfied, on application by the responsible authority, that a person has contravened an enforceable undertaking, the Tribunal may make any one or 10 more of the following orders:

- (a) An order directing the person to comply with the undertaking;
- (b) if the undertaking relates to a past contravention of the financial sector law, an order directing the person to perform a specified act, or refrain from performing a specified act, for one or both of the following purposes:
 - (i) to remedy the effects of the contravention;
 - (ii) to ensure that the person does not contravene the undertaking again;
- (c) any other incidental or relevant order.

(7) The responsible authority may file with the registrar of a competent court a certified copy of an order in terms of subsection (6), if - 20

- (a) the order has not been complied with; and
 - (b) either -
 - (i) no proceedings in a court in relation to the making of the order have been commenced by the end of the period for lodging such appeals; or
 - (ii) if such proceedings have been commenced, they have been finally 25 disposed of.

(8) The order, on being filed, has the effect of a civil judgment, and may be enforced as if lawfully given in that court.

Part 4

Court orders

Compliance with financial sector laws

152. (1) The responsible authority for a financial sector law may commence proceedings against a person in the High Court for an order to ensure compliance with the financial sector law.

- (2) The High Court may make an order in terms of subsection (1)—
- 35

45

(a) if it appears to the High Court that the person is engaging, or proposes to engage, in conduct contravening a financial sector law;

- (b) if the person has previously engaged in such conduct;
- (c) if there is a danger of substantial or irreparable damage, prejudice or harm if the person engages in conduct contravening a financial sector law; or 40
- (d) even if another remedy is available.

(3) The High Court may not require the responsible authority to give any undertaking as to damages in connection with the application for an order in terms of this section.

(4) The responsible authority must publish each court order, other than interlocutory orders, that it obtains in terms of this section.

Part 5

Debarment

Debarment

153. (1) The responsible authority for a financial sector law may make a debarment order in respect of a natural person if the person has—

(a) contravened a financial sector law in a material way;

15

30

45

160

- (b) contravened in a material way an enforceable undertaking that was accepted by the responsible authority in terms of section 151(1);
- (c) attempted, or conspired with, aided, abetted, induced, incited or procured another person to contravene a financial sector law in a material way; or
- (d) contravened in a material way a law of a foreign country that corresponds to 5 a financial sector law.

(2) A debarment order prohibits the natural person, for the period specified in the debarment order, from -

- (a) providing, or being involved in the provision of, specified financial products or financial services, generally or in circumstances specified in the order;
- (b) acting as a key person of a financial institution; or
- (c) providing specified services to a financial institution, whether under outsourcing arrangements or otherwise.

(3) A debarment order in respect of a natural person takes effect from-

- (a) the date on which it is served on the person; or
- (b) if the order specifies a later date, the later date.

(4) (a) A natural person who is subject to a debarment order may not engage in conduct that, directly or indirectly, contravenes the debarment order.

(b) Without limiting paragraph (a), a natural person who is subject to a debarment order contravenes that paragraph if the natural person enters into an arrangement with 20 another person to engage in the conduct that directly or indirectly contravenes a debarment order on behalf of, or in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of, the natural person who is subject to the debarment order.

(5) A licensed financial institution that becomes aware that a debarment order has been made in respect of a natural person employed or engaged by the financial 25 institution must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the debarment order is given effect to.

(6) The responsible authority that made a debarment order may, by order and on application by the debarred natural person—

(a) reduce the period of the debarment order; or

(b) revoke the debarment order.

(7) The responsible authority must publish each debarment order, and each order under subsection (6), that it makes.

Consultation requirements

154. (1) Before making a debarment order in respect of a natural person, the 35 responsible authority must—

- (a) give a draft of the debarment order to the person and to the other financial sector regulator, along with reasons for and other relevant information about the proposed debarment; and
- (b) invite the person to make submissions on the matter, and give the person a 40 reasonable period to do so.

(2) The period contemplated in terms of subsection (1)(b) must be at least one month.

(3) In deciding whether or not to make a debarment order in respect of a natural person, the responsible authority must take into account at least—

(a) any submission made by, or on behalf of, the person; and

(b) any advice from the other financial sector regulator.

Where person cannot be located

155. If a responsible authority after taking all reasonable steps, including through electronic means, cannot locate a person to be given a document or information under section 154 or a debarment order, delivering the document or information to the person's 50 last known e-mail or physical business or residential address will be sufficient.

Part 6

Leniency agreements

Leniency agreements

156. (1) The responsible authority for a financial sector law may, in exchange for a person's co-operation in an investigation or in proceedings in relation to conduct that 5 contravenes or may contravene that law, enter into a leniency agreement with the person, which may provide that the responsible authority undertakes not to impose an administrative penalty on the person in respect of the conduct.

(2) A leniency agreement with a person may provide that the agreement also applies to -

(a) specified persons in the service of, or acting on behalf of, the person; or

(b) specified partners and associates of the person.

(3) The responsible authority may not enter into a leniency agreement with a person unless it is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so, having regard, among other matters, to— 15

- (a) the nature and effect of the contravention concerned;
- (b) the nature and extent of the person's involvement in the contravention; and

(c) the extent of the person's co-operation.

(4) The responsible authority that enters into a leniency agreement must publish it, unless the responsible authority determines that the publication may—20

- (a) create an unjustifiable risk to the safety of a person; or
- (b) prejudice an investigation into a contravention of a law.

(5) The responsible authority that enters into a leniency agreement may, by notice to the person with whom it entered into the agreement, terminate the agreement—

- (a) if the person agrees;
- (b) if the person gave the responsible authority false or misleading information in relation to entering into the agreement;
- (c) if the person has failed to comply with the agreement; or
- (d) in circumstances specified in the agreement.

CHAPTER 11

SIGNIFICANT OWNERS

Part 1

Significant owners

Significant owners

157. (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), a person is a significant owner of a 35 financial institution if the person, directly or indirectly, alone or together with a related or inter-related person, has the ability to control or influence materially the business or strategy of the financial institution.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a person has the ability referred to in that subsection if - 40

- (a) the person, directly or indirectly, alone or together with a related or inter-related person, has the power to appoint 15% of the members of the governing body of the financial institution;
- (b) the consent of the person, alone or together with a related or inter-related person, is required for the appointment of 15% of the members of a governing 45 body of the financial institution; or
- (c) the person, directly or indirectly, alone or together with a related or inter-related person, holds a qualifying stake in the financial institution.

166 No. 41060

Act No. 9 of 2017

(3) The Minister, the Reserve Bank and a financial sector regulator are not, in those capacities, significant owners of a financial institution.

(4) (a) A financial sector regulator may, with the concurrence of the other financial sector regulator and on application, declare a person not to be a significant owner of —

- (i) an eligible financial institution;
- (ii) the manager of a collective investment scheme; or
- (iii) a financial institution prescribed in terms of Regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph.

(b) A financial sector regulator may not make a declaration or give its concurrence to a declaration in terms of paragraph (a), unless the financial sector regulator is satisfied 10 that—

- (i) the declaration will not prejudice the achievement of the financial sector regulator's objective as set out in either section 33 or 57; and
- (ii) it is not necessary to apply the requirements of this Chapter to the person.

(c) A financial sector regulator may, with the concurrence of the other financial sector 15 regulator, revoke a declaration that it made in terms of paragraph (a).

(d) Before a financial sector regulator revokes a declaration that was made in terms of paragraph (a), the financial sector regulator must—

- (i) give the person who has been declared not to be a significant owner a notice of the proposed action and a statement of the reasons for it; and 20
- (ii) invite the person to make submissions on the matter, and give the person a reasonable period to do so.

(e) The period referred to in paragraph (d)(ii) must be at least one month.

(f) In deciding whether to revoke a declaration, the financial sector regulators must take into account all submissions made within the period specified in the notice in terms 25 of paragraph (d)(ii).

(g) If the delay involved in complying, or complying fully, with paragraph (d) in respect of a proposed revocation is likely to prejudice financial customers, prejudicially affect financial stability or defeat the object of the revocation, the financial sector regulators may revoke the declaration without having complied, or complied fully, with 30 that paragraph.

(h) If the financial sector regulators revoke a declaration in terms of paragraph (a) without having complied, or complied fully, with paragraph (d) for the reason set out in paragraph (g), they must give the person a written statement of the reasons why paragraph (d) was not complied with.

(i) The person may make submissions to the financial sector regulator within one month after being provided with the statement.

(j) The financial sector regulators must consider the submissions, and notify the person, as soon as practicable, whether they propose to make another declaration in terms of paragraph (a) in relation to the person and the financial institution.

(k) A declaration, and a revocation of a declaration, in terms of this subsection must be published.

Approvals and notifications relating to significant owners

- 158. (1) For the purposes of this section, a financial institution refers only to-
 - (a) an eligible financial institution;

35

40

- (b) a manager of a collective investment scheme; and
- (c) a financial institution prescribed in Regulations made for the purposes of this section.

(2) A person may not effect any arrangement that will result in the person, alone or together with a related or inter-related person, becoming a significant owner of a 50 financial institution, without the prior written approval of the responsible authority for the financial sector law in terms of which the financial institution is required to be licensed.

(3) A significant owner of a financial institution—

(a) which has been designated as a systemically important financial institution, 55 may not, without having obtained the prior written approval of the responsible authority for the financial sector law in terms of which the financial institution is required to be licensed, effect any arrangement that will result in the person,

40

alone or together with a related or inter-related person, ceasing to be a significant owner of the financial institution; and

(b) which has not been designated as a systemically important financial institution, may not, without prior notification to the responsible authority for the financial sector law in terms of which the financial institution is required 5 to be licensed, effect any arrangement that will result in the person, alone or together with a related or inter-related person, ceasing to be a significant owner of the financial institution.

(4) A person may not effect any arrangement that will result in the person, alone or together with a related or inter-related person, increasing or decreasing the extent of the 10 ability of the person, alone or together with a related or inter-related person, to control or influence materially the business or strategy of the financial institution—

- (a) without having obtained the prior written approval of the responsible authority for the financial sector law in terms of which the financial institution is required to be licensed, if the responsible authority on granting of an 15 approval referred to in subsection (2), required its prior written approval of any such increase or decrease; or
- (b) without the prior notification to the responsible authority for the financial sector law in terms of which the financial institution is required to be licensed, if the responsible authority on granting of an approval referred to in 20 subsection (2), did not require its prior written approval of any such increase or decrease.

(5) An arrangement referred to in subsection (2), (3) or (4) need not involve the acquisition of, or disposition of, shares or other interests or property.

(6) If a person enters into an arrangement in contravention of subsection (2), (3) or 25 (4), the arrangement, in so far as it has an effect mentioned in the relevant subsection, is void.

(7) An approval in terms of subsection (2), (3) or (4) may not be given unless the responsible authority is satisfied that—

- (a) the person becoming a significant owner, or the arrangement, or any increase 30 or decrease in the extent of the ability of the significant owner to control or influence the business or strategy of the financial institution will not prejudicially affect or is not likely to affect the prudent management and the financial soundness of the financial institution; and
- (b) the person meets and is reasonably likely to continue to meet applicable fit and 35 proper person requirements.

(8) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority may not give approval in terms of subsection (2) or (4) in respect of an eligible financial institution that is a market infrastructure without the concurrence of the Prudential Authority and the Reserve Bank.

(9) A prudential standard, a conduct standard or a joint standard may prescribe procedures in respect of applications for approvals and notifications in terms of this section.

(10) This section does not affect any other requirement in terms of a financial sector law to obtain approval or consent in respect of an acquisition or disposal.

Standards in respect of, and regulator's directives to, significant owners

159. (1) In addition to the powers in Part 2 of Chapter 7 to make standards,—

- (a) a financial sector regulator must make standards, that must be complied with by significant owners of financial institutions, with respect to fit and proper person requirements, including in relation to—
 - (i) personal character qualities of honesty and integrity;
 - (ii) competence, including experience, qualifications and knowledge; and
 - (iii) financial standing; and
- (b) the financial sector regulators must make joint standards specifying what constitutes, "an increase or a decrease in the extent of the ability of the person, 55 alone or together with a related or inter-related person, to control or influence materially the business or strategy of the financial institution", as referred to in section 157(1) and section 158(4).

(2) (a) A financial sector regulator may issue to a significant owner of a financial institution a written directive requiring the significant owner to take action specified in the directive if the institution has contravened or is likely to contravene a financial sector 5 law for which the financial sector regulator is the responsible authority.

(b) A directive in terms of paragraph (a) must be aimed at stopping the institution from contravening the financial sector law, or reducing the risk of such a contravention.

(3) In addition to subsection (2), a financial sector regulator may issue a directive to a significant owner of a financial institution, and to the financial institution, requiring 10 them—

(a) to prepare and submit to the financial sector regulator a plan that is satisfactory to the financial sector regulator, under which the significant owner will, within a period that is acceptable to the financial sector regulator, cease to be a significant owner of the financial institution; and

40

(b) on the financial sector regulator's approval of the plan, to implement the plan.

CHAPTER 12

FINANCIAL CONGLOMERATES

Designation of financial conglomerates

160. (1) The Prudential Authority may designate members of a group of companies as 20 a financial conglomerate.

(2) A financial conglomerate designated in terms of subsection (1) must include both an eligible financial institution and a holding company of the eligible financial institution, but need not include all the members of the group of companies.

(3) Without detracting from section 3(3) and (4) of the Promotion of Administrative 25 Justice Act, and despite section 3(5) of that Act, before designating members of a group of companies as a financial conglomerate in terms of subsection (1), the Prudential Authority must—

- (a) give the holding company of the eligible financial institution notice of the proposed designation and a statement of the purpose of and the reasons why 30 the designation is proposed; and
- (b) invite the holding company to make submissions on the matter, and give a reasonable period to do so.

(4) The Prudential Authority must consult the Financial Sector Conduct Authority in connection with any designation in terms of subsection (1).

(5) A designation in terms of subsection (1) must be for the purpose of facilitating the prudential supervision of the eligible financial institution.

(6) In deciding whether to designate members of a group of companies as a financial conglomerate in terms of subsection (1), the Prudential Authority must take into account all relevant considerations, including at least the following:

- (a) The risk to effective prudential supervision of the eligible financial institution from the structure of the group of companies;
- (b) submissions made by or for the holding company; and
- (c) any other matters that may be prescribed by Regulation.

(7) The Prudential Authority may designate members of a group of companies as a 45 financial conglomerate in terms of subsection (1) without having complied, or complied fully, with subsection (3) if it is reasonable and justifiable in the circumstances as contemplated in section 3(4)(a) and (b) of the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act and the delay involved in complying, or complying fully, with that subsection in respect of a proposed action is likely to lead to material prejudice to financial customers, 50 prejudicially affect financial stability or defeat the object of the designation.

170

(8) (a) If the Prudential Authority designates members of a group of companies as a financial conglomerate in terms of subsection (1) without having complied, or complied fully, with subsection (3), the holding company of the designated financial conglomerate must be given a written statement of the reasons why that subsection was not complied with.

(b) The holding company may make submissions to the Prudential Authority within one month after being provided with the statement.

(c) The Prudential Authority must have regard to the submissions, and notify the holding company, as soon as practicable, whether the Prudential Authority proposes to amend or revoke the designation.

(9) The Prudential Authority must continually reassess designations made, or any decision not to make a designation, in terms of subsection (1), and consider making a designation or reconsider the terms of any designation made if the Prudential Authority becomes aware of a change in the risk profile of the members of a group of companies or a designated financial conglomerate.

(10) (a) Without detracting from section 3(3) and (4) of the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act, and despite section 3(5) of that Act, the Prudential Authority may amend or revoke a designation in terms of subsection (1) by notice to—

- (i) the holding company of a financial conglomerate; and
- (ii) any companies that are not currently designated as part of a financial 20 conglomerate, but which it is proposed to include as part of a currently designated financial conglomerate.
- (b) A notice referred to in paragraph (a) must-
- (i) include a statement of the purpose of and the reasons why the amendment to or revocation of the designation is proposed; and
- (ii) invite the entities referred to in paragraph (a) to make submissions on the matter, and give a reasonable period to do so.

(11) The Prudential Authority must publish each designation made in terms of this section, and each amendment and revocation of a designation.

Notification by eligible financial institution

161. (1) An eligible financial institution must, within 30 days of becoming part of a group of companies, notify the Prudential Authority of that event.

(2) A notification in terms of subsection (1) must be in the form determined by the Prudential Authority, completed in accordance with the instructions on the form, and be accompanied by any information that the Prudential Authority may determine.

(3) If an eligible financial institution contravenes subsection (1), the holding company of the financial institution commits the same contravention.

Licensing requirements for holding companies of financial conglomerates

162. (1) (a) The Prudential Authority may, by notice to a holding company of a financial conglomerate, require the holding company to be licensed in terms of this Act. 40 (b) A notice referred to in paragraph (a) must—

- (i) include a statement of the purpose of and the reasons why the requirement for the holding company to be licensed is proposed; and
- (ii) invite the holding company to make submissions on the matter, and give a reasonable period to do so.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a holding company that is licensed in terms of a financial sector law.

(3) A requirement in terms of subsection (1) must be for the purpose of enabling the Prudential Authority to exercise its powers with respect to the financial conglomerate, to enhance the safety and soundness of the eligible financial institution.

(4) A holding company given a notice in terms of subsection (1) must comply with the requirements of the notice.

45

50

20

30

172

(5) (a) If—

- (i) the Prudential Authority gives a holding company a notice in terms of subsection (1); or
- (ii) a holding company is licensed in terms of a financial sector law, each other member of the group of companies in the financial conglomerate, including 5 the eligible financial institution, must, on demand by the holding company, provide any information to the holding company that is needed to enable the holding company to comply with its obligations in terms of this Act or a specific financial sector law.

(b) To give effect to paragraph (a), a holding company of a financial conglomerate must impose binding corporate rules on, or enter into a binding agreement with, 10 members of the conglomerate, that includes terms regarding the processing of information, including personal information, within the financial conglomerate.

Non-operating holding companies of financial conglomerates

163. (1) (a) The Prudential Authority may, by notice to a holding company of a financial conglomerate, require that the holding company be a non-operating company. 15

- (b) A notice referred to in paragraph (a) must –
- (i) include a statement of the purpose of and the reasons why the requirement for the holding company to be a non-operating company is proposed; and
- (ii) invite the holding company to make submissions on the matter, and give a reasonable period to do so.

(2) A requirement in terms of subsection (1) must be for the purpose of managing more effectively risks to the safety and soundness of the eligible financial institution arising from the other members of the financial conglomerate.

(3) In deciding whether to impose a requirement that a holding company be a non-operating company in terms of subsection (1), the Prudential Authority must take 25 into account all relevant considerations, including at least the following:

- (a) The risks to the safety and soundness of the eligible financial institution arising from the other members of the financial conglomerate;
- (b) submissions made by or for the holding company; and
- (c) any other matters that may be prescribed by Regulation.

(4) A holding company that is given a notice in terms of subsection (1) must comply with the requirements of the notice.

Standards for financial conglomerates

164. (1) The power of the Prudential Authority to make prudential standards extends to making prudential standards that must be complied with by holding companies of 35 financial conglomerates.

(2) In addition to the matters referred to in sections 105 and 108, a prudential standard contemplated in subsection (1) may include requirements with respect to—

- (a) financial or other exposures of companies within financial conglomerates;
- (b) the governance and management arrangements for holding companies of 40 financial conglomerates;
- (c) reporting of information about companies within financial conglomerates that are not financial institutions; and
- (d) reducing or managing risks to the safety and soundness of an eligible financial institution arising from the other members of the financial conglomerate.

45

(3) The power of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority to make conduct standards extends to making such standards to be complied with by holding companies of financial conglomerates.

174

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

Directives to holding companies

165. (1) The power of the Prudential Authority to issue a directive in terms of section 143 extends to issuing a directive to the holding company of a financial conglomerate imposing requirements on the holding company to manage and otherwise mitigate risks to the prudent management or financial soundness of an eligible financial institution in 5 the conglomerate arising from other members of the conglomerate.

(2) (a) Requirements that a directive contemplated in subsection (1) may impose, include requirements with respect to restructuring the financial conglomerate in accordance with a plan submitted to the Prudential Authority by the holding company, and approved by the Prudential Authority within a period agreed by the Prudential 10 Authority.

(b) The Prudential Authority may only issue a directive imposing requirements with respect to restructuring the financial conglomerate if the Authority is objectively satisfied that another type of directive will not achieve the result sought to be attained by requiring restructuring of the financial conglomerate.

(c) In deciding whether to issue a directive imposing requirements with respect to restructuring the financial conglomerate, the Prudential Authority must take into account all relevant considerations, including at least the following:

- (i) The extent to which the existing structure of the financial conglomerate is hindering or is likely to hinder the effective supervision of the financial 20 conglomerate concerned;
- (ii) whether the restructuring of the financial conglomerate is reasonably necessary and appropriate to remedy impediments to the effective supervision of the financial conglomerate; and
- (iii) submissions made by or for the holding company.

15

(3) The power of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority to issue a directive in terms of section 144 extends to issuing a directive to the holding company of a financial conglomerate requiring the holding company to ensure that a financial institution in the conglomerate complies with a financial sector law for which the Financial Sector Conduct Authority is the responsible authority.

Approval and prior notification of acquisitions and disposals

166. (1) (a) A holding company of a financial conglomerate may not acquire or dispose of a material asset as defined in prudential standards made for this section, without the approval of the Prudential Authority.

(b) A prudential standard made under this subsection must clearly identify what 35 constitutes a material asset.

(2) The Prudential Authority may not give an approval in terms of subsection (1), unless the Authority is satisfied that the acquisition or disposal will not prejudicially affect—

- (a) the prudent management and the financial soundness of an eligible financial 40 institution within the financial conglomerate;
- (b) the ability of the Prudential Authority to determine
 - (i) how the different types of business of the financial conglomerate are conducted;
 - (ii) the risks of the financial conglomerate and each person that is part of that 45 financial conglomerate; or
 - (iii) the manner in which the governance framework is organised and conducted for the financial conglomerate.

(3) (a) If the Prudential Authority contemplates refusing to grant approval of an acquisition or disposal referred to in subsection (1), prior to taking a decision, the 50 Prudential Authority must notify the holding company of the proposed refusal to grant approval.

(b) A notice referred to in paragraph (a) must—

(i) include a statement of the reasons for the refusal to grant approval; and

176

(ii) invite the holding company to make submissions on the matter, and give a reasonable period to do so.

(4) In deciding whether to grant or refuse a request for approval in terms of subsection (1), the Prudential Authority must take into account all relevant considerations, including at least the following:

- (a) Whether the acquisition or disposal will not prejudicially affect the matters referred to in subsection (2); and
- (b) submissions made in relation to the application for approval, including any submissions made in response to a request for submissions referred to in subsection (3).

(5) An acquisition or disposal in contravention of subsection (1) is void.

CHAPTER 13

ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES

Administrative penalties

167. (1) The responsible authority for a financial sector law may, by order served on 15 a person, impose on the person an appropriate administrative penalty, that must be paid to the financial sector regulator, if the person—

- (a) has contravened a financial sector law; or
- (b) has contravened an enforceable undertaking accepted by the responsible authority. 20

(2) In determining an appropriate administrative penalty for particular conduct-

- (a) the matters that the responsible authority must have regard to include the following:
 - (i) The need to deter such conduct;
 - (ii) the degree to which the person has co-operated with a financial sector 25 regulator in relation to the contravention; and
 - (iii) any submissions by, or on behalf of, the person that is relevant to the matter, including mitigating factors referred to in those submissions; and
- (b) without limiting paragraph (a), the matters that the responsible authority may have regard to include the following: 30
 - (i) The nature, duration, seriousness and extent of the contravention;
 - (ii) any loss or damage suffered by any person as a result of the conduct;
 - (iii) the extent of any financial or commercial benefit to the person, or a juristic person related to the person, arising from the conduct;
 - (iv) whether the person has previously contravened a financial sector law; 35
 - (v) the effect of the conduct on the financial system and financial stability;
 - (vi) the effect of the proposed penalty on financial stability;
 - (vii) the extent to which the conduct was deliberate or reckless.

(3) An administrative penalty may include an amount to reimburse the responsible authority for reasonable costs incurred by the responsible authority in connection with 40 the contravention.

(4) The responsible authority may not impose an administrative penalty on a person if a prosecution of the person for an offence arising out of the same set of facts has been commenced.

(5) An administrative penalty order is not a previous conviction as contemplated in 45 Chapter 27 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977).

(6) The responsible authority that makes an administrative penalty order must publish the order.

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

178

Payment

168. An amount payable in terms of an administrative penalty order is due and payable as set out in Regulations made for this Chapter.

Interest

169. Interest, at the rate prescribed for the time being in terms of the Prescribed Rate 5 of Interest Act, 1975 (Act No. 55 of 1975), is payable in respect of the unpaid portion of the amount payable as an administrative penalty until it is fully paid.

Enforcement

170. (1) The responsible authority that makes an administrative penalty order may file with the registrar of a competent court a certified copy of the order if - 10

- (a) the amount payable in terms of the order has not been paid as required by the order; and
- (b) either-
 - (i) no application for reconsideration of the order in terms of a financial sector law, or for judicial review in terms of the Promotion of 15 Administrative Justice Act of the Tribunal's decision, has been lodged by the end of the period for making such applications; or
 - (ii) if such an application has been made, proceedings on the application have been finally disposed of.

(2) The order, on being filed, has the effect of a civil judgment, and may be enforced 20 as if lawfully given in that court.

Application of amounts paid as administrative penalties

171. All amounts recovered by a responsible authority as administrative penalties must be applied—

- (a) first, to reimburse the responsible authority for its costs and expenses 25 reasonably and properly incurred in connection with the relevant contravention, making the order and enforcing it; and
- (b) then, the balance after applying the amount in accordance with paragraph (a) must be paid into the National Revenue Fund.

Administrative penalty taken into account in sentencing

30

172. When determining the sentence to impose on a person convicted of an offence in terms of a financial sector law, a court must take into account any administrative penalty order made in respect of the same set of facts.

Remission of administrative penalties

173. The responsible authority that imposed an administrative penalty on a person 35 may, on application by the person, by order, remit all or some of the administrative penalty, and all or some of the interest payable in terms of section 169.

Prohibition of indemnity for administrative penalties

174. (1) Except in circumstances prescribed by a joint standard, a person may not undertake to indemnify or compensate another person, directly or indirectly, wholly or 40 partly, in respect of a payment made or liability incurred by the other person in connection with an administrative penalty order imposed on the other person.

(2) An undertaking in terms of subsection (1) is void.

CHAPTER 14

OMBUDS

Part 1

Ombud Council

20

40

45

175. (1) The Ombud Council is hereby established.

(2) The Ombud Council is a juristic person.

(3) The Ombud Council is a national public entity for the purposes of the Public Finance Management Act, and notwithstanding section 49(2) of the Public Finance Management Act, the Chairperson of the Ombud Council is the accounting authority of 10 the Ombud Council for the purposes of that Act.

Objective

176. The objective of the Ombud Council is to assist in ensuring that financial customers have access to, and are able to use, affordable, effective, independent and fair alternative dispute resolution processes for complaints about financial institutions in 15 relation to financial products, financial services, and services provided by market infrastructures.

Functions of Ombud Council

177. (1) In order to achieve its objective, the Ombud Council must—

- (a) recognise, in accordance with this Chapter, industry ombud schemes;
- (b) promote co-operation between, and co-ordination of, the activities of ombuds;
- (c) strive to protect the independence and impartiality of ombuds;
- (d) promote public awareness of ombuds and ombud schemes and the services they provide;
- (e) take steps to facilitate access by financial customers to appropriate ombuds; 25
- (f) publicise ombud schemes, including publicising the kinds of complaints that different ombud schemes deal with;
- (g) resolve, in accordance with this Act, overlaps of the jurisdictional coverage of different ombud schemes;
- (h) monitor the performance of ombud schemes, including the extent to which 30 they comply with the requirements of this Chapter and specific financial sector laws; and
- (i) support financial inclusion.

(2) The Ombud Council must also perform any other function conferred on it in terms of any other provision of this Act or other applicable legislation. 35

(3) The Ombud Council may do anything else reasonably necessary to achieve its objective.

(4) The Ombud Council must perform its functions without fear, favour or prejudice.

Overall governance objective

178. The Ombud Council must-

- (a) manage its affairs in an efficient and effective way; and
- (b) establish and implement appropriate and effective governance systems and processes.

Board of Ombud Council

179. (1) A Board for the Ombud Council is hereby established.

- (2) The Board consists of-
 - (a) the Chief Ombud;

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

182

(b) the Commissioner; and (c) at least four, but not more than six, other members. (3) The Commissioner does not have a vote on a question being considered by the Board. 5 Appointment of Board members 180. (1) The members of the Board are appointed by the Minister. (2) (a) The Minister must appoint a member as Chairperson and another member as Deputy Chairperson. (b) The Commissioner and the Chief Ombud may not be appointed as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson. 10 (3) The Deputy Chairperson acts as Chairperson when the Chairperson is absent from office or is otherwise unable to perform his or her functions. (4) A person may not be appointed to, or hold office as, a member of the Board if the person is-15 (a) an ombud; (b) a member of the governing body or staff of an ombud scheme; (c) a member of the staff of the Ombud Council; (d) a disqualified person; (e) not ordinarily resident in the Republic; or 20 engaged in-(f)(i) the business of a financial institution; or (ii) the provision of financial products or financial services to financial customers. Terms of office of Board members 25 181. (1) A person appointed as a member of the Board-(a) holds office for a term of no longer than five years, as the Minister may determine; (b) is, at the expiry of that term of office, eligible for re-appointment for one further term; and (c) must vacate office before the expiry of a term of office if that person-30 (i) resigns by giving at least three months written notice to the Minister, or a shorter period that the Minister may accept; or (ii) is removed from office. (2) The Minister must, at least three months before the end of a person's first term of office, inform the person whether or not the Minister intends to re-appoint the person as 35 a member of the Board. Service conditions of Board members 182. A member of the Board holds office on the terms and conditions, including terms and conditions relating to remuneration, that are determined by the Minister. Removal of Board members 40 183. (1) The Minister must, subject to due process, remove a member of the Board from office if the member becomes a disqualified person. (2) The Minister may remove a member of the Board from office if an independent inquiry established by the Minister has found that the member-(a) is unable to perform the duties of office for health or other reasons;

- (b) has failed in a material way to discharge any of the responsibilities of office; or
- (c) has acted in a way that is inconsistent with continuing to hold the office.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2)(b), a member of the Board must be taken to have failed in a material way to discharge the responsibilities of office if he or she is absent 50 from two consecutive meetings of the Board without the leave of the Board.

184

(4) If an independent inquiry has been established in terms of subsection (2), the Minister may suspend the member of the Board from office pending a decision on that person's removal from office.

(5) If a member of the Board is removed from office in terms of subsection (2), the Minister must submit the report and findings of the independent inquiry to the National 5 Assembly.

Role of Board

184. The Board must—

- (a) generally oversee the management and administration of the Ombud Council in order to ensure that it is efficient and effective; 10
- (b) appoint members of committees of the Ombud Council required or permitted by a law, and give directions regarding the conduct of the work of any committee;
- (c) make determinations of fees in terms of a financial sector law;
- (d) keep the Minister informed of
 - (i) compliance by ombud schemes with the financial sector laws in so far as they relate to ombud schemes;
 - trends in the nature of complaints and issues raised in complaints that ombud schemes are dealing with, and how those types of issues and complaints are being dealt with; and
 - (iii) the conduct of financial institutions that is giving rise to complaints to ombud schemes;
- (e) keep the financial sector regulators informed of the conduct of financial institutions that is giving rise to complaints to ombud schemes; and
- (f) address any other matter assigned in terms of a financial sector law to the 25 Board.

Meetings of Board

185. (1) (a) The Board must meet on a quarterly basis or as often as necessary for the performance of its functions.

(b) An audio or audio-visual conference among a majority of the members of the 30 Board, which enables each participating member to hear and be heard by each of the other participating members, must be regarded to be a meeting of the Board, and each participating member must be regarded as being present at such a meeting.

(2) Meetings of the Board are to be at times and, except where subsection (1)(b) applies, at places determined by the Chairperson. 35

(3) A quorum for a meeting of the Board is a majority of its members.

(4) (a) The Chairperson chairs the meetings of the Board at which the Chairperson is present.

(b) If the Chairperson is not present at a meeting, the Deputy Chairperson chairs the meeting.

(5) The person chairing a meeting of the Board may invite or allow any other person to attend a meeting of the Board, but a person who is invited has no right to vote at the meeting.

(6) The members may regulate proceedings at Board meetings as they consider appropriate.

(7) The Chairperson must ensure that minutes of each meeting of the Board are kept in a manner determined by the Chairperson.

Decisions of Board

186. (1) (a) A proposal before a meeting of the Board becomes a decision of the Board if a majority of the members who are present or regarded as being present, and who may 50 vote, vote for the proposal.

(b) In the event of an equality of votes on a proposal, the person chairing the meeting has a casting vote in addition to a deliberative vote.

(2) The Board may, in accordance with procedures determined by the Board, make a decision on a proposal outside a meeting of the Board. 55

(3) A decision of the Board is not invalid merely because –

(a) there was a vacancy in the office of a member when the decision was taken; or

(b) a person who was not a member participated in the decision, but did not vote.

Governance and other committees of Ombud Council

187. (1) The Board must establish—

- (a) a committee to review, monitor and advise the Board on the remuneration policy of the Ombud Council; and
- (b) a committee to review, monitor and advise the Board on the risks faced by the Ombud Council and plans for managing those risks.

(2) (a) The Board may establish one or more other committees for the Ombud 10 Council, with membership and functions as determined by the Board.

(b) A committee may include persons who are not members of the Board.

(3) A disqualified person may not be, or remain, a member of a committee.

(4) A member of a committee holds office for the period, and on the terms and conditions, including, in the case of a person who is not in the service of an organ of 15 state, terms regarding remuneration, determined by the Board.

(5) (a) A committee established in terms of subsection (1) or section 51(1)(a)(ii) of the Public Finance Management Act must be chaired by a person who is not the Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson or a staff member of the Ombud Council.

(b) The majority of the members of that committee may not be staff members of the 20 Ombud Council.

(6) A committee determines its procedure, subject to any directions that may be issued by the Board.

(7) The Chief Ombud must ensure that minutes of each meeting of a committee are kept in a manner determined by the Board. 25

Chief Ombud

188. (1) The Minister must appoint a Chief Ombud, and the person appointed as such must agree with the Minister, in writing, on -

- (a) the performance measures that must be used to assess the person's performance; and
- (b) the level of performance to be achieved against those measures.

(2) Subject to this Act, the Chief Ombud holds office on the terms and conditions, including terms and conditions relating to remuneration, pension, leave and other benefits, that are determined by the Board and specified in an employment contract between the Chief Ombud and the Ombud Council.

(3) The Chief Ombud—

- (a) is responsible for the day-to-day management and administration of the Ombud Council; and
- (b) must perform the functions of the Ombud Council, except those mentioned in section 184(b) and (c), including exercising the powers and carrying out the 40 duties associated with those functions.

(4) (a) The Chief Ombud must convene meetings of the ombuds on a regular basis, but at least four times a year, to discuss the effective operation of the ombuds system.

(b) The Chief Ombud, or, in the absence of the Chief Ombud, a person appointed by the Chief Ombud, chairs meetings of the ombuds;

(c) If three ombuds request the Chief Ombud in writing to convene a meeting of the Ombud Council, a meeting of the ombuds must be convened.

(5) When acting in terms of subsection (3), the Chief Ombud must implement the policies and strategies adopted by the Board.

Duties of Board members

189. (1) A member of the Board must—

(a) act honestly in all matters relating to the Ombud Council; and

50

30

- (b) perform his or her functions as a member—
 - (i) in good faith;
 - (ii) for a proper purpose; and
 - (iii) with the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable person in the member's position would exercise.
- (2) A person who is or was a member of the Board may not use that position, or any information obtained as a member of the Board, to-
 - (a) improperly benefit himself, herself or another person;
 - (b) impede the Ombud Council's ability to perform its functions; or
 - (c) cause improper detriment to another person.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "benefit" and "detriment" are not limited to financial benefit or detriment.

Delegations

190. (1) The Chief Ombud may, in writing-

- (a) delegate any of his or her powers or duties in terms of a financial sector law, 15 except the power to delegate contained in this subsection, to a staff member of the Ombud Council; and
- (b) at any time, amend or revoke a delegation made in terms of paragraph (a), subject to any rights that may have accrued.

(2) A delegation in terms of subsection (1) may be to a specific person or to a person 20 holding a specific position.

- (3) A delegation in terms this section—
 - (a) is subject to the limitations and conditions specified in the delegation; and
 - (b) does not divest the Chief Ombud of responsibility in respect of the delegated power or duty.25

(4) Anything done by a delegate in terms of the delegation must be regarded as having been done by the Ombud Council.

Staff and resources

- 191. (1) The Ombud Council may, in accordance with applicable law-
 - (a) engage persons as employees;
 - (b) enter into secondment arrangements;
 - (c) engage persons on contract otherwise than as employees;
 - (d) enter into contracts;
 - (e) acquire and dispose of property;
 - (f) insure itself against any loss, damage, risk or liability that it may suffer or 35 incur; and
 - (g) do anything else necessary for the performance of its functions.

(2) The Ombud Council may not enter into a secondment arrangement in respect of a person, or engage persons as employees or on contract, unless the person and the Ombud Council have agreed in writing, on—

- (a) the performance measures that must be used to assess that person's performance; and
- (b) the level of performance to be achieved against those measures.

Duties of staff members

192. (1) A person who is or was a staff member of the Ombud Council may not use 45 that position or any information obtained as a staff member to—

(a) improperly benefit himself, herself or another person;

- (b) impede the Ombud Council's ability to perform its functions; or
- (c) cause improper detriment to another person.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "benefit" and "detriment" are not limited to 50 financial benefit or detriment.

Disclosure of interests

193. (1) A member of the Board must disclose, at a meeting of the Board, or in writing to each of the other members, any interest in a matter that is being or will be considered by him or her, whether or not at a meeting of the Board, being an interest that—

(a) the member has; or

(b) a person who is a related party to the member has.

(2) A disclosure in terms of subsection (1) must be given as soon as practicable after the member concerned becomes aware of the interest.

(3) A member referred to in subsection (1) may not perform a function in relation to the matter concerned unless— 10

(a) the member has disclosed the interest in accordance with subsection (1); and
(b) the other members of the Board have decided that the interest cannot be seen as affecting the member's proper execution of his or her functions in relation to the matter.

(4) A member of a committee of the Ombud Council established in terms of section 15 51(1)(a)(ii) of the Public Finance Management Act or section 187(1) of this Act must disclose, at a meeting of the committee, or in writing to each of the other members of that committee, any interest in a matter that is being or is intended to be considered by that committee, being an interest that—

(a) the member has; or

(b) a person who is a related party to the member has.

(5) A disclosure in terms of subsection (4) must be given as soon as practicable after the member concerned becomes aware of the interest.

(6) A person referred to in subsection (1) or (4) may not participate in the consideration of, or decision on, that matter by the Board or the committee, as the case 25 may be, unless—

- (a) the person has disclosed the interest in accordance with subsection (1) or (4); and
- (b) the other members of the Board or that committee have decided that the interest cannot be seen as affecting the member's proper execution of his or 30 her functions in relation to the matter.

(7) (a) Each member of the Ombud Council's staff and each other person involved in the performance of the functions or the exercise of the powers of the Ombud Council must make timely, proper and adequate disclosure of their interests, including the interests of a related party, that could reasonably be seen as interests that may affect the 35 proper execution of their functions of office or a delegated power.

(b) The Chief Ombud must ensure that paragraph (a) is complied with.

- (8) For the purposes of this section, it does not matter—
 - (a) whether an interest is direct, indirect, pecuniary or non-pecuniary; or
 - (b) when the interest was acquired.

(9) For the purposes of this section, a person does not have to disclose—

- (a) the fact that that person, or a person who is a related party to that person, is—
 (i) an official or employee of the Ombud Council; or
 - (ii) a financial customer of a financial institution; or
- (b) an interest that is not material.

(10) The Chief Ombud must maintain a register of all disclosures made in terms of this section and of all decisions made in terms of this section.

Part 2

Recognition of industry ombud schemes

Recognition of industry ombud schemes

194. (1) The Ombud Council may, on application by an industry ombud scheme, recognise the industry ombud scheme for the purposes of this Act. (2) An application in terms of subsection (1) must—

- (a) have a writing in a form approved or accorded by the Or
- (a) be in writing, in a form approved or accepted by the Ombud Council; and
- (b) include or be accompanied by—
 - (i) a copy of the governing rules of the industry ombud scheme;

192

- (ii) a list of financial institutions that shall be members of the industry ombud scheme should it be recognised; and
- (iii) any other information required in the form.

Requirement for further information or documents by Ombud Council

195. (1) The Ombud Council may, by notice in writing, require an applicant for 5 recognition—

- (a) to give the Ombud Council additional information or documents specified by the Ombud Council; and
- (b) to verify any information given by the applicant in connection with the application in a manner specified by the Ombud Council.10

(2) The Ombud Council need not deal further with the application until the applicant has complied with the notice contemplated in subsection (1).

Determination of applications

196. (1) The Ombud Council must determine an application for recognition in terms of section 194 by—

15

(a) granting the application and notifying the applicant accordingly; or

(b) refusing the application and notifying the applicant accordingly.

(2) The Ombud Council may grant an application for recognition subject to conditions specified by the Ombud Council.

(3) The Ombud Council must not recognise an industry ombud scheme unless 20 satisfied that—

- (a) a significant number of relevant financial institutions shall be members of the industry ombud scheme, should it be recognised;
- (b) the governing rules of the industry ombud scheme—
 - (i) identify the financial products or financial services to which the industry 25 ombud scheme relates, or in the case of a market infrastructure, the services that it provides;
 - (ii) require the members of the industry ombud scheme to inform financial customers about the scheme and how to contact and complain to the scheme, at the frequency agreed by the scheme for its members; 30
 - (iii) make adequate and appropriate provision for making complaints;
 - (iv) are legally binding on the members of the industry ombud scheme, and enforceable by the governing body of the industry ombud scheme;
 - (v) require each member of the industry ombud scheme to comply with, and give effect to, any determination of the ombud made in terms of the 35 industry ombud scheme;
 - (vi) make adequate provision for monitoring and oversight of the operation of the industry ombud scheme, including in respect of the terms and conditions of the engagement of the ombud, including remuneration and other benefits, and any action to terminate that engagement;
 40
 - (vii) require the ombud to apply, where appropriate, principles of equity when dealing with a complaint; and
 - (viii) otherwise comply with applicable Ombud Council rules;
- (c) the ombud scheme has or has available to it sufficient resources and capacity to ensure that it is able to comply with the requirements of financial sector 45 laws in relation to ombud schemes and any conditions that may be specified in terms of subsection (2); and
- (d) recognising the industry ombud scheme will not be contrary to the interests of financial customers, the financial sector or the public interest.

(4) (a) The Ombud Council must determine an application as contemplated in 50 subsection (1) within three months after it is made.

(b) In working out when the period mentioned in paragraph (a) expires, any period between the Ombud Council giving the applicant a notice in terms of section 195 and the requirements in the notice being satisfied is not to be counted.

Act No. 9 of 2017

Varying conditions

197. (1) The Ombud Council may, by notice to a recognised industry ombud scheme, remove or vary a condition of recognition, or add a condition.

(2) A variation takes effect on the date of the notice in terms of subsection (1) or, if the notice specifies a later date, the later date.

Suspension of recognition

198. (1) The Ombud Council may, by notice to a recognised industry ombud scheme, suspend the recognition of the scheme if—

- (a) the industry ombud scheme applies for suspension;
- (b) a condition of recognition has been contravened or not been complied with in 10 a material way;
- (c) the industry ombud scheme, an ombud for the industry ombud scheme, or a significant number of the financial institutions that are members of the industry ombud scheme, have contravened in a material way the governing rules of the industry ombud scheme, a provision of a financial sector law 15 relating to ombuds or Ombud Council rules;
- (d) information provided in, or in relation to, an application to the Ombud Council in relation to the industry ombud scheme was false or misleading, including by omission, in a material way;
- (e) the industry ombud scheme is not complying with a requirement of this Act; 20
- (f) the suspension is necessary to prevent—
 - (i) a serious contravention of a financial sector law; or
 - (ii) financial customers of the members of the industry ombud scheme from suffering material prejudice; or
- (g) a fee, a levy or an administrative penalty payable by the industry ombud 25 scheme, including any interest, is unpaid and has been unpaid for at least 30 days after it is due.

(2) The Ombud Council may at any time revoke the suspension.

(3) A suspension takes effect on the date of the notice in terms of subsection (1), or a later date specified in the notice.

(4) A suspension does not affect an obligation of the industry ombud scheme that it has in terms of a financial sector law, including an obligation to report a matter to the Ombud Council.

Revocation of recognition

199. (1) The Ombud Council may, by notice to a recognised industry ombud scheme, 35 revoke the recognition of an industry ombud scheme—

- (a) if the industry ombud scheme applies for revocation;
- (b) on any of the bases on which it may suspend recognition, as set out in section 198(1)(b) to (g); or
- (c) if the scheme has ceased to function.

(2) Revocation of recognition takes effect on the date of the notice in terms of subsection (1) or, if the notice specifies a later date, the later date.

Procedure for varying, suspending and revoking recognition

200. (1) (a) Before the Ombud Council varies a condition of, or suspends or revokes, the recognition of a recognised industry ombud scheme, it must—

- (i) give the industry ombud scheme notice of the proposed action and a statement of the reasons for it; and
- (ii) invite the industry ombud scheme to make submissions on the matter, and give it a reasonable period to do so.
- (b) The period referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) must be at least one month.

(2) The Ombud Council need not comply with subsection (1) if the industry ombud scheme has applied for the proposed action to be taken.

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

(3) In deciding whether to vary a condition of, or suspend or revoke, recognition, the Ombud Council must have regard to all submissions made within the period specified in the notice in terms of subsection (1)(a)(ii).

(4) The Ombud Council may take the action without having complied, or complied fully, with subsection (1) if the delay involved in complying, or complying fully, with 5 that subsection in respect of a proposed action is likely to lead to material prejudice to financial customers or defeat the object of the action.

(5)(a) If the Ombud Council takes action without having complied, or complied fully, with subsection (1) for the reason set out in subsection (4), the industry ombud scheme must be given a written statement of the reasons why that subsection was not complied 10 with.

(b) The industry ombud scheme may make submissions to the Ombud Council within one month after being provided with the statement.

(c) The Ombud Council must have regard to the submissions, and notify the industry ombud scheme, as soon as practicable, whether the Ombud Council proposes to amend 15 or revoke the variation, suspension or revocation.

Part 3

Powers of Ombud Council

Ombud Council rules

201. (1) The Ombud Council may make rules for, or in respect of, ombuds and ombud 20 schemes, aimed at ensuring that financial customers have access to, and are able to use affordable and effective, independent and fair alternative dispute resolution processes for complaints about financial institutions in relation to financial products, financial services, and services provided by market infrastructures.

(2) Ombud Council rules in terms of subsection (1) may be made on any of the 25 following matters:

(a) Governing rules of ombud schemes;

- (b) governance of ombud schemes, including in relation to-
 - (i) the composition, membership and operation of governing bodies and of substructures of ombud schemes; and (ii) the roles and responsibilities of governing bodies and their substructures;

30

- (c) the qualifications and experience of ombuds, including fit and proper person requirements for ombuds and for members of governing bodies of industry ombud schemes:
- (d) the definition and type of complaints to be dealt with by specified ombud 35 schemes:
- (e) dispute resolution processes;
- any matters on which a regulatory instrument may be issued by the Ombud (f) Council in terms of a specific financial sector law in so far as it relates to ombud schemes and ombuds;
- 40
- (g) matters that may in terms of any other provision of this Act be regulated by rules of the Ombud Council; and
- (h) any other matter that is appropriate and necessary for achieving the aim set out in subsection (1).

(3) An Ombud Council rule must not be inconsistent with relevant financial sector 45 laws.

(4) An Ombud Council rule must not interfere with the independence of an ombud or the investigation or determination of a specific complaint.

(5) The Ombud Council must, in developing Ombud Council rules—

- (a) seek to provide for a consistent approach and consistent requirements for all 50 ombud schemes, promote the efficiency and cost-effectiveness of ombud schemes, and promote co-ordination and co-operation between ombud schemes; and
- (b) take into account differences in the nature and complexity of complaints heard by different ombud schemes. 55

20

25

55

198

(6) Different Ombud Council rules may be made for, or in respect of –

- (a) different categories of ombuds and ombud schemes; and
- (b) different circumstances.

(7) (a) The Ombud Council may, on application from an ombud scheme, exempt that ombud scheme from an Ombud Council rule for a specified period of time, provided that 5 the Ombud Council is satisfied that the intended outcome of the rule will still be met.

(b) Any such exemption may be subject to conditions set by the Ombud Council.

(8) An Ombud Council rule may amend or revoke another Ombud Council rule.

Directives of Ombud Council

202. (1) The Ombud Council may issue to a person who is an ombud, or to an ombud 10 scheme, a written directive requiring the person to take action specified in the directive if the person has contravened or is likely to contravene a financial sector law in so far as it relates to ombud schemes.

(2) A directive issued in terms of subsection (1) must be aimed at achieving the objective of the Ombud Council set out in section 176 and stopping the ombud or ombud 15 scheme from contravening applicable financial sector laws in so far as they relate to ombud schemes, or reducing the risk of such contraventions.

(3) The Ombud Council may not issue a directive that requires a specified person to be removed from a position or function in relation to an ombud scheme unless the person—

- (a) has contravened a provision of a financial sector law or an Ombud Council rule;
- (b) has become a disqualified person; or

(c) no longer complies with applicable fit and proper person requirements.

(4) Before issuing a directive in terms of this section, the Ombud Council must—

- (a) give the person to whom it is proposed to issue the directive a draft of the proposed directive and a statement of the reasons why the Ombud Council proposes issuing it, including a statement of the relevant facts and circumstances; and
- (b) invite the person to make submissions on the matter, and give the person a 30 specified period, which must be reasonable, to do so.

(5) If the directive requires a person to be removed from the person's position or function in relation to an ombud scheme, the Ombud Council must also—

- (a) give the person a draft of the proposed directive and a statement of the reasons why the Ombud Council proposes issuing it, including a statement of the 35 relevant facts and circumstances; and
- (b) invite the person to make submissions on the matter within the period specified in terms of subsection (4)(b).

(6) In deciding whether to issue the directive, the Ombud Council must take into account all submissions received by the end of the period referred to in subsection 40 (4)(b).

(7) If the delay involved in complying, or complying fully, with subsections (4) and
(5) in respect of a proposed directive is likely to lead to prejudice to financial customers or defeat the object of the directive, the Ombud Council may issue the directive without having complied, or complied fully, with those subsections.
45

(8) (a) If the Ombud Council issues a directive without having complied, or complied fully, with subsection (4) or (5), the person to whom it was issued, and, where subsection (5) applies, the person referred to in that subsection, must be given a written statement of the reasons why those subsections were not complied with.

(b) A person to whom the statement was given in terms of paragraph (a) may make 50 submissions to the Ombud Council within one month after being given the statement.

(c) The Ombud Council must consider the submissions, and notify the person, as soon as practicable, whether the Ombud Council proposes to revoke the directive.

(9) A directive in terms of this section must specify a reasonable period for compliance.

(10) The Ombud Council may at any time revoke a directive in terms of this section by written notice to the person to whom it was issued.

(11) A person to whom a directive in terms of this section has been issued must comply with the directive.

Enforceable undertakings

203. (1) An ombud scheme may give the Ombud Council, and the Ombud Council may accept, a written undertaking concerning the ombud scheme's future conduct in relation to a financial sector law in so far as it relates to ombud schemes.

(2) Section 151 applies, with necessary changes required by the context, in relation to an undertaking contemplated in subsection (1), as if the references in that section to 10 "responsible authority" were references to the Ombud Council.

Compliance with financial sector laws

204. (1) The Ombud Council may commence proceedings against an ombud scheme in the High Court for an order to ensure compliance with the financial sector law in so far as it relates to ombud schemes.

15

(2) Section 152 applies, with necessary changes required by the context, in relation to the proceeding, as if the references in that section "responsible authority" were references to the Ombud Council.

Debarment

205. (1) The Ombud Council may make a debarment order in respect of a natural 20 person if the person has -

- (a) contravened a financial sector law in so far as it relates to ombud schemes, or an Ombud Council rule;
- (b) attempted, or conspired with, aided, abetted, induced, incited or procured another person to contravene a financial sector law in so far as it relates to 25 ombud schemes.

(2) A debarment order prohibits the person, for a specified period, as specified in the order, from performing a specified role in relation to an ombud scheme.

(3) Before making a debarment order in respect of a person, the Ombud Council must— 30

- (a) give a draft of the order to the person and to the financial sector regulators, along with reasons for and other relevant information about, the proposed debarment; and
- (b) invite the person to make submissions on the matter, and give the person a reasonable period to do so. 35

(4) The period in terms of subsection (3)(b) must be at least one month.

(5) In deciding whether or not to make a debarment order in respect of a person, the Ombud Council must take into account at least—

- (a) any submission made by, or made for, the person; and
- (b) any advice from a financial sector regulator.

(6) A debarment order takes effect from-

(a) the date on which it is served on the person; or

(b) if the order specifies a later date, the later date.

(7) A copy of a debarment order in respect of a person must also be given to each ombud scheme.

(8) (a) A person who is subject to a debarment order may not engage in conduct that directly, or indirectly, contravenes the order.

(b) Without limiting paragraph (a), a person contravenes that paragraph if the person enters into an arrangement with another person to engage in the conduct for or on behalf of, or in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of, the person. 50

(9) An ombud scheme that becomes aware that a debarment order has been made in respect of a person employed or engaged by the ombud scheme must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the order is given effect to.

Administrative penalties

206. (1) Chapter 13 applies in relation to the Ombud Council as if references in that Chapter—

- (a) to a financial sector law were references to a financial sector law in so far as it relates to ombud schemes; and
- (b) to a financial sector regulator were references to the Ombud Council.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the Ombud Council may impose an administrative penalty only on an ombud scheme, a member of the governing body of an ombud scheme, or an ombud.

Requests for information

207. (1) (a) The Ombud Council may, by written notice, require an ombud scheme or an ombud to provide specified information or a specified document in the possession or under the control of the person to whom the notice is given, being information or a document which is relevant to the Ombud Council's assessment of compliance by an ombud scheme or an ombud with—

- (i) a financial sector law in so far as it relates to ombuds;
- (ii) an Ombud Council rule;
- (iii) a directive issued by the Ombud Council in terms of section 202; or
- (iv) an enforceable undertaking accepted by the Ombud Council.

(b) The Ombud Council may require the information or document to be verified as 20 specified in the notice, including by an auditor approved by the Ombud Council.

(2) A person that has been given a notice in terms of subsection (1) must comply with the requirements in the notice.

Supervisory on-site inspections and investigations

208. (1) Part 3 of Chapter 9 applies in relation to the Ombud Council as if—

- (a) references in that Chapter to a financial sector law were references to a financial sector law in so far as it relates to ombud schemes;
- (b) references to a financial sector regulator were references to the Ombud Council; and
- (c) references to a supervised entity were references to an ombud scheme or an 30 ombud.

(2) Despite section 132(2), the purpose of a supervisory on-site inspection of an ombud scheme or an ombud in terms of this section is to check compliance by the ombud scheme or ombud with a financial sector law in so far as it relates to ombuds.

- (3) Part 4 of Chapter 9 applies in relation to the Ombud Council as if—
 - (a) references in that Chapter to a financial sector law were references to a financial sector law in so far as it relates to ombud schemes;
 - (b) section 135(1)(b) were omitted; and
 - (c) references to a financial sector regulator were references to the Ombud Council.

(4) Section 140 applies in relation to the Ombud Council exercising powers in terms of this section as it applies in relation to the financial sector regulators.

Part 4

General provisions

Access to ombud schemes

209. (1) The Ombud Council must, as soon as practicable after this Part comes into effect, establish and operate one or more centres to facilitate financial customers' access to appropriate ombuds.

(2) A centre may incorporate a call centre.

(3) The purpose of a centre is to provide a place, and staff and facilities, to assist 50 financial customers to formulate complaints and to identify for them the ombud appropriate to deal with their complaints.

Restrictions on financial institutions in relation to ombud schemes

210. (1) A financial institution may not describe any internal procedure it has for dealing with or resolving complaints made to it by financial customers as an ombud scheme, or a person that deals with or resolves such complaints as an ombud.

(2) A financial institution must disclose to its financial customers applicable ombud 5 schemes, and how to contact and submit complaints to those schemes, in accordance with Ombud Council rules that may be issued in this regard.

(3) (a) A financial institution may not require or invite a financial customer to make a complaint to an -

- (i) ombud, unless the person so charged with this function is part of a recognised 10 industry ombud scheme or a statutory ombud scheme; or
- (ii) ombud scheme, unless the ombud scheme concerned is a recognised industry ombud scheme or a statutory ombud scheme.

(b) A requirement or invitation contrary to paragraph (a) is void.

(4) An ombud scheme may not describe or hold itself out as being a recognised 15 industry ombud scheme in terms of this Part unless it is so recognised.

(5) An ombud scheme may not permit another person to identify it as a recognised industry ombud scheme in terms of this Part, unless it is so recognised.

(6) For the purposes of subsections (3), (4) and (5), an ombud scheme whose recognition has been suspended or revoked is not recognised. 20

Applicable ombud schemes

211. (1) (a) If there is no recognised industry ombud scheme or statutory ombud scheme that makes provision for the resolution of complaints about financial products or financial services of a particular kind, the Ombud Council may, after consulting relevant ombud schemes, designate an ombud scheme, or two or more ombud schemes, to deal 25 with and resolve complaints about products or services of that kind.

(b) If the Ombud Council designates two or more ombud schemes in terms of paragraph (a), it must also determine the elements of the complaint to be dealt with and resolved by each of the designated schemes.

(c) The Ombud Council may so designate an ombud scheme on its own initiative or 30 on application by the scheme or a financial institution that provides or proposes to provide financial products or financial services of that kind.

(2) If the Ombud Council designates an ombud scheme in terms of subsection (1) to deal with and resolve complaints about financial products or financial services of a particular kind—

(a) each ombud for the designated ombud scheme—

- (i) has the power and the duty, despite anything in any Act or the governing rules of the ombud scheme, to deal with and resolve complaints about the products or services, in accordance with the designation; and
- (ii) must deal with and resolve those complaints in the same way as it deals 40 with and resolves other complaints to which the ombud scheme relates; and
- (b) the governing rules of the ombud scheme must be read as including an obligation on the financial institution to comply with the determination of the ombud on those complaints.

(3) If a financial institution provides financial products and financial services and there is a recognised industry ombud scheme that provides for the resolution of complaints about financial products or financial services of that kind, the financial institution must be a member of that industry ombud scheme.

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

35

206

Overlaps between ombud schemes

212. (1) An industry ombud scheme may not deal with a complaint to which a statutory ombud scheme applies, but must refer the complaint to the appropriate statutory ombud scheme unless the statutory ombud scheme has declined to deal with the complaint.

(2) An ombud scheme may not deal with a complaint that has been dealt with by another ombud scheme unless—

- (a) the complaint is referred to it by the other ombud scheme; or
- (b) the Ombud Council has designated both schemes in terms of section 211(1) to deal with and resolve complaints of the relevant kind and each scheme is 10 dealing with the elements of the complaint in accordance with the applicable determination in terms of section 211(1)(b).

Collaboration between ombuds and ombud schemes

213. The ombud schemes, and the ombuds, must cooperate and collaborate with each other regarding complaints about financial institutions in relation to financial products 15 and financial services, including by developing processes and procedures to jointly hear and determine complaints, on their own initiative or as may be required by Ombud Council rules.

Governing rules of recognised industry ombud scheme

214. (1) Before the Ombud Council can recognise an industry ombud scheme in terms 20 of section 194, the Ombud Council must—

(a) publish—

- (i) a draft of the governing rules or amendments to the governing rules;
- (ii) a statement explaining the need for and the intended operation of the governing rules or the amendment to the governing rules; 25
- (iii) a statement of the expected impact of the governing rules or the amendment to the governing rules; and
- (iv) a notice inviting submissions in relation to the rules or amendment to the governing rules and stating where, how and by when submissions are to be made; and30
- (b) submit the draft governing rules to the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(2) The period allowed for making submissions on the governing rules or amendments to the governing rules in terms of subsection (1) must be at least 30 days.

(3) (a) The governing rules of a recognised industry ombud scheme must be approved by and may not be amended without the approval of the Ombud Council.

(b) Governing rules or amendments to governing rules that are adopted by a recognised industry ombud scheme without the approval by the Ombud Council are void.

(4) The Ombud Council must not approve governing rules or an amendment to governing rules unless it is satisfied that to do so assists in achieving the object of this 40 Act as set out in section 7.

Obligation to comply with governing rules of recognised industry ombud schemes

215. (1) A financial institution that is a member of a recognised industry ombud scheme must comply with the governing rules of the scheme.

(2) Without limiting any other right that a financial customer of a financial institution 45 that is a member of a recognised industry ombud scheme may have, the financial customer may enforce the obligation in subsection (1) in relation to a financial product or a financial service as if the obligation were a provision of the contract in terms of which the financial product or financial service was provided to the financial customer.

Suspension of time barring terms

216. Receipt of a complaint by a financial sector regulator, the Ombud Council or an ombud suspends any applicable time barring terms, whether in terms of an agreement or any law, or the running of prescription in terms of the Prescription Act, 1969 (Act No. 68 of 1969), for the period from the receipt of the complaint until the complaint has 5 either been withdrawn or finally determined.

Reporting

217. (1) An ombud scheme must—

- (a) within six months after the end of each financial year, submit to the Ombud Council, in the form and with the content required by the Ombud Council, a 10 report on the operation of the ombud scheme during the financial year, including in relation to—
 - (i) compliance with the financial sector laws in so far as they relate to ombud schemes;
 - (ii) the complaints that the ombud scheme is dealing with, and how they are 15 being dealt with; and
 - (iii) the conduct of financial institutions that is giving rise to complaints; and
- (b) comply with any request by the Ombud Council at any time for information about the operation of the ombud scheme, trends in and implications of the conduct of financial institutions observed by the ombud scheme, and any other 20 relevant information.

(2) Each of the following must, on request by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, and may at any time, provide information and reports to the Financial Sector Conduct Authority about the operation of ombud schemes and trends in and implications of the conduct of financial institutions observed by it:

- (a) The Ombud Council;
- (b) a statutory ombud scheme;
- (c) a recognised industry ombud scheme.

(3) If, in dealing with a complaint, an ombud becomes aware that there has or may have been -

- (a) a contravention of a financial sector law in a material way by a financial institution; or
- (b) an activity or action by a financial institution that has an effect on financial customers other than the complainant, the ombud must report the details of the matter, including the identity of the financial 35 institution concerned, to the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(4) (a) The Ombud Council must provide the Minister of Finance and the National Treasury with information, returns, documents, explanations and motivations that may be prescribed by Regulation for this section or information that the Minister of Finance or the National Treasury may request.

(b) Paragraph (a) does not require or permit the provision of information about persons identifiable from the information.

Part 2

Financial Services Tribunal

Establishment and function of Financial Services Tribunal

219. (1) The Financial Services Tribunal is hereby established to reconsider, in terms 45 of this Chapter, decisions as defined in section 218 and to perform the other functions conferred on it by this Act and specific financial sector laws.

(2) The Tribunal –

- (a) is independent;
- (b) must be impartial and exercise its powers without fear, favour or prejudice; 50
- (c) is a tribunal of record; and
- (d) must perform its function in accordance with this Act and the specific financial sector laws.

45

50

Members of Tribunal

220. (1) The Tribunal consists of as many members, appointed by the Minister, as the Minister may determine.

(2) The Tribunal members must include –

- (a) at least two persons who are retired judges, or are persons with suitable 5 expertise and experience in law; and
- (b) at least two other persons with experience or expert knowledge of financial products, financial services, financial instruments, market infrastructures or the financial system.

(3) A person may not be appointed to, or hold office as, a Tribunal member if the 10 person—

(a) is a disqualified person; or

(b) is not a citizen of the Republic or is not ordinarily resident in the Republic.

(4) The Minister must appoint a Tribunal member referred to in subsection (2)(a) as the Chairperson, and may appoint another Tribunal member as Deputy Chairperson. 15 (5) The Chairperson—

(a) must preside at meetings of the Tribunal; and

(b) is responsible for managing the work of the Tribunal effectively.

(6) The Deputy Chairperson performs the functions of the Chairperson on delegation by the Chairperson, or in the absence of the Chairperson, or if for any reason the office 20 of the Chairperson is vacant.

Term of office and termination of membership

221. (1) A Tribunal member holds office for—

- (a) three years from the date of the member's appointment; or
- (b) if a shorter period is specified in the appointment of the Tribunal member, that 25 shorter period.
- (2) A Tribunal member may be re-appointed at the expiry of a term.

(3) A person may resign as a Tribunal member by giving at least three months written notice to the Minister, or a shorter period of notice that the Minister may accept.

(4) The Minister must terminate a person's appointment as a Tribunal member if the 30 member becomes a disqualified person.

(5) The Minister may terminate a person's appointment as a Tribunal member if-

- (a) the member is unable to perform the functions of office for health or other reasons; or
- (b) an independent inquiry established by the Minister has found that the 35 member—
 - (i) has failed in a material way to discharge any of the responsibilities of office; or
 - (ii) has acted in a way that is inconsistent with continuing to hold the office.

(6) If an independent inquiry has been established in terms of subsection (5)(b) in 40 relation to a member, the Minister may suspend the member from office pending a decision on the removal of the member.

(7) A Tribunal member holds office on terms and conditions, including as to remuneration, not inconsistent with this Act, determined by the Minister.

Staff and resources

222. (1) The Chairperson may, in accordance with applicable law—

- (a) for the work of the Tribunal—
 - (i) appoint persons as employees;
 - (ii) enter into secondment arrangements; or
 - (iii) engage persons on contract otherwise than as employees;
- (b) enter into contracts;
- (c) acquire and dispose of property;
- (d) insure the Tribunal against any loss, damage, risk or liability that it may suffer or incur; and

30

45

(e) do anything else necessary for the performance of the Tribunal's functions.
(2) The Chairperson may not enter into a secondment arrangement in respect of a person, or engage persons as employees or on contract, unless the person and the Chairperson have agreed in writing on—

- (a) the performance measures that must be used to assess that person's 5 performance; and
- (b) the level of performance that must be achieved against those measures.

Duties of staff members

223. (1) A person who is or was a staff member under section 222 may not use that position or any information obtained as a staff member to— 10

(a) improperly benefit himself or herself or another person;

- (b) impede the Tribunal's ability to perform its functions; or
- (c) cause improper detriment to another person.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "benefit" and "detriment" are not limited to financial benefit or detriment.

Panels of Tribunal

224. (1) The Chairperson must constitute a panel of the Tribunal for each application for reconsideration of a decision.

(2) The panel constituted to consider an application for the reconsideration of a decision is the decision-making body of the Tribunal, and the panel exercises any of the 20 powers of the Tribunal relating to the reconsideration of the decision.

(3) The decision of the panel is the decision of the Tribunal as referred to in sections 234, 235 and 236 in respect of an application for the reconsideration of a decision.

- (4) A panel consists of
 - (a) a person to preside over the panel, who must be a person referred to in section 25 220(2)(a) or 225(2)(a)(i); and
 - (b) two or more persons who are Tribunal members or persons on the panel list.

(5) If, for any reason, a panel member is unable to complete proceedings for a reconsideration of a decision, the Chairperson may-

- (a) replace that member with a person referred to in subsection (4);
- (b) direct that the proceedings continue before the remaining panel members; or
- (c) constitute a new panel and direct the new panel to either continue the proceedings, or start new proceedings.

Panel list

225. (1) The Minister must establish and maintain a list of persons who are willing to 35 serve as members of panels of the Tribunal.

(2) The persons included in the panel list must-

- (a) have relevant experience in or expert knowledge—
 - (i) of law; or
 - (ii) of financial products, financial services, financial instruments, market 40 infrastructures or the financial system; and
- (b) be a fit and proper person to be included in the panel list.

(3) A person may not be included in the panel list if the person is a disqualified person.

(4) The Minister may, every five years, publicly invite persons to apply for inclusion in the panel list.

(5) The Chairperson must ensure that the persons included in the panel list have an equal opportunity to be appointed to serve on a panel of the Tribunal.

216

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

(6) The Minister—

- (a) must remove a person from the panel list—
 - (i) if the person so requests; or
 - (ii) if the person becomes a disqualified person; and
- (b) may, on recommendation of the Chairperson, remove a person from the panel 5 list if the person-
 - (i) is unable to act as a panel member for health or other reasons;
 - (ii) has failed in a material way to discharge any of the responsibilities of a panel member; or
 - (iii) has acted in a way that is inconsistent with acting as a panel member. 10

Disclosure of interests

226. (1) (a) If before or during proceedings in which a panel member is participating, it becomes apparent that the panel member or a person who is a related party to the panel member has an interest in the decision that the panel has been constituted to reconsider, the panel member must-

- immediately and fully disclose this interest to the other members of the panel; (i) and
- (ii) withdraw from any further involvement in the hearing.

(b) A disclosure in terms of paragraph (a) by the Chairperson must, in addition, be made to the Minister.

(c) A disclosure in terms of paragraph (a) by another panel member must, in addition, be made to the Chairperson.

(2) For the purposes of this section, it does not matter-

- (a) whether an interest is direct, indirect, pecuniary or non-pecuniary; or
- (b) when the interest was acquired.
- (3) In this section, "interest" does not include an interest that is not material.

(4) The Chairperson must maintain a register of all disclosures made in terms of this section, and must maintain a system for the annual disclosure of interests by members of the Tribunal.

Tribunal rules

227. (1) The Chairperson may make rules, not inconsistent with this Act, in respect of the procedure to be followed in connection with proceedings on applications for reconsideration of decisions in terms of this Chapter, and the conduct of those proceedings, and may at any time amend or revoke those rules.

(2) Tribunal rules, and amendments and revocations of Tribunal rules, must be 35 published.

Part 3

Right to reasons for decisions

Right to be informed

228. An obligation in a financial sector law to notify a person of a decision taken in 40 relation to that person must be read as including an obligation to notify the person of that person's right-

- (a) to request reasons for the decision in terms of section 229; and
- (b) to have the decision reconsidered in terms of Part 4.

Right to reasons for decisions

229. (1) A person who has not already been given the reasons for the decision may, within 30 days after the person was notified of the decision, request a statement of the reasons for the decision from the decision-maker.

(2) The decision-maker must, within one month after receiving a request in terms of subsection (1), give the person a statement of the reasons for the decision, which must 50 include a statement of the material facts on which the decision was based.

Part 4

Reconsideration of decisions

Applications for reconsideration of decisions

230. (1) (a) A person aggrieved by a decision may apply to the Tribunal for a reconsideration of the decision by the Tribunal in accordance with this Part.

(b) A reconsideration of a decision in terms of this Part constitutes an internal remedy as contemplated in section 7(2) of the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act.
 (2) The application must be made

(2) The application must be made –

- (a) if the applicant requested reasons in terms of section 229, within 30 days after the statement of reasons was given to the person; or
- (b) in all other cases, within 60 days after the applicant was notified of the decision, or such longer period as may on good cause be allowed.

(3) An application in terms of subsection (1) must be made in accordance with the Tribunal rules.

Decision of Tribunal not suspended

231. Neither an application for a reconsideration of a decision, nor the proceedings on the application, suspends the decision of the decision-maker unless the Tribunal so orders.

Proceedings for reconsideration of decisions

232. (1) In proceedings for reconsideration of a decision—

- (a) the procedure is, subject to the financial sector laws and the Tribunal rules, determined by the Chairperson;
- (b) the proceedings are to be conducted with as little formality and technicality, and as expeditiously, as the requirements of the financial sector laws and a proper consideration of the matter permit; and
- (c) any party may be represented by a legal representative.

(2) The person chairing a panel may give directions to facilitate the conduct of proceedings for reconsideration of a decision before the panel.

(3) A panel must conduct any hearing it holds in public, but the person presiding over the panel may direct that a person be excluded from a hearing on any ground on which 30 it would be proper to exclude a person from civil proceedings before the High Court.

(4) In proceedings for reconsideration of a decision, the panel is not bound by the rules of evidence, but may, subject to this section, inform itself on any relevant matter in any appropriate way.

(5) The person presiding over a panel—

- (a) may, on good cause shown, by order, direct a specified person to appear before the panel at a time and place specified in the order to give evidence, to be questioned or to produce any document; and
- (b) must administer an oath to or accept an affirmation from any person called to give evidence.

(6) A person giving evidence or information, or producing documents, has the protections and liabilities of a witness giving evidence in proceedings before the High Court.

Decisions of panels

233. If the panel constituted for an application for reconsideration of a decision is 45 divided in opinion as to an order to be made, the opinion of the majority of the panel members prevails, but if they are equally divided in opinion, the opinion of the member presiding over the panel prevails.

Tribunal orders

234. (1) In proceedings on an application for reconsideration of a decision the Tribunal may, by order—

- (a) set the decision aside and remit the matter to the decision-maker for further consideration;
- (b) in the case of a decision of any of the following kinds, also make an order setting aside the decision and substituting the decision of the Tribunal:
 - (i) A decision in terms of Chapter 13;
 - (ii) a decision referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of the definition of "decision" in section 218; and
 - (iii) a decision of a kind prescribed by Regulation for the purposes of this section; or

(c) dismiss the application.

(2) The Tribunal may, in exceptional circumstances, make an order that a party to proceedings on an application for reconsideration of a decision pay some or all of the 15 costs reasonably and properly incurred by the other party in connection with the proceedings.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) are subject to any provision of a financial sector law that excludes, restricts or qualifies the orders that the Tribunal may make in proceedings for reconsideration of a decision.

(4) The Tribunal may, by order, summarily dismiss an application for reconsideration of a decision if the application is frivolous, vexatious or trivial.

(5) This section does not affect any other right that a person may have.

Judicial review of Tribunal orders

235. Any party to proceedings on an application for reconsideration of a decision 25 who is dissatisfied with an order of the Tribunal may institute proceedings for a judicial review of the order in terms of the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act or any applicable law.

Enforcement of Tribunal orders

236. (1) A party to proceedings on an application for reconsideration of a decision 30 may file with the registrar of a competent court a certified copy of an order made in terms of section 234 if -

- (a) no proceedings in relation to the making of the order have been commenced in a court by the end of the period for commencing such proceedings; or
- (b) if such proceedings have been commenced, the proceedings have been finally 35 disposed of.

(2) The order, on being filed, has the effect of a civil judgment, and may be enforced as if lawfully given in that court.

CHAPTER 16

FEES, LEVIES AND FINANCES

40

Part 1

Fees and Levies

Fees and levies

237. (1) (a) Fees may be charged by a financial sector body in accordance with this Part to fund the performance of specific functions under this Act and the relevant 45 financial sector laws.

(b) Levies may be imposed by a financial sector body in accordance with this Part, read with legislation that empowers the imposition of levies, to fund the operations of the financial sector body.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

45

222

(2) A financial sector body must publish fees that have been determined and levies that have been imposed in the Register and on its website.

(3) Fees and levies are payable to the financial sector body at the time specified by the financial sector body, or at a time agreed to by the financial sector body.

(4) Different fees may be determined and different levies may be imposed for different 5 types or categories of persons or supervised entities.

Fees and levies to be debts

238. (1) A fee or levy payable to a financial sector body in terms of section 237 is a debt due to the financial sector body.

(2) A financial sector body may recover the amount of a debt due in terms of this 10 section by way of a judicial process in a competent court.

Budget, fees and levies proposals

239. (1) For each financial year, each financial sector body must prepare and adopt-

- (a) a budget in accordance with section 248 that includes an estimate of its expenditure;
- (b) a proposal for the fees that will be charged and levies that will be imposed by the financial sector body; and
- (c) projected estimates of its expenditure for next 2 financial years.

(2) A proposal for levies may include a proposal for one or more special levies, and in that case, the estimate of expenditure must include an estimate for the special 20 expenditure in relation to a special levy proposal.

(3) An estimate of expenditure for a financial year may include provision for one or more reserves, but the total accumulated reserves included in the estimate of expenditure may not exceed 15% of the total estimated expenditure, excluding the reserves.

(4) The financial sector body must take into account submissions made in respect of 25 the budget as well as the fees and levies proposals, which it receives in terms of section 240.

(5) The financial sector body must submit the finalised budget, together with the fees and levies proposals, to the Minister.

(6) The Minister must be allowed a period of at least 30 days to consider the proposals 30 and provide comments, if any.

(7) In respect of the fees and levies proposals for the first financial year following the commencement of this section, the Minister must approve the proposals for all the financial sector bodies.

(8) In respect of the Tribunal, the Minister must approve the fees and levies proposals 35 for any financial year following the commencement of this section.

(9) (a) In respect of financial sector bodies other than the Tribunal, for any financial year other than when subsection (7) applies, the Minister must approve the fees or levies proposals, if the fees or levies proposals are based on an estimate of expenditure in excess of the amount calculated as - previous year basis x 1.025 x (current index \div previous index).

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a)—

"current index" means the value of the index at the date the amount is to be indexed, or if the value is not available, the latest available value for the purposes of the preparation of fees and levies proposals for the current financial year;

"index" means the Consumer Price Index, as published by Statistics South Africa; "previous index" means the value of the index that was used for the value of the "current index" in the fees and levies proposals prepared for the previous financial year; and

224

"previous year basis", for a financial year, means the estimate of operating expenditure adopted in terms of this section for the financial year before the year for which the calculation is being done.

Consultation requirements

240. (1) Part 1 of Chapter 7, with the exception of section 100, applies with the 5 necessary changes, to the adoption of the budget, the estimates of expenditure as well as the fees and levies proposals as provided for in section 239.

(2) The documents that must be published under section 98 include –

- (a) the budget, estimates of expenditure and the fees and levies proposals provided for in section 239 for the relevant financial year; and10
- (b) an explanation by the financial sector body of the budget, estimates of expenditure and fees and levies proposals, and of the variation of the budget, estimates of expenditure and the fees and levies proposals against the budget, estimates of expenditure and the fees and levies proposals adopted for the previous financial year.

Determinations of information required for assessment of levy

241. (1) A financial sector body may, in writing, require a supervised entity to provide it with information relevant to any assessment of the supervised entity's liability for any levy as specified in the requirement.

(2) A requirement in terms of subsection (1) may be published in the Register or 20 provided to the supervised entity from whom information is required, and must specify the manner in which, and the date by when, the information must be provided. (3) If—

- (a) the supervised entity fails or refuses to comply with the requirement issued in terms of subsection (1); or
- (b) the information provided by the supervised entity is incomplete, incorrect or misleading, the supervised entity, and each director or member of the governing body of the supervised entity, are liable to an administrative penalty under Chapter 13.

Assessments of levy

242. (1) A financial sector body must issue to each supervised entity that is liable to pay a levy for the financial year, an assessment of a levy payable by the supervised entity.

(2) The assessment notice issued to a supervised entity must state the date on which the levy is due and must be paid, which period must not be less than 30 days from the 35 date of receipt of the notice of assessment by the supervised entity.

Payment of fee or levy by instalments

243. (1) A person who has been charged a fee, or a supervised entity who has been charged a levy, may offer to pay the fee or levy by specified instalments, and if an offer is made, the financial sector body must—

40

226

(2) A person who wishes to make an offer to pay a fee or levy by instalments must make an offer—

- (a) immediately after being notified of the fee or levy charged, if the fee or levy must be paid within 14 days after the date on which notification is received; or
- (b) at least 14 days before the date on which the fee or levy must be paid, if 5 paragraph (a) does not apply.

(3) The financial sector body must notify the person who made an offer in terms of subsection (1) of its decision—

- (a) immediately after receipt of the offer, in respect of an offer referred to in subsection (2)(a); or10
- (b) within seven days after the receipt of the offer, in respect of an offer referred to in subsection (2)(b).

Interest on late or non-payment of fees and levies

244. (1) If a fee or levy is not paid, or not paid in full, within the period specified for payment, and an offer to pay the fee or levy by instalments has not been accepted as 15 referred to in section 243(1)(a) or (b), the person liable to pay the fee or levy in question must pay interest at the rate referred to in subsection (2), on the amount of the fee or levy that remains unpaid 30 days after the due date.

(2) Interest due and payable on an outstanding fee or levy amount must be calculated based on the interest rate prescribed for the time being in terms of the Prescribed Rate 20 of Interest Act, 1975 (Act No. 55 of 1975).

(3) Interest charged is a debt due to the financial sector body, and may be recovered by a judicial process in a competent court.

Exemption from fee

245. (1) A financial sector body may, on application by a person who is liable to pay 25 a fee, exempt the person from the payment of a fee, or a part of a fee, to the extent and subject to conditions determined by the financial sector body.

(2) An application referred to in subsection (1) must include the particulars determined by the financial sector body.

(3) A financial sector body may only grant an exemption from the payment of a fee, 30 or a part of a fee, for sound reasons.

Management of fees and levies

246. (1) Fees determined in accordance with section 237(1)(a), and interest accrued on fees in terms of section 244 must be collected by the financial sector body and paid into a bank account designated for that purpose, which is in the name and control of the 35 financial sector body.

(2) Levies imposed in accordance with section 237(1)(b), and interest accrued on levies in term of section 244 must be collected by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and paid into a bank account designated for that purpose, which is in the name and control of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(3) Each financial sector body's allocation of the levies collected contemplated in subsection (2) must be transferred to the financial sector body's designated account in accordance with a payment schedule agreed between the financial sector body and the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(4) The designated bank accounts referred to in subsections (1) to (3) must be 45 approved by the National Treasury.

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

232

- (h) the Ombud Council;
- (i) an ombud; or
- (j) a payment system management body recognised in terms of section 3(1) of the National Payment System Act.

Information sharing

251. (1) (a) A financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank has an obligation and a duty to—

- (i) achieve its objective as set out in this Act;
- (ii) achieve the objects of financial sector laws;
- (iii) perform its functions, including its supervisory functions, in terms of financial 10 sector laws and the Financial Intelligence Centre Act.

(b) A financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank must collect and use information, including personal information as defined in the Protection of Personal Information Act, to the extent that the financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank determines is necessary to properly perform the obligations and duties referred to in paragraph (a). 15

(c) A financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank may only share or disclose information in order to fulfil its obligations and duties in terms of this subsection and subsection (2), and the disclosure or sharing of information for any other purposes constitutes the sharing or disclosure of information for a purpose that is not authorised, as referred to in section 272.

(2) (a) A financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank must disclose information referred to in subsection (1)(b) if the financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank determines it is necessary to comply with its obligations—

- to perform functions in terms of, or as enabled by, the financial sector laws or the Financial Intelligence Centre Act;
- (ii) relating to legal proceedings or other proceedings;
- (iii) to warn financial customers against conducting business with a financial institution or other person conducting activities in contravention of the financial sector laws or the Financial Intelligence Centre Act;
- (iv) to inform financial customers of actions taken against a financial institution in 30 terms of the financial sector laws or the Financial Intelligence Centre Act;
- (v) to alert financial customers to activities carried out by a financial institution that a financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank believes to constitute a risk to financial customers;
- (vi) to protect the public interest;
- (vii) to deter, prevent, detect, report and remedy fraud or other criminal activity in relation to financial products or financial services; or (viii) relating to anti-money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism.

(b) Information obtained in terms of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, other than in terms of sections 45 and 45B of that Act, may only be utilised or disclosed in 40 accordance with sections 29, 40 and 41 of that Act.

(3) A financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank, in pursuing the obligations and duties referred to in subsections (1)(a) and (2)(a), may—

- (a) liaise with any designated authority on matters of common interest;
- (b) participate in the proceedings of any designated authority;
- (c) advise or receive advice from any designated authority;
- (d) prior to taking regulatory action which a financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank considers material against a financial institution, inform any designated authority that the financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank, as the case may be, of the pending regulatory action or, where this is not possible, 50 inform the designated authority as soon as possible after taking the regulatory action; and

20

234

- (e) negotiate and enter into bilateral or multilateral co-operation agreements, including memoranda of understanding, with designated authorities, including designated authorities in whose countries a subsidiary or holding company of a financial institution is incorporated or a branch is situated, to, among other matters—
 - (i) co-ordinate and harmonise the reporting and other obligations of financial institutions;
 - (ii) provide mechanisms for the exchange of information, including provisions requiring or permitting a financial sector regulator, the Reserve Bank or a designated authority—
 - (aa) to be informed of adverse assessments in respect of financial institutions; or
 - (bb) to provide or receive information regarding significant problems that are being experienced within a financial institution;
 - (iii) provide procedures for the co-ordination of supervisory activities to 15 facilitate the monitoring of financial institutions, including on an on-going basis; and
 - (iv) assist any designated authority in regulating and enforcing any laws that the designated authority is responsible for supervising and enforcing, that are similar to a financial sector law or which have an impact on the 20 regulation of the financial sector and financial institutions.

(4) (a) Information may only be disclosed by a financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank to a designated authority if, before disclosing the information, the financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank is satisfied that the designated authority that receives the information has proper and effective safeguards in place to protect the 25 information, which safeguards are similar to those provided for in this section.

(b) A financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank may only consent to information that is provided to a designated authority being made available to third parties if it is satisfied that the third parties have proper safeguards in place to protect the information received, which safeguards are similar to those provided for in this section.

(c) A financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank may only request information from a designated authority in connection with the performance of obligations and duties in terms of the laws referred to in subsections (1) and (2).

(d) Information provided on request to a designated authority in terms of this section— 35

- (i) must only be used by the designated authority for the purpose for which it was requested;
- (ii) may not be disclosed to a third party without the consent of the designated authority that provided the information; and
- (iii) must retain its integrity and confidentiality, and the designated authority that 40 receives the information must take appropriate, reasonable technical and organisational measures to prevent loss of, damage to, or unauthorised destruction of the information, and unlawful access to or processing of the information.

(e) If, despite paragraph (d), a designated authority is compelled by law to disclose 45 information provided by another designated authority to a third party, the first designated authority must—

- (i) inform that designated authority of the event and the circumstances in which the information shall be made available; and
- (ii) use all reasonable means to oppose the compulsion to disclose, and otherwise to 50 protect the information.

(5) When sharing or disclosing information in terms of subsection (3) or (4), a financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank must comply with the requirements in those subsections, and a contravention of those requirements constitutes the sharing or disclosure of information in a contravention of those requirements constitutes the sharing or disclosure of information in a contravention of the sector requirements constitutes the sharing or disclosure of information.

disclosure of information in a manner that is not authorised, as referred to in section 272. 55 (6) (a) A financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank must have in place written processes and procedures that—

 (i) clearly specify which officials and employees in the financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank are authorised to share or disclose information in terms of this section; and

60

10

25

30

236

 (ii) provide for the sharing or disclosure of information in a manner that is consistent with the requirements of this section and the Protection of Personal Information Act.

(b) The processes and procedures referred to in paragraph (a) must grant authority to share or disclose information only to officials and employees who have an appropriate 5 degree of seniority in the institution.

(c) Only an official or employee of a financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank who is authorised by the policy and procedures of the financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank may share or disclose information on behalf of the financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank.

(7) For the purposes of this section, "information" does not include aggregate statistical data or information that does not disclose the identity of a person.

Reporting by auditors to financial sector regulators

252. (1) (a) An auditor of a licensed financial institution, or of a holding company of a financial conglomerate must, without delay, submit a detailed written report to the 15 Prudential Authority, the governing body of the financial institution and, in the case of a financial conglomerate, the holding company of the financial institution, about any matter relating to the business of the financial institution or a company within the conglomerate, being a matter—

- (i) which the auditor becomes aware of in the course of performing functions and 20 duties as auditor; and
- (ii) that the auditor considers-
 - (aa) is causing or is likely to cause the financial institution to be financially unsound;
 - (bb) is contravening or may contravene a financial sector law; or
 - (cc) may result in an audit not being completed or may result in a qualified or adverse opinion on accounts.

(b) An auditor must also submit any report or other document or particulars about the matter contemplated in section 45(1)(a) and (3)(c) of the Auditing Profession Act, 2005 (Act No. 26 of 2005), to the Prudential Authority.

(2) An auditor of a licensed financial institution or of a holding company of a financial conglomerate who resigns or whose appointment is terminated must submit to the Prudential Authority—

- (a) a written statement on the reasons for resignation or the reasons that the auditor believes are the reasons for the termination; and 35
- (b) any report contemplated in section 45(1)(a) and (3)(c) of the Auditing Profession Act, 2005 (Act No. 26 of 2005), that the auditor would, but for the resignation or termination, have had reason to submit.

(3) (a) The furnishing, in good faith, by an auditor of a report or information under subsection (1) or (2) is not a contravention of a law, a breach of a contract or a breach 40 of a code of professional conduct.

(b) A failure, in good faith, by an auditor to comply with this section does not confer upon any person a right of action against the auditor.

Reporting to financial sector regulators

253. (1) A person may report to a financial sector regulator—

45

(a) financial difficulties or suspected financial difficulties in a financial institution;(b) a contravention or suspected contravention of a financial sector law in relation

- to a financial institution; or
- (c) the involvement or the suspected involvement of a financial institution in financial crime.

(2) Unless the report was made in bad faith, a person who makes a report in terms of subsection (1) is not—

(a) criminally liable for making the report; or

(b) liable to pay compensation or damages to any person in relation to a loss caused by the report.55

10

15

238

Prohibition of victimisation

254. A person may not subject another person to any prejudice in employment, or penalise another person in any way, on the ground that the other person—

- (a) made a report in terms of section 252; or
- (b) made a report in terms of section 253, even if the report was not required by 5 law.

Protected disclosures

255. Sections 252 and 253 apply in addition to, and do not limit, any other law that provides protection for persons who properly report contraventions of the law.

Part 2

Financial Sector Information Register

Establishment and operation of Financial Sector Information Register

256. The National Treasury must establish and maintain the Financial Sector Information Register in accordance with this Part.

Purpose of Register

257. The purpose of the Register is to provide reliable access to accurate, authoritative and up to date information relating to financial sector laws, Regulations, regulatory instruments and their implementation.

Content of Register

258. (1) The Register is a database of the documents listed in Schedule 3. 20 (2) The Register may include other documents that are relevant to the regulation and supervision of the financial sector and the Director-General determines which other documents may be included in the Register.

Keeping of Register

259. (1) The Register must be kept in an electronic form.
(2) The Register must be kept in a way that facilitates access and searching of the Register by members of the public.

Requirements for registered documents

260. The Director-General may make a written determination –

- (a) specifying requirements for documents that must be, or may be, included in 30 the Register, including requiring persons lodging a document for registration to provide information about the document, to ensure that the Register is useful for persons accessing the Register; and
- (b) specifying procedures for transmitting documents to the National Treasury for registration.35

Status of Register and judicial notice

261. (1) The Register is, for all purposes, taken to be a complete and accurate record of all financial sector laws and all regulatory instruments that are included in the Register.

(2) A compilation of a law or a regulatory instrument that is included in the Register 40 is, unless the contrary is established, taken to be a complete and accurate record of that law or regulatory instrument as amended and in force at the date specified in the compilation.

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

240

(3) (a) In any proceedings, proof is not required about the provisions and coming into effect, in whole or in part, of a law or regulatory instrument as it appears in the Register.
(b) A court or tribunal may inform itself about those matters in any way it deems fit.

- (4) It is presumed, unless the contrary is established—
 - (a) that a document that purports to be an extract from the Register is what it 5 purports to be; and
 - (b) that a regulatory instrument, a copy of which is produced from the Register, was registered on the day and at the time stated in the copy.

Extracts from Register regarding licence status

262. An extract from the Register, in the form determined by, and authenticated as 10 determined by, the Director-General, that shows that, at a specified date, after this Part comes into effect—

- (a) a person was or was not licensed under a financial sector law;
- (b) a specified licence was or was not subject to specified conditions;
- (c) a specified licence was, at a specified time, suspended, cancelled or revoked; 15 or
- (d) a specified financial institution was at a specified time a systemically important financial institution, is admissible as evidence of the facts and matters stated in it and, unless the contrary is established, is conclusive.

20

Rectification of Register

263. (1) The Director-General may arrange for the Register to be corrected to rectify errors.

(2) If the Register is corrected, the Director-General must annotate relevant records in the Register to explain the nature of the rectification and specify the date and time the 25 rectification was made and the reason for the rectification.

Delegations by Director-General

264. (1) The Director-General may, in writing, delegate any power or duty of the Director-General in relation to the Register, except the power of delegation, to a staff member of the National Treasury or any other suitable person, and the Director-General 30 may, at any time, amend or revoke a delegation.

(2) A delegation may be to a specified person or to the person holding a specified position.

(3) A delegation is subject to the limitations and conditions specified in the delegation.

(4) A delegation does not divest the Director-General of responsibility in respect of 35 the delegated power or duty.

(5) Anything done by a delegate in accordance with the delegation is taken to be done by the Director-General.

Part 3

Accounts and records

274. A person who is required in terms of a financial sector law to keep accounts or records commits an offence if -

- (a) the accounts or records do not correctly record and explain the matters, transactions, acts or operations to which they relate; and
- (b) the person
 - (i) knew that, or was reckless whether, the accounts or records correctly recorded and explained the matters, transactions, acts or operations to 25 which they relate;
 - (ii) intended to deceive or mislead a financial sector regulator or an investigator; or
 - (iii) intended to hinder or obstruct a financial sector regulator, or an investigator in performing his or her duties in terms of a financial sector 30 law, and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R10 000 000, or imprisonment for a period not exceeding 10 years, or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

False assertion of connection with financial sector regulator

275. A person who, without the consent of the financial sector regulator, applies to a 35 company, body, business or undertaking a name or description that reasonably signifies or implies some connection between the company, body, business or undertaking and a financial sector regulator commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R5 000 000.

Liability in relation to juristic persons

40

45

276. (1) If –

- (a) a financial institution commits an offence in terms of a financial sector law; and
- (b) a member of the governing body of the financial institution failed to take all reasonably practicable steps to prevent the commission of the offence, the member of the governing body commits the like offence, and is liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding the penalty that may be imposed on the financial institution for the offence.

(2) If—

(a) a key person of a financial institution engages in conduct that amounts to a 50 contravention of a financial sector law; and

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

248

(b) the financial institution failed to take all reasonably practicable steps to prevent the conduct, the financial institution must be taken also to have engaged in the conduct.

Part 4

General matters

10

Complaints

277. A financial sector regulator must, if asked, assist a person to make a complaint to the appropriate ombud about the actions or practices in terms of a financial sector law, of a person in connection with providing financial products or financial services.

Compensation for contraventions of financial sector laws

278. A person, including a financial sector regulator, who suffers loss because of a contravention of a financial sector law by another person, may recover the amount of the loss by action in a court of competent jurisdiction against—

- (a) the other person; and
- (b) any person who was knowingly involved in the contravention.

Extension of period for compliance

279. (1) A financial sector regulator may, for a valid reason, extend any period for compliance with, or a period prescribed by, a provision of a financial sector law, other than a provision that the financial sector regulator must comply with.

(2) A financial sector regulator may grant an extension in terms of subsection (1) more 20 than once, and may do so either before or after the time for compliance has passed or the period prescribed has ended.

Conditions of licences

280. (1) A licence may be given subject to conditions specified in the licence or in the notice of the grant or issue of the licence given to the licensee. 25

(2) A suspension, cancellation or revocation of a licence in terms of a financial sector law may be subject to conditions specified in the notice of the suspension, cancellation or revocation given to the licensee.

(3) Contravention of a condition in terms of subsection (2) does not affect the suspension, cancellation or revocation of the licence. 30

(4) In this section, a reference to a licence must be read as including a reference to a consent, agreement, approval or permission of any kind in terms of a financial sector law.

Exemptions

281. (1) The responsible authority for a financial sector law may, in writing and with 35 the concurrence of the other financial sector regulator, exempt any person or class of persons from a specified provision of the financial sector law, unless it considers that granting the exemption—

(a) will be contrary to the public interest; or

40

(b) may prejudice the achievement of the objects of a financial sector law.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to the granting of exemptions if a financial sector law does not provide a power to grant exemptions.

(3) If a financial sector law provides a power to grant exemptions, the responsible authority must—

(a) grant the exemption in terms of the relevant provisions of the financial sector 45 law; and

250

- (b) when deciding whether to grant an exemption, comply with the requirements of subsection (1) in addition to any requirements specified in the financial sector law.
- (4) The responsible authority must publish each exemption.

Requirements for notification and concurrence

282. (1) If this Act provides that a financial sector regulator must notify the other financial sector regulator of a particular matter, the notification is not required if the other regulator has agreed, in a section 77 memorandum of understanding or otherwise, that-

- (a) failure to provide the notice does not prejudice the achievement of its 10 objective; and
- (b) the notification is unnecessary.

(2) If this Act provides that a financial sector regulator may not take a particular action without the concurrence of the other financial sector regulator, the concurrence is not required if the other regulator has agreed, in a section 77 memorandum of understanding 15 or otherwise, that-

- (a) action of the relevant kind does not prejudice the achievement of its objective; and
- (b) its concurrence is unnecessary.

(3) If this Act provides that a financial sector regulator may not take a particular action 20 without the concurrence of the Reserve Bank, the concurrence is not required if the Reserve Bank has agreed, in a memorandum of understanding or otherwise, that the concurrence is unnecessary.

Arrangements for engagements with stakeholders

283. Each of the financial sector regulators and the Ombud Council must establish 25 and give effect to arrangements to facilitate consultation and the exchange of information with financial institutions, financial customers, and prospective financial customers on matters of mutual interest.

Records and entries in books of account admissible in evidence

284. In any proceedings in terms of, or in relation to, a financial sector law, the records 30 and books of account of a financial institution, and of a person who is engaged by a financial institution to perform a control function, are admissible as evidence of the matters, transactions and accounts recorded therein.

Immunities

285. The State, the Minister, the Reserve Bank, the Governor and Deputy Governors, 35 a financial sector regulator, a member of the Executive Committee, the Prudential Committee, a member of a subcommittee of the Prudential Authority or the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, a member of the Tribunal, the Ombud Council, a member of the Ombud Board, an employee of the State, a board member or officer of the Reserve Bank, a staff member of a financial sector regulator, a staff member of the Reserve Bank, 40 a person appointed by a financial sector regulator or the Reserve Bank to exercise a power or perform a function or duty in terms of a financial sector law is not liable for, or in respect of, any loss or damage suffered or incurred by any person arising from a decision taken or action performed in good faith in the exercise of a function, power or duty in terms of a financial sector law. 45

Notices to licensees

286. (1) A notice in terms of, or relating to, a financial sector law to a person who is or was licensed in terms of a financial sector law must be served on, or given to-

- (a) the person; or
- (b) if the person cannot be found after reasonable inquiry, some other person 50 apparently involved in the management or control of a place where the person carries or carried on the licensed activities.

(2) For the purposes of a financial sector law, service in terms of subsection (1)(b) is effective service.

Publication requirements in financial sector laws

287. (1) A requirement in terms of a financial sector law to publish a document or information, including a requirement to publish it in the Gazette, must be read as a 5 requirement also to publish the document or information in the Register.

(2) The document or information may also be published on the website of the person required to publish it, or in other effective ways.

(3) This section does not require publication of a draft of a document in the Register.

Part 5

Regulations and Guidelines

Regulations and guidelines

288. (1) The Minister may make Regulations to facilitate the implementation of this Act, including Regulations—

- (a) that must or may be prescribed in terms of this Act;
- (b) to provide for other procedural or administrative matters that are necessary to implement the provisions of this Act.

(2) A requirement in terms of a financial sector law or the Interpretation Act (Act No. 33 of 1957), to publish Regulations in the Gazette must be read as a requirement to publish the Regulations also in the Register.

(3) (a) The Minister may issue guidelines for the disclosure of material interests contemplated in sections 49, 72, 193 and 226 to provide guidance to persons who are required to disclose material interests in terms of those sections.

(b) Guidelines issued in terms of paragraph (a) do not divest persons who are required to disclose a material interest in terms of sections 49, 72 193 and 226 from their duty to 25 properly apply their minds and disclose all material interests.

(4) The Minister may not make a Regulation unless the Minister—

- (a) has published
 - (i) a draft of the Regulation;
 - (ii) a statement explaining the need for and the intended operation of the 30 Regulation;
 - (iii) a statement of the expected impact of the Regulation;
 - (iv) a notice inviting submissions in relation to the Regulation and stating where, how and by when submissions are to be made; and

(b) has, once submissions referred to in paragraph (a)(iv) have been received and 35 considered, submitted to Parliament, while it is in session,—

- (i) the documents mentioned in paragraph (a)(i) to (iv); and
- (ii) a report of the consultation process, which report must include
 - (aa) a general account of the issues raised in the submissions; and (bb) a response to the issues raised in the submissions.
- (5) (a) The period allowed for making submissions referred to in subsection (4)(a)
- must be at least six weeks.

(b) The period allowed for Parliamentary scrutiny referred to in subsection (4)(b) must be at least 30 days while Parliament is in session.

(6) If a Minister intends, whether or not as a result of a consultation process, to make 45 a Regulation in a materially different form from the draft Regulation published in terms of subsection (4), the Minister must, before making the Regulation, repeat the process referred to in subsection (4).

(7) If complying with subsection (4) or (6), in the opinion of the Minister, is likely to lead to prejudice to financial customers or harm to the financial system, or defeat the 50 object of the proposed Regulation, the Minister must, before making the Regulation—

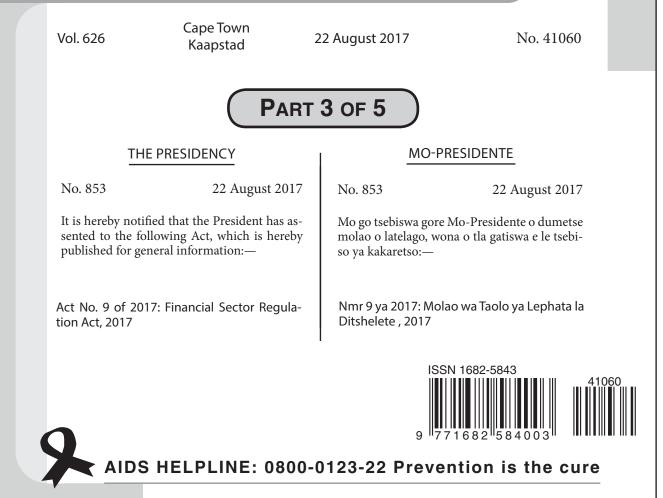

- (a) publish—
 - (i) a draft of the Regulation and a statement explaining the need for and the intended operation of the Regulation;

- (ii) a notice inviting submissions in relation to the Regulation and stating where, how and by when submissions are to be made; and
- (iii) a statement of the reasons why the delay involved in complying with subsections (4) and (6) is considered likely to lead to prejudice to financial customers or harm to the financial system, or defeat the object 5 of the proposed Regulation; and
- (b) submit to Parliament the documents mentioned in paragraph (a).

(8) (a) The period allowed for making submissions referred to in subsection (7)(a)(ii) must be at least seven days.

(b) The period allowed for submission to Parliament referred to in subsection (7)(b) 10 must be at least seven days, whether Parliament is in session or not.

(c) The period referred to in paragraph (b) may run concurrently with the period referred to in paragraph (a).

(9) The Minister must, after making a Regulation pursuant to subsections (7) and (8), within 30 days of making the Regulation, submit to Parliament a report of the 15 consultation process referred to in subsections (13) to (15).

(10) This section does not prevent the Minister from engaging in consultations in addition to those required in terms of this section.

(11) In deciding whether to make a Regulation, the Minister must take into account all submissions received by the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (5)(a) or (8)(a) 20 and any deliberations of Parliament.

(12) A Regulation comes into effect—

- (a) on the date that it is published in the Register; or
- (b) if the Regulation provides that it comes into effect on a later date, on the later date. 25
- (13) With each Regulation, the Minister must publish a consultation report.
- (14) A consultation report must include—
 - (a) a general account of the issues raised in the submissions made during the consultation; and
 - (b) a response to the issues raised in the submissions.

40

(15) If the Minister did not comply with subsection (4) or (6) for the reason stated in subsection (7), the consultation report must be published 30 days after the instrument was made and the report must include a statement of the reasons why the delay involved in complying, or complying fully, with subsection (4) or (6) was considered likely to lead to prejudice to financial customers or harm to the financial system, or defeat the 35 object of the Regulation.

256

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

Amendments and repeals

290. The Acts listed in Schedule 4 are amended or repealed as set out in that Schedule.

Transitional provision in relation to medical schemes

291. (1) The functions of the Prudential Authority in relation to medical schemes and the associated powers and duties of the Prudential Authority are, to the extent 5 determined by, and subject to any conditions determined by, the Minister, to be exercised by the Council for Medical Schemes instead of the Prudential Authority, but with the concurrence of the Prudential Authority.

(2) The functions of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority in relation to medical schemes and the associated powers and duties of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority 10 are, to the extent determined by, and subject to any conditions determined by, the Minister, to be exercised by the Council for Medical Schemes instead of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, but with the concurrence of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

(3) A determination in terms of subsection (1) or (2) must be published.

50

(4) The concurrence of a financial sector regulator in terms of subsection (1) or (2) to the exercise of a particular power or the performance of a particular function or duty is not required if the financial sector regulator has agreed in writing that—

(a) the exercise of the power or the performance of the function or duty does not prejudice the achievement of its objective; and

(b) its concurrence is unnecessary.

Transitional prudential powers of Financial Sector Conduct Authority

292. (1) This section applies for the period of three years from the date on which this section comes into effect but the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, determine a shorter or longer period.

(2) The power of the Prudential Authority to make prudential standards, to be complied with by the following financial institutions, with respect to the safety and soundness of those financial institutions and otherwise to achieve the objectives of the Prudential Authority, is to be exercised by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority:

- (a) Collective investment schemes as defined in section 1(1) of the Collective 30 Investment Schemes Control Act, 2002 (Act No. 45 of 2002);
- (b) pension funds as defined in section 1(1) of the Pension Funds Act;
- (c) friendly societies as defined in section 1(1) of the Friendly Societies Act.

(3) A prudential standard in terms of subsection (2) may only impose requirements that may be imposed under the specific financial sector law relevant to the financial 35 institution concerned.

(4) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority may exercise its other powers in terms of financial sector laws with respect to the financial institutions referred to in subsection (2) to achieve the objective of the Prudential Authority.

(5) Subsection (3) does not affect the powers of the Financial Sector Conduct 40 Authority in respect of a financial institution.

Transfer of assets and liabilities of Financial Services Board

293. (1) At the date on which this section comes into effect, the assets and liabilities of the Financial Services Board cease to be assets and liabilities of the Board and become assets and liabilities of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority without any 45 conveyance, transfer or assignment.

(2) A person or authority who, in terms of a law or of a trust instrument or in any other way is required to keep or maintain a database in relation to assets or liabilities must, and may without any application or otherwise, record in the database the transfer of the asset or liability in terms of subsection (1).

(3) A transfer of an asset in terms of subsection (1) does not give rise to any liability to duty or tax.

(4) (a) The Minister or a person authorised by the Minister for the purposes of this section may certify in writing that a specified asset or liability of the Financial Services Board became an asset or liability of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority on the date 5 on which this section came into effect.

(b) A certificate in terms of paragraph (a) is conclusive proof that a specified asset or liability of the Financial Services Board is an asset or liability of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

Transfer of staff of Financial Services Board

294. (1) (a) At the date on which this section comes into effect, the staff of the Financial Services Board must be transferred to the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the South African Reserve Bank, respectively, in accordance with section 197 of the Labour Relations Act, 1995 (Act No. 66 of 1995).

(b) Any reference in section 197 of the Labour Relations Act, 1995, to-

- (i) the "old employer" must be read as a reference to the Financial Services Board; and
- (ii) the "new employer" must be read as a reference to the Financial Sector Conduct Authority or the South African Reserve Bank, as the case may be, in respect of the staff to be transferred to either of these entities.

(c) The agreements referred to in section 197 of the Labour Relations Act, 1995, must address the transfer of the staff of the Financial Services Board to the pension fund of the South African Reserve Bank, where applicable.

(2) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority, at the date on which this section comes into effect, becomes liable for the liability of the Financial Services Board to subsidise 25 the cost of the contributions payable to a medical scheme registered under the Medical Schemes Act by—

- (a) a person who was employed by the Financial Services Board as at 1 January 1998 and remained continuously so employed until he or she retired from the Financial Services Board; or
- (b) a person who was the spouse or dependant of a person contemplated in paragraph (a) at the time of the person's retirement from the Financial Services Board, or the person's death while employed by the Financial Services Board.

(3) If the benefit payable to a member in terms of the rules of the Financial Services 35 Board Pension Fund on retirement would have been subject to special tax treatment, the benefit payable to that employee on his or her retirement by the pension fund of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the South African Reserve Bank, if applicable, must be subject to the same tax treatment.

(4) At the date on which this section comes into effect, the pension fund of the 40 Financial Services Board becomes the pension fund of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority.

Annual reports

295. (1) The Prudential Authority must prepare each annual report of a financial sector regulator required by a financial sector law for which it is the responsible authority, for 45 the reporting period during which this section comes into effect.

(2) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority must prepare each annual report of the Financial Services Board or another financial sector regulator required by a financial sector law for which it is the responsible authority, for the reporting period during which this section comes into effect.

(3) A report in terms of subsection (1) or (2) may be published as part of the first annual report of the Prudential Authority or the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, as the case may be.

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

Inspections and investigations

296. (1) An inspection or investigation in terms of the Banks Act, the Reserve Bank Act, the Mutual Banks Act, 1993 (Act No. 124 of 1993), the Co-operative Banks Act, 2007 (Act No. 40 of 2007), the Short-term Insurance Act or the Long-term Insurance Act that is pending and not concluded immediately before the date on which this section 5 comes into effect may be continued and concluded by the Prudential Authority in terms of the relevant provisions of this Act, or by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority in relation to an inspection or investigation in terms of the Short-term Insurance Act or the Long-term Insurance Act.

(2) An inspection or investigation in terms of a financial sector law or legislation 10 referred to in the definition of "Financial Services Board legislation" in section 1 of the Financial Services Board Act, other than those referred to in subsection (1), that is pending but not concluded immediately before the date on which this Chapter comes into effect may be continued and concluded by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority in terms of the relevant provisions of this Act.

Co-operation agreements with foreign agencies

297. An arrangement in terms of a financial sector law between a registrar, supervisor or other financial sector regulator and a foreign government agency that is in force on the date on which this section comes into effect continues in effect as with the substitution of the relevant financial sector regulator for the registrar, supervisor or the other 20 financial sector regulator, but may be amended or terminated in accordance with the terms of the arrangement.

Enforcement Committee and Appeal Board

298. (1) (a) Despite the repeals effected in the terms of this Part—

- (i) the Enforcement Committee is to continue to deal with any matter that it was 25 dealing with immediately before the date on which this Part comes into effect; and
- a panel of the Appeal Board is to continue to deal with any matter that it was (ii) dealing with immediately before that date.

(b) The Enforcement Committee and the panels referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) 30 continue in existence for the purposes of paragraph (a) only.

(2) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority must provide administrative and other support to the Enforcement Committee and the panels.

(3) For the purposes of this section, proceedings are instituted if -

- (a) in the case of the Enforcement Committee established in terms of section 97 35 of the Securities Services Act, 2004 (Act No. 36 of 2004), the pleadings envisaged in section 102(1) of that Act have been referred to the Enforcement Committee;
- (b) in the case of the Enforcement Committee established in terms of section 10A of the Financial Services Board Act, the pleadings envisaged in section 6B(1) 40 of the Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001 (Act No. 28 of 2001) have been delivered in terms of section 6B(2)(a) of that Act.

Right of appeal of Financial Services Board decisions

299. Despite the repeals effected in terms of section 290, section 26 of the Financial Services Board Act continues in effect in respect of decisions made before the date those 45 repeals come into effect, but the appeal contemplated by that section is made to the Tribunal.

Pending proceedings

300. (1) Despite the repeal of section 9 of the Banks Act in terms of Schedule 4, an application for a review made in terms of that section but not finally determined before 50 the date on which this section comes into effect may be continued before the board of review, which is to exercise the powers of the Tribunal in relation to the application.

(2) The Prudential Authority must be substituted as a party in any pending proceedings, whether in a court, tribunal or before an arbitrator or any other person or body, that have been commenced but not finally determined immediately before the date on which this section comes into effect, for the Reserve Bank or a registrar in terms of the Banks Act, the Mutual Banks Act, 1993 (Act No. 124 of 1993), the Co-operative 5 Banks Act, 2007 (Act No. 40 of 2007), the Short-term Insurance Act or the Long-term Insurance Act.

(3) The Financial Sector Conduct Authority must be substituted as a party in any pending proceedings, whether in a court, tribunal or before an arbitrator or any other person or body, that have been commenced but not finally determined immediately 10 before the date on which this section comes into effect, for the Financial Services Board, the Directorate of Market Abuse, where applicable, or a registrar in terms of a financial sector law other than the Banks Act.

Savings of approvals, consents, registrations and other acts

301. (1) A licence, authorisation, approval, registration, consent or similar permission 15 given in terms of a financial sector law and in force immediately before the date on which this section comes into effect remains in force for the purposes of the financial sector law, but may be amended or revoked by the responsible authority for the financial sector law, in accordance with the provisions of that financial sector law.

(2) Rules made in terms of section 26 of the Financial Advisory and Intermediary 20 Services Act and in force immediately before the date on which this section come into effect have effect as Ombud Council rules, and may be amended or revoked by Ombud Council rules in accordance with this Act.

(3) A regulatory instrument or Regulation made or issued in terms of a financial sector law and in force immediately before the date on which this section comes into effect 25 remains in force for the purposes of the financial sector law but may be amended or revoked by a regulatory instrument made by the responsible authority for the financial sector law in accordance with the relevant financial sector law.

(4) Consultations undertaken before the date on which Part 1 of Chapter 7 comes into effect in relation to a regulatory instrument proposed to be made under a specific 30 financial sector law or a proposed financial sector law after that Part came into effect are taken to meet the requirements of this Act for consultation to the extent that they—

- (a) meet the requirements of the specific financial sector law for consultation prior to the amendment of that law in accordance with Schedule 4; or
- (b) substantially meet the requirements of this Act for consultation on the 35 proposed regulatory instrument.

(5) Regulations made in terms of section 5 of the Financial Supervision of the Road Accident Fund Act, 1993 (Act No. 8 of 1993), and in force on the date on which this section comes into effect continue in force, but may be amended or repealed by Regulations made in terms of section 5 by the Prudential Authority.

40

(6) An ombud scheme that, immediately before the repeal of the Financial Services Ombuds Schemes Act, 2004 (Act No. 37 of 2004), came into effect, was recognised in terms of that Act must be taken to be a recognised industry ombud scheme as if it had been recognised under this Act.

(7) Subsection (6) ceases to have effect at the end of 12 months after Chapter 14 takes 45 effect, but the Ombud Council may, on application and for good reason, extend the application of that subsection in a particular case for a further period of not more than 6 months.

Levy

302. (1) Despite the repeal of the Financial Services Board Act in terms of Schedule 4, a levy imposed in terms of section 15A of the Financial Services Board Act continues in force subject to this Act, until a date fixed by the Minister by notice published in the Register.

(2) A levy referred to in subsection (1) is, from the date on which this section takes effect, taken to be a levy for the purposes of this Act.

Chief Actuary

303. A reference in any Act or subordinate legislation to the Chief Actuary is, after the date on which this section comes into effect, to be read as a reference to the Prudential 10 Authority.

Additional transitional arrangements

304. (1) In order to facilitate the coming into effect, appropriate implementation and operation of this Act, the Minister may make Regulations providing for transitional arrangements regarding the exercise of powers, the performance of functions and duties, 15 and other matters that may be necessary in relation to-

- (a) the establishment of the financial sector regulators and other bodies in terms of this Act;
- (b) the coming into operation of different provisions of this Act; and
- (c) the repeal or amendment of different provisions of a law repealed or amended 20 by this Act.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), Regulations in terms of this section may provide for

- (a) the Reserve Bank to exercise specified powers and to perform specified functions and duties of the Prudential Authority, should it be necessary for 25 powers and functions of the Prudential Authority in terms of this Act to be exercised for a period prior to the Prudential Authority being formally established; and
- (b) the Financial Services Board to exercise specified powers and perform specified functions and duties of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, 30 should it be necessary for the powers and functions of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority in terms of this Act to be exercised prior to the Financial Sector Conduct Authority being formally established.

Part 7

Short title and commencement

Short title and commencement

305. (1) This Act is called the Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017, and comes into effect on a date determined by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.

(2) Different dates may be determined by the Minister in respect of the coming into 40 effect of -

- (a) different provisions of this Act;
- (b) different provisions of this Act in respect of different categories of financial institutions; and
- the repeal or amendment of different provisions of a law repealed or amended (c)by this Act. 45
